Preface

It is with a feeling of pride and satisfaction that the 1952 Brown and Gold staff presents to the students, faculty, and friends of Western Michigan College, the 47th edition of the yearbook.

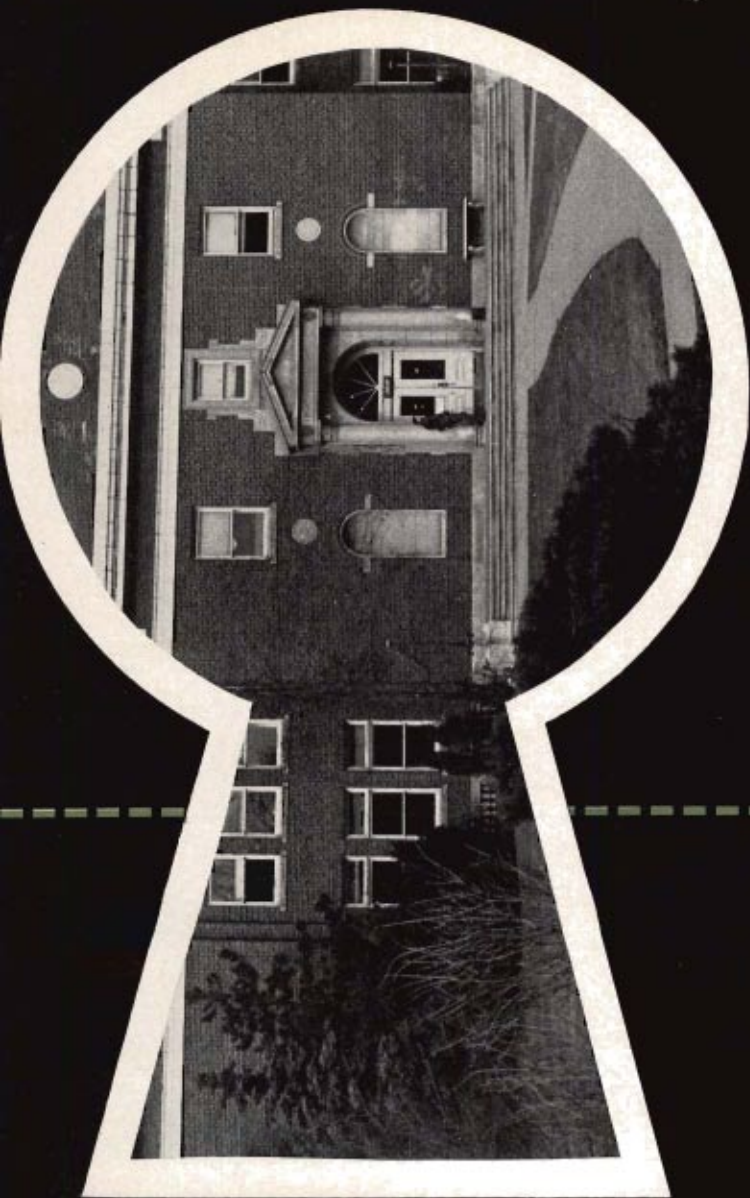

Mention of a college campus usually calls up images of many familiar buildings, old and new. However, it is the particular phase of college life that each of these buildings symbolizes, that is really important.

Because our institution is constantly expanding, it has been impossible to completely develop this theme. However, through pictures and words, we have attempted to take you "Behind the Scenes at Western" and to show you what we believe constitutes our campus.

behind the scenes at western

Dorm life . . . Six dorms are the symbol of home away from home to the majority of Westernites . . . There the experience of living in a group becomes a reality . . . The dorm . . . a place to study . . . a place for fun, for relaxation . . . a place to be "at home."

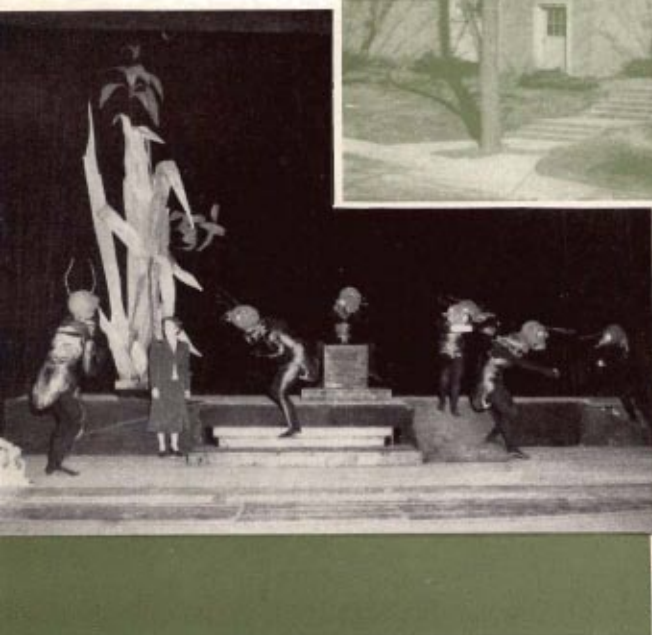

A hurried lunch before rushing to a class on the other campus . . . A snack in the mid-morning . . . after the last class in the afternoon . . . Students congregate wherever there is good food, and many are the hours spent over a cup of coffee.

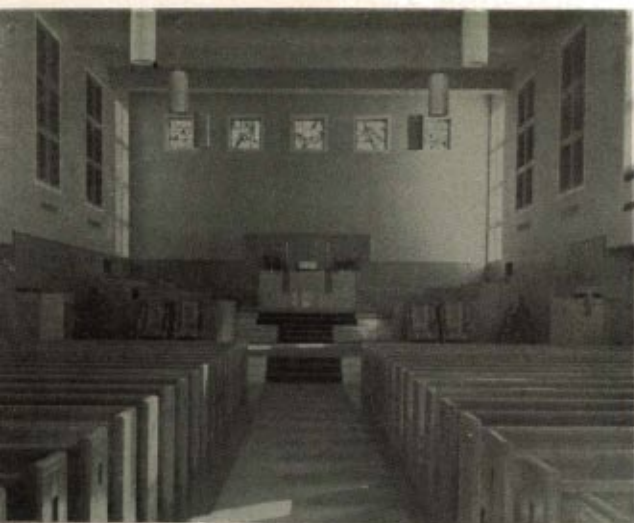

The Union . . . symbol of Western's social life . . . hub of many activities . . . Dances and parties, formal and informal . . . Open houses . . . Meetings . . . Elections. The Union offers a place just to relax and chat with friends . . . in the Soda Bar . . . the Men's Union . . . in the Davis Room.

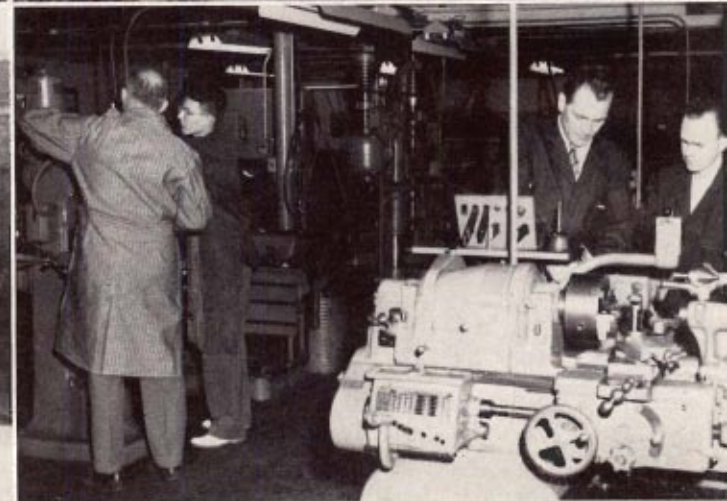

Centers of Western's "cultural" or aesthetic life are located on both campuses . . . Lectures . . . Movies . . . the theater all have their place on the hilltop. The West campus . . . musicians and artists gather . . . Concerts, recitals, and just plain practicing, are the usual activities at Maybee Hall. Kanley Memorial Chapel . . . weekly chapel services . . . Sunday evening meetings serve as outlets for students' spiritual needs.

Classes . . . classes . . . classes . . . the backbone of a college and the bane of a student's existence . . . Biology . . . An hour for study in the Library . . . Down the hill for a class in the Mechanical Trades Building.

. . . Buildings housing Western's classes are as varied as the classes, themselves . . . Traditional, classic . . . modernistic . . . As familiar a sight as the white columns on the hilltop, are the "temporary" structures which to many students mean . . . Rhetoric . . . literature courses . . . business studies . . . and the former residences . . . languages . . . home ec . . . history. Colorful . . . quaint . . . new . . . old . . . these are Western's classes.

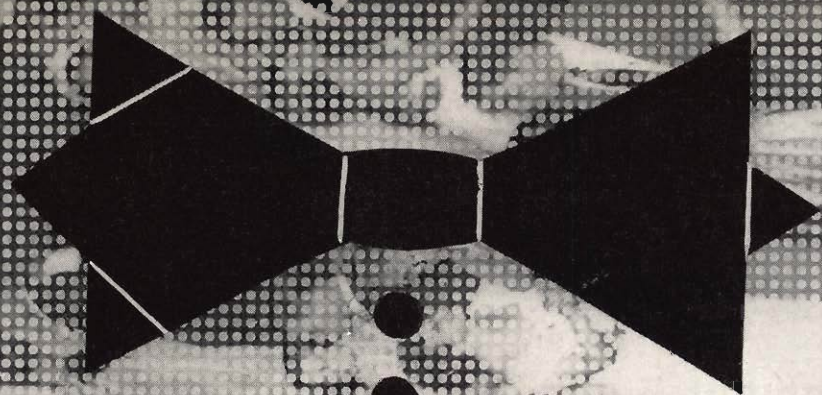

Fall . . . football . . . Winter . . . basketball . . . intramural sports . . . Spring . . . baseball . . . golf . . . tennis . . . Throughout the year the Men's Gym, scene of basketball thrills and overlooking the stadium and the baseball diamond to the West, symbolizes the place of a well organized athletic program in college activities.

WESTERN'S

From the time school opens in September until it closes in June, dances form a major part of the social activities at Western. Student Council's All-student Dance ends Freshman Week events . . . The Carnation Ball, first of the formal dances . . . Dancing plays an important part in the Homecoming festivities . . . The Campus Couple Fling, traditional dressy dance . . . Christmas Ball . . . Women's League Formal . . . The Sweetheart Ball is among the first dances of the second semester . . . Seniors and guests enjoy themselves at the Senior Cabaret . . . Spring brings the Military Ball . . . Junior-Senior Dinner Dance . . . The Cotillion. Open houses, dorm and organization sponsored dances, both formal and informal, furnish Western's dance enthusiasts with plenty of relief from classes and everyday affairs.

Sigma Epsilon's "Heartbeat" dance started off second semester social activities.

DANCES

Western's women did the inviting to League's "Frosty Wonderland" formal.

Highlight of ROTC social festivities is the annual Military Ball.

Informal dances are an important part of college extra-curricular activities.

1952 Brown and

Plans for the 1952 Brown and Gold Fantasies were begun last spring with the appointment of Script Writer Philip Faustman, and Producer Gilbert Kurschner. By fall the script was nearly completed, enabling the Director and Business Manager to be appointed. These positions were filled by Michael Zins and James Hoekje, respectively.

Working with these people was a student-faculty Fantasies Committee. Other behind-the-scenes workers included: Harold Shoup, technical director; Douglas Johnson, orchestra conductor; William Wells, chorus director; Jerry French, choreography; Gordon Sherwood, orchestration; and Charles Sherwood, publicity.

Lee Steinhardt, Ted Teeter, Marcella Gillespie, Bill Durkee, Laurine Elsie, Kenneth Hansen.

Gold Fantasies

A hard working cast began rehearsing at the end of February for the show to be presented at the Civic Theater, May 14-17. Before long, those dates had passed, and the seventh annual Fantasies production was a part of Western's history.

With Puerto Rico as a setting, the show was concerned with three American Sailors, of varying degrees of intelligence and financial means, who intended to build a night club on the island. In the process they joined forces with a stranded show troupe with many results, love being not the least. Music for the show was student-written and took on a fiesta time air. Featured number was "Holiday."

Assemblies

Mr. William L. Laurence.

The cast of "Harvey" played before a full house in November when it presented Western's second assembly.

A lecture, "The Truth about the Hydrogen Bomb," given by Mr. William L. Laurence, was the first regular assembly of the new year. The same week, a special program was presented by Dr. Archibald MacLeish, who addressed students on "The Faith of a Teacher."

"The Prospects for World Peace and Morality" was the topic which Dr. Ralph Bunche discussed. The Associate Editor of "The Saturday Review of Literature," Mr. John Mason Brown, lectured on "Seeing More Things."

The Men's Glee Club provided intermission entertainment at the annual all-student Christmas party.

Dr. Elwyn Carter is seen rehearsing the orchestra and choral groups for the Christmas concert.

Once again, the ballroom and the Union were filled with happy students who attended the annual all-student Christmas party, sponsored by the Student Council. The good will of Westernites was shown by the enthusiasm they displayed in contributing either canned goods or a sum of money for admission to the party. These items were later donated to the Salvation Army. Caroling, dancing, and special intermission entertainment added to the holiday atmosphere.

The music department of Western departed from its traditional presentation of "The Messiah" in its 1951 Christmas concert. The three-part program consisted of readings given by Dr. Albert Becker, choruses, traditional carols, and featured the Saint Saens "Christmas Oratorio," as well as a piece orchestrated by Dr. Holon Matthews.

Christmas Activities

On April 23, 1952 station WMCR, the FM radio celebrated its first birthday. Licensed by the Federal Communications Commission, WMCR operates on channel 216 at 91.1 megacycles with 400 watts effective radiated power.

With Mr. Wallace Garneau and Mr. Homer Kuiper of the faculty acting as station manager and chief engineer, respectively, the station is staffed by students, who work on a part time basis. Glen Bishop and Norm Zoodsma served as station engineers, Bill Dagg and Chuck Mefford handled the announcing. Bill gave play-by-play accounts of all home football, basketball and baseball games, and Chuck acted as host on the weekly "Guest Book" interview program.

Cliff Haycock, who served as program supervisor during the first semester, assisted with the sports broadcasts and acted as traffic manager. Janet MacDonald and Jacqueline Kintner efficiently took care of the stenographic duties of the station, handling programming and traffic during the second semester.

WMCR broadcast from 1:00 to 3:00 and from 6:00 to 9:00 five days a week, Monday through Friday. Featured on the station were concerts of the music department, discussions from the social science division, a series of programs by students of the speech clinic, assembly addresses by Dr. Ralph Bunche and Mr. John Mason Brown, and the Shakespeare class of Dr. William Brown, chairman of the English department.

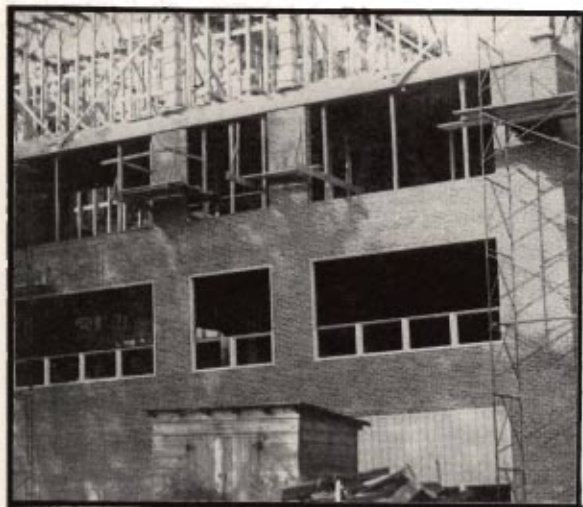

A member of the National Association of Educational Broadcasters, WMCR is served by the association's tape network, receiving many outstanding series including "World Theater" from the BBC, "Cooper Union Forum" from WNYC, "Music for the Connoisseur" from New York University, and many others.

Administration

DR. PAUL V. SANGREN
WESTERN'S PRESIDENT

This year of 1952 again brings the production of an excellent Brown and Gold Annual. The record in type and picture provides an excellent summary of the activities for the academic year 1951-52. The production is both artistic and useful.

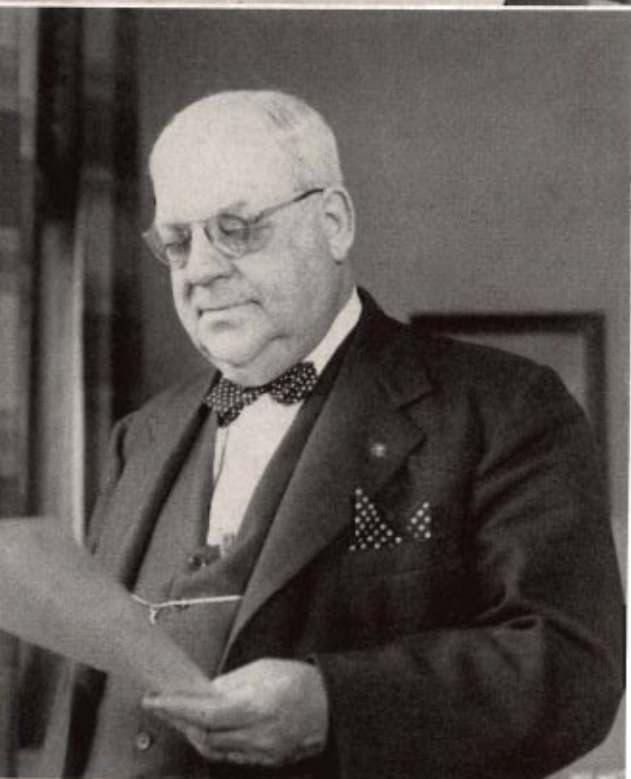

I want to express my appreciation and extend my congratulations to the staff for their most excellent work.

PAUL V. SANGREN, president

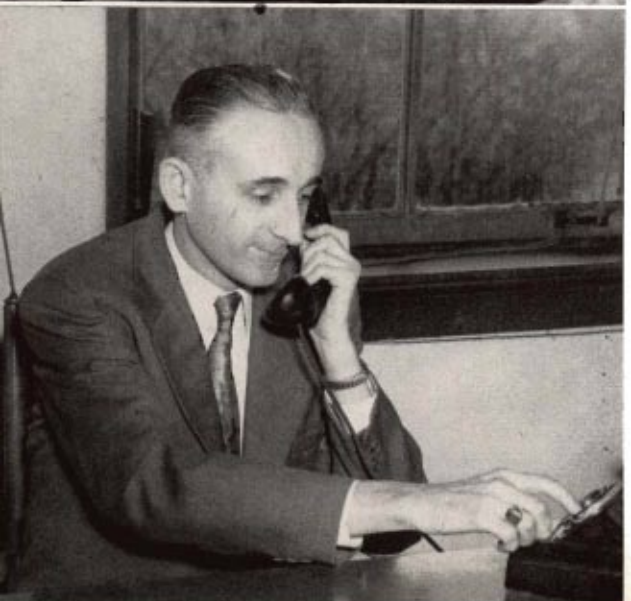

Dr. Wynand Wichers

Dr. Wynand Wichers, vice-president, has once again put in a hard year's work for the good of Western. He has succeeded in bringing the expansion program forth with new vigor and has cooperated in working with both students and faculty to reach this end.

John C. Hoekje

As Dean of Administration, Mr. John C. Hoekje takes care of all the details of student registration, works closely with both students and faculty on the many committees of which he is chairman, and still always seems to have a spare minute to consult with any student who has a problem. Dean Hoekje is also an ardent sports fan and has done much to improve Western's athletic program.

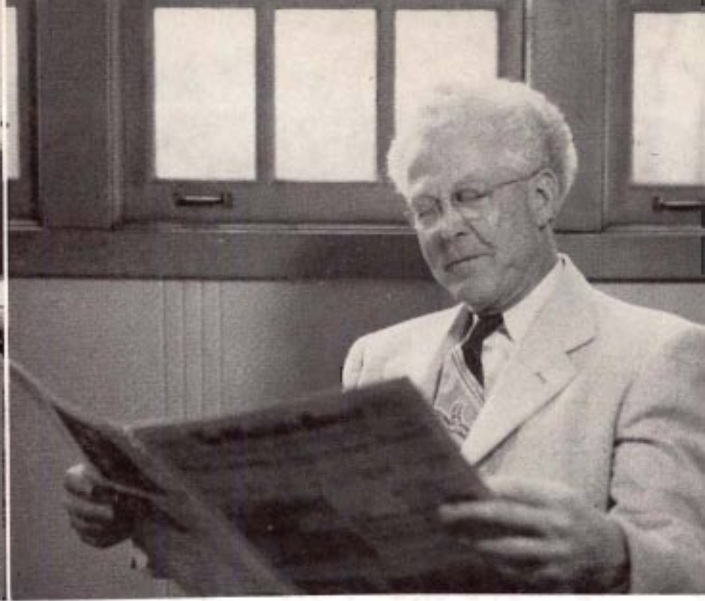

Leonard Gernant

Every student at Western has a personal file of his grades, activities, and scholastic rating, and these files are kept in the office of the Assistant Registrar, Mr. Leonard Gernant. It is Mr. Gernant's duty to supervise the handling and recording of all this information. Along with this big job, Mr. Gernant also assists the Dean of Administration with the many problems that are involved in registration.

Dr. Elizabeth Lichty

As Dean of Women, Dr. Elizabeth Lichty is kept busy with the many problems that come up every day concerning her work here at Western. However, she is always willing to make an appointment with any Western woman to have a "get acquainted" chat or to talk over any problem that may arise for a student.

Ray C. Pellett

Mr. Ray C. Pellett, Dean of Men, always seems to have a smile which shows his friendly attitude toward Western's students as he helps them with any problems that they may take to his office. Along with his regular duties, Dean Pellett takes time out to be of any personal service he can to Western's men.

Dr. George H. Hilliard

Any guidance or counseling help that either a freshman or senior may need is carried on in a friendly way under the direction of Dr. George H. Hilliard, Director of Student Personnel and Guidance. All Western students have been helped to plan their college program and career by one of the counselors under Dr. Hilliard's supervision.

Dr. James Griggs

Working closely with students who are preparing for the teaching field and with the teachers in the education department, Dr. James Griggs, Director of Teacher Education, helps to solve many of the problems that come up for prospective teachers. He supervises the teacher-training program for students and takes care of practice teaching assignments.

Cornelius MacDonald

All financial matters that in any way pertain to Western are handled through the office of Mr. Cornelius MacDonald, the college Comptroller. He is kept very busy keeping the administration's records as well as auditing all the financial books from all the organizations on campus.

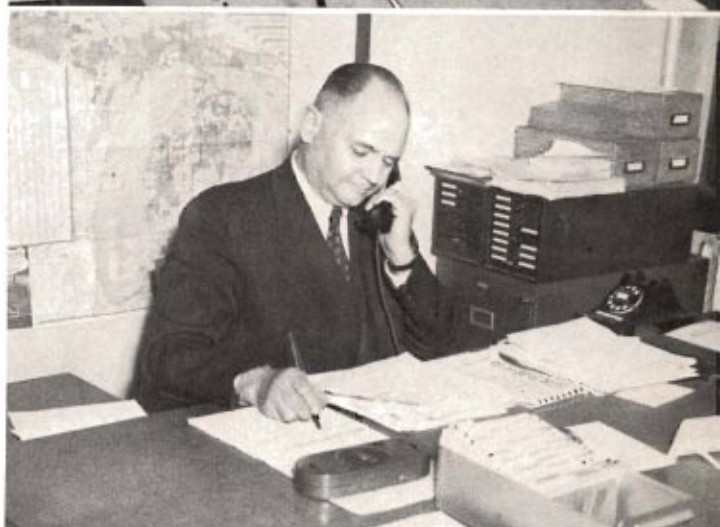

Dr. Elmer H. Wilds

Dr. Elmer H. Wilds has two important jobs here on Western's campus. As director of the Graduate Division he aids all graduate students in planning their future work. Also, as Director of Summer Sessions he supervises the administrative work during that time.

Vern E. Mabie

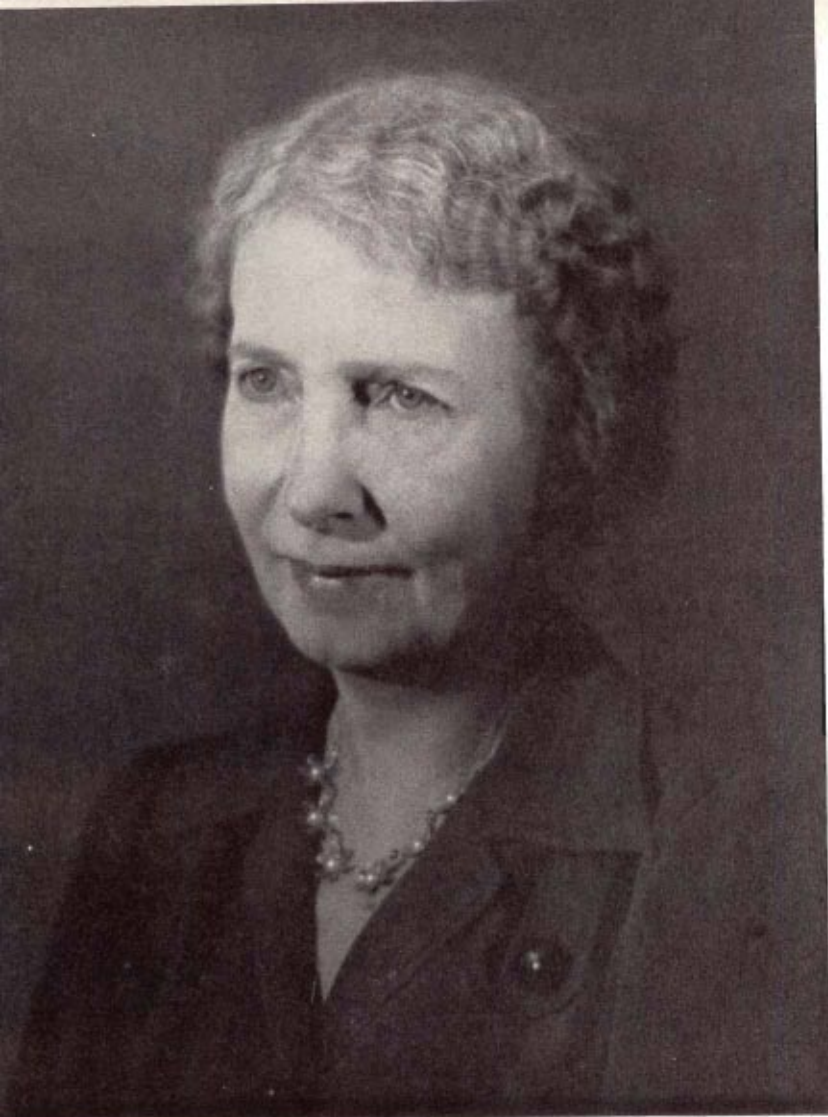

Director of Placement and Alumni Relations, Mr. Vern E. Mabie has charge of placing all prospective teachers in jobs that are suited to their chosen fields. Many teachers who have graduated from Western feel they owe a vote of thanks to Mr. Mabie for his help and guidance when they were ready to go out into the working world. Mr. Mabie also has charge of keeping up the alumni relations of Western.

George E. Kohrman

The successor of Dr. Deyo Fox as head of the Vocational Education Division is Mr. George E. Kohrman. It is his task to coordinate the various departments within this division and he also helps any students with problems they may have concerning their work.

Dedicated in Memorium . . .

MISS BLANCHE DRAPER

1883 - 1951

The 1952 Brown and Gold staff is proud to dedicate this book to the memory of Miss Blanche Draper, a true journalist who served Western with complete faithfulness for so many years. It was felt that a more fitting tribute could not be found than the following paragraph written by Mr. Wallace Garneau for the dedicatory plaque which hangs in Draper Hall.

"In naming Blanche Draper Hall, Western Michigan College is paying tribute to one who has made an outstanding contribution to the growth of the college. For thirty-two years Miss Draper has dedicated her life to serving the best interests of the institution. As a member of the Public Relations Division, and as faculty editor of the College Herald for many years, she has been a friend always ready to help students and faculty interpret the college to the general public. Her courageous spirit has made it possible for her to carry on her work in spite of difficulties that only the truly brave would be able to overcome. In devoting her life to the college absolutely and with utmost selflessness, Miss Draper has become part of the tradition that is the very essence of WMC."

DONALD BURGE
STUDENT COUNCIL PRESIDENT

For the past year the Student Council has been under the able leadership of President Don Burge. Through his and the Council members' efforts, the foundation for a better and stronger form of student government in the coming years has been laid.

Bob Murphy as vice-president was the chairman of all social affairs carried on by the Council. Some of these events included the free dance which took place at the end of the fall enrollment week, and the "Spring Tonic" dance held during the last part of the second semester. The annual Christmas Party was again sponsored by the Student Council in order to provide funds and food supplies for the work of the Salvation Army and needy families of Kalamazoo. Previous to Christmas vacation, Council sold the Salvation Army's "War Cry" magazine in classes.

Stephanie Romanowski had the large task of carrying out the secretarial duties of the Council. One of her jobs was to investigate the possibilities of securing a mimeograph machine for the group.

Bob Murphy, vice-president; Norbert Vander Steen, publicity director; Stephanie Romanowski, secretary; Tom Willoughby, auditor; Bob Haithwaite, treasurer.

The appointed offices of Student Council were held by Robert Haithwaite, Thomas Willoughby, and Norbert Vandersteen as treasurer, auditor, and publicity director, respectively. Through these positions, most of the business of the Council was administered. Bob Haithwaite handled all Council funds, and with the help of President Burge, instituted a new system for the approval and withdrawal of money from the contingent fund. The auditor's time was consumed by his periodical checking of the books of the various campus organizations.

Publicity Director Norb Vandersteen edited and published the Bronco Book, a publication intended primarily to familiarize new students with the activities and organizations at Western. Later in the fall, the Student-Faculty Directory came off the presses in a new and enlarged form. Norb also served as chairman of the Election Board in the fall and handled all minor publication notices for the Council.

Under effective leadership, it was the body of Council, the individual representatives, that constituted the framework for all its projects. The Student Leadership Committee, headed by Joan Mullany, successfully completed another year. This group assumed charge of the Freshman "Beanie" program. Theirs, also, was the responsibility of sponsoring the fourth annual Student Leadership Conference last November and the Presidents' Group Conference which followed soon afterward.

Mainly through the efforts of Ken Young, the parking lot behind Spindler Hall was enlarged and improved by the Maintenance Department. Investigation of the possibility of having photographs on student identification cards and additional plans for radio station WMC were two other projects of Council's during the past year.

Barbara Musser, Betts Snyder, Joyce Bailey,
Larry Abbott, Jack Burr.

Student Council

Bill Morse, Kenneth Young, Paul Turner,
Nancy Lewis.

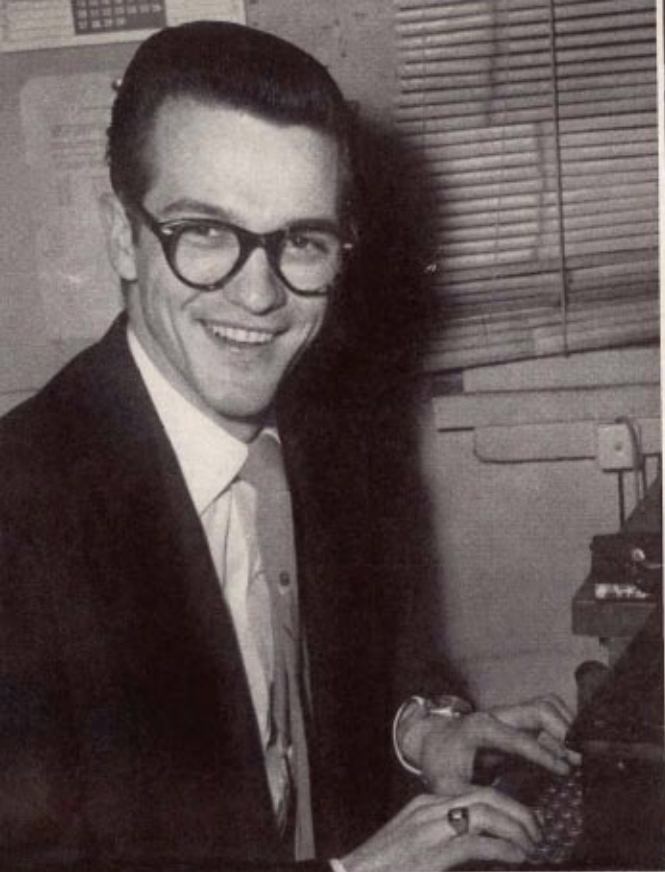

Ken Gray, parliamentarian, contributed much to the success of the Student Council through his introduction of a system of legislative proposals, beneficial in the adoption and filing of important legislative matters. He also worked hard on the new By-laws which were passed and put into operation.

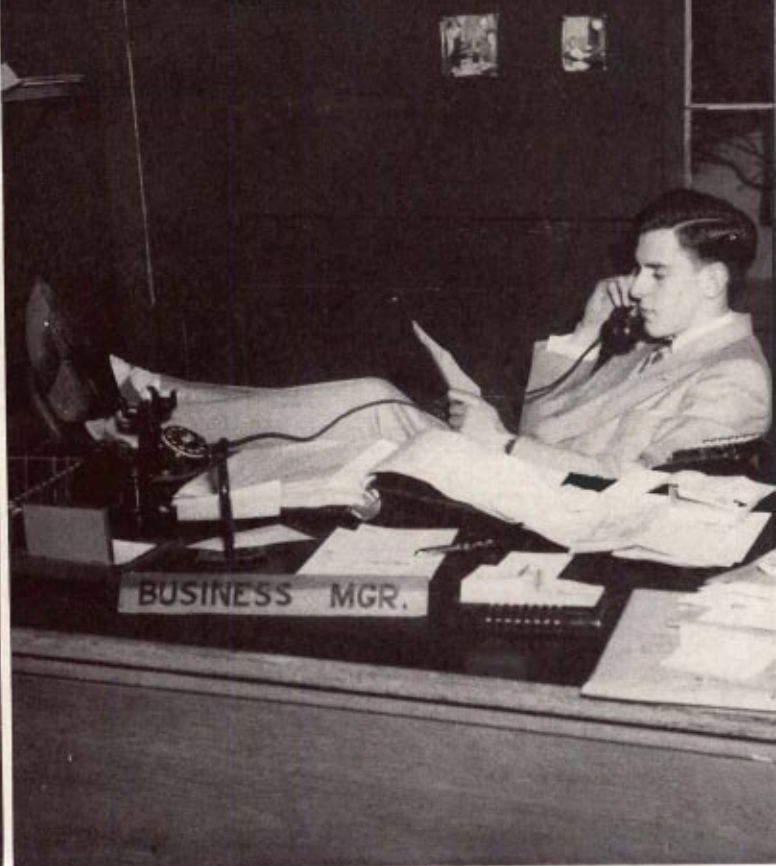

The Brown and Gold Fantasies, an annual musical comedy produced and directed by students, was again under the sponsorship of Council. Among the other achievements which the Council brought about during the year were the establishment of an UNESCO organization on campus, the continuation of the Foster-Parent program, and the introduction of a short parliamentary procedure course for various organizations. The Council also provided the Union building with a new bulletin board.

BILL GRIESSER
Business Manager

This year, as in past years, the Herald went to press as the voice of the students and faculty of Western Michigan College, setting as its goal, the betterment of the College.

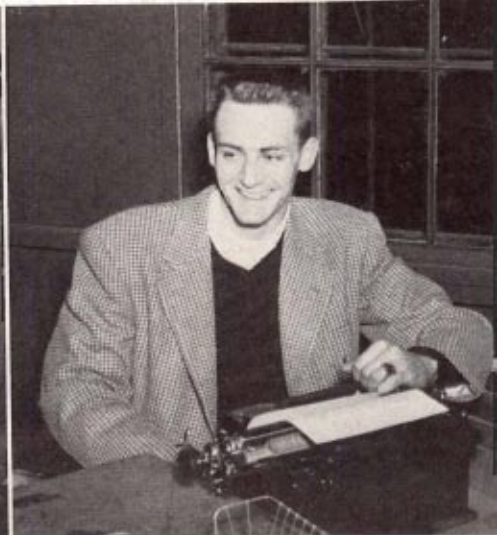

The Herald continued the policy of transmitting to the students and faculty of Western a complete coverage of campus news, informative features and interpretive editorials.

For the first time, an issue of the Herald was published at the end of Freshman Week. Also for the first time in the history of publication, an eight page paper was given the students, weekly.

First Semester Business Manager

RON SMITH
Sports Editor

Herald

JoAnn Watson, Ellen Brown, George Eddington, Konnie Kull, Louis Christensen, Donna Bush.

Chuck Mefford, editor, was appointed late in the spring of 1951 to head the staff. A junior from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, he served one semester as a sports reporter, one semester as sports editor, and one year as feature editor.

Phil Faustman filled the position of news editor very capably during the year. He was assisted by Barbara Lakso the first semester.

Chuck Sherwood moved into the position of managing editor at the beginning of the second semester. As such, it was his job to see that the staff functioned smoothly.

Pictures were provided by Howard Englesby, Pete Klawson, and Jerry Alley, with Howard serving as photographic editor the first semester and Pete heading the photographic department the latter part of the year.

The task of distributing and mailing the Herald each week belonged to Marion DuMond, circulation editor.

In addition to his duties as Herald editor, Chuck also headed the committee that edited the literary magazine, "The Herald and Horn," published the latter part of May.

Mary Lynne Porter, Barbara Myers, Ron Meux, Pat Hemphill, Marion DuMond.

MORRIS RICHMAN
Business Manager

Although a college annual is published only once yearly, to produce it is a task that takes many, many hours of work all during the year — including vacations. With the 1951 Brown and Gold scarcely off the presses last May, the appointment of Beverly Austin as editor-in-chief of the 1952 Brown and Gold was approved and planning was immediately begun on that edition. First to be considered were bids and contracts for such phases as the engraving, printing, and photographing of the class sections. Next, a cover design was decided upon and sent to the cover company during the summer.

With the beginning of school in the fall, Business Manager Morris Richman found his duties greatly increased by handling of all financial matters pertaining to the book. His was the job of setting up a budget, keeping the books, supervising the sale of advertising by salesmen Eddy Dow, Lee Waters, and Bob Murphy, and later in the year, of laying out the ad section. His contribution to the successful production of the yearbook was an invaluable one.

As associate editor, Nancy Anderson had the task of scheduling all organization pictures. She also devoted much time to assisting Beverly with all phases of the book — from lay-outs to indexing.

The art work, including the cover design, the end sheets, title pages and division pages was the result of many, many hours of work for Art Editor Ken Earle. Assisting him was Dave Holcomb who added much to the attractiveness of the organization pages with his humorous sketches and various crests.

NANCY ANDERSON
Associate Editor

LYNN BRADEN
Literary Editor

LOIS DANNEBERG
BARBARA HANSHUE
Literary Editor

To Lynn Braden and Barbara Hanshew fell the job of editing and re-writing copy in the organization section.

As chief photographer for the Brown and Gold, Howard Englesby had the job of providing pictures for the feature section. In addition, he took many of the organization pictures and apportioned the work of the staff photographers, Jim Boykin, John Alley and Pete Klawson.

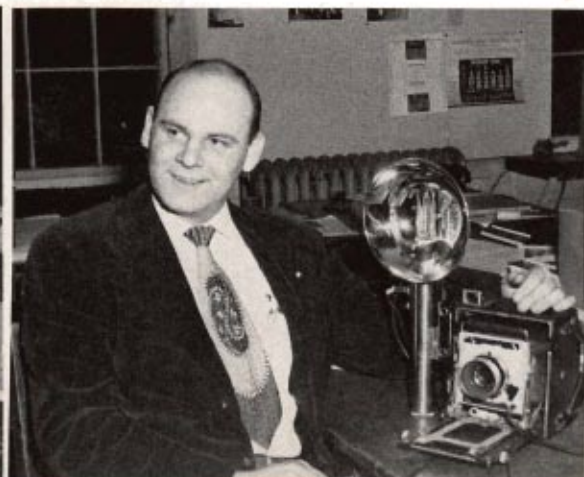

Gene Clysdale, sports editor, not only covered the various athletic events during the year, but he wrote sports copy, scheduled pictures, and had complete charge of layouts in the sports section.

Without people to help with the many miscellaneous jobs — signing up students for photos, alphabetizing and typing class lists, indexing, and distributing the finished product — it would be impossible to produce a yearbook. This year, credit for such work goes to Marilyn Wellman, Marion DuMond, Mary Barnum, Grace Davis, Christine Magas, Albina Kamsickas, Joel Burdin, and Lois Danneberg.

Through the efforts of its individual members and through the guidance of its leaders, the Inter-Fraternity Council has experienced another successful year. The 1951-52 officers were: President Edward DeGalan, Vice-president Ted Wank, Secretary Joe Van Ness, and Treasurer Bill Minor. Mr. Emil Sokolowski was the sponsor.

The organization's aim of promoting friendliness and cooperation among the fraternities was carried out by IFC rush parties and the events of Greek Letter Week. This activity was planned to give students a better look at fraternities in action.

Again, the Council sponsored the contest for Homecoming Queen, putting in hours of work organizing and securing judges and gifts for the queen and her court. The group continued its tradition of giving the scholarship cup to the fraternity with the highest scholastic average and of making awards to the winners of the intramural fraternity league championships.

The Men's Union Association, represented by the five-man Union Board, is designed to improve the facilities for Western's male students and to provide recreation and entertainment for all.

Traditionally, the board has made provision for several open houses throughout the year. Dancing, games, entertainment and refreshments have made the events increasingly popular. The 1951-52 schedule included six such open houses which were attended by record crowds.

That new men at Western may feel a part of their organization and become acquainted with campus life, the Union sponsored the stag smoker during Freshman Week. With its informal hospitality this annual affair provided an opportunity for the men to meet student and faculty leaders.

As a contribution to the Homecoming festivities, the Union sponsored the frosh-soph "battle-of-the-beanies" in which the freshmen won the honors.

Projects undertaken by this year's board included improvements in the game room and lounge, establishment of a Men's Union Scholarship, supplementing and revising the Union's record collections, and providing for more adequate representation and closer association for the men of Western.

Ken Young was chairman of the Men's Union Board. He was assisted by Al Stirling, vice-president; Tom Morris, secretary; George Kostelac, treasurer; and Don Trumbo, publicity director. Sponsors for the group were Mr. Don Scott, Mr. Ray Pellet, and Mr. Charles Starring.

Delta Sigma Phi members feel that this year has been another mark of progress towards the goal of becoming a true social fraternity. With more than sixty members, the local Beta Tau chapter of the national fraternity converted their many social events into pleasant memories for future alumni to look back on.

The biggest event of the year was the Carnation Ball at which the men chose Doris Keith as their queen for the year. Miss Keith was later chosen to reign over the entire student body as Homecoming Queen. During Homecoming festivities, the Delta Sig's house decoration depicting a television set won second prize.

The fraternity house, located at 529 Academy street, was the scene of many events such as informal get-togethers, smokers, and formal socials. Having purchased their own kitchen equipment, the Delta Sigs this year served meals at the house.

Guiding the affairs of the fraternity for 1951-52 were: Al Stirling, president; Paul Smythe, vice-president; Bob Gloye, secretary; and Garth Holiday, treasurer. Dr. George Hilliard served as faculty sponsor.

Kappa Sigma Kappa, a social fraternity, has as its primary aim to teach men how to work and get along together in a close group. Having a varied calendar of events, it helps provide its members with a background of many experiences.

The Homecoming banquet in honor of returning alumni initiated the group's social season. This year the fraternity's Homecoming queen candidate, Emmy Hamilton, was one of the Queen's court. In December Kappa Sigma Kappa held its Fall Initiation banquet at which the pledges were awarded their membership degrees.

Kappa Sigs chose Lee Tenner to reign as their "Sweetheart of 1952."

To December was added the annual sale of Christmas trees, from which proceeds were deposited in the fraternity building fund. The second semester was opened with the annual Sweetheart Ball with Lee Tanner being elected the year's darling.

The annual Steak and Mush dinner, which served as an incentive to the members to keep up their academic standing, was held in April; mush was the fate of those with low scholastic average and steak, the reward for those of high average. During the remainder of the semester the members enjoyed informal parties.

In the trend of changing ideas of pledges duties, Kappa Sigma Kappa had their pledge classes doing projects for the community. The fall pledges did work for the Myrtle Heege Community Center.

The officers for the year were: Bill Slaughter, president; Tom Moriarity, vice-president; Ed DeGalan, secretary; Bob Duncan, treasurer. Dr. Frank Fatzinger served as faculty advisor.

Some of the members enjoy the Christmas spirit by going out caroling to the women's dorms on campus.

A comparative newcomer to the campus Greek colony, the Beta chapter of Sigma Alpha Delta has tried through its varied activities to make its presence known. Founded at Ferris Institute in 1923, the fraternity installed a chapter at Western in 1950.

The group's aim of combining cultural and professional education with training in citizenship and leadership led them into extensive participation in intramural activities and Homecoming festivities.

Seeking to lend a hand to those less fortunate than themselves and to promote friendship and brotherhood, the Sigma Alpha Delts played hosts to the boys from the Lake Farm Home at the movies and basketball games.

Along with their service projects, the SAD's carried on a full program of formal and informal dances, rush parties, smokers, and beach parties. The chapter's social agenda was highlighted by the second annual Christmas Ball and Founder's Day banquet in February.

Sigma Alpha Delta had a large number of members who were campus leaders and active in various organizational activities. Leading the fraternity for the year were: Dennis Burgess, president; Dean Tyndall and Jordan Humberstone, vice-presidents; Theodore Watt, secretary; and Alfred Dubuisson, treasurer. Sgt. Robert Young and Dr. A. L. Sebaly were faculty sponsors.

Sigma Epsilon was founded in the fall of 1950 with the purpose of promoting fellowship, better scholastic achievement, and a sense of leadership among its members.

First semester activities included a Homecoming dinner, participation in other Homecoming events, and a Christmas party for the orphans of the Lake Farm Boys' Home. The Sig Eps also took the boys to the WMC vs. Central Michigan football game.

The first formal initiation was held in January with the addition of seven new members. The informal "Heartbeat" dance early in the same month climaxed the fraternity's social events. The group also found time during the year to participate in all intramural sports.

Sigma Epsilon

Sigma Epsilon's Homecoming float featured the bed Washington slept in.

Officers elected for the year included: Warren Rouse, president; Dan Bergsma, vice-president; Al Sortwell, treasurer; and Jerry Rush, secretary. Mr. Robert Trader, Mr. Herb Jones, and Mr. William Perigo served as faculty advisors.

Members of Alpha Chi Omega were entertained by the Sig Eps at a "Fisherman's Wharf" party this spring.

Part of the entertainment at the party was provided by this petite chorus line.

Sig Taus sponsored a "Watermelon Bus" for freshman girls during the first week of school.

Pledges perform at an informal initiation program.

Sigma Tau Gamma

For the members of Sigma Tau Gamma, the 1951-52 school year was one of many and varied activities. The Howard F. Bigelow home was the scene of the group's traditional "Watermelon Bust," honoring the freshmen girls. A "Sin and Murder" skit at the Carnival was another first week event.

Homecoming brought with it a dinner for ninety-five members and alums at the Hotel Harris. Among the speakers were several ex-Westernites known for their participation in campus affairs. At the dinner plans were formulated for a Detroit alumni chapter.

A Christmas party for the children of the Juvenile Home and the fraternity's own Christmas party concluded a busy first semester.

Highlight of the spring semester's project was the sponsoring of a concert by Ray Anthony and his band at Central High School. Other events included a dinner meeting with the Kalamazoo Alumni Association, the annual White Rose dinner dance held May 3 at the Gull Lake Country Club, and the Province Conclave at Ypsilanti. A picnic at Lake Michigan concluded the group's social activities.

Fraternity affairs were guided by President Allen Briggs, Vice-president Charles Hoffman, Secretary Bob Waldo, and Treasurer Phillip Harris. Sponsors were Dr. Samuel Clark, Dr. Stanley Idzerda, Dr. Albert Becker, and Mr. Charles Starring.

High on the fraternity's list of activities for the year was its affiliation with the national fraternity Tau Kappa Epsilon in March. The week of initiation was concluded with a banquet attended by many national and local guests.

The furthering of good fellowship, one of the main purposes of the organization, was put into effect with the alumni banquet at Homecoming, the spring dinner dance, the all-student party "Final Fling," and the Christmas dinner dance.

Under the leadership of Don Shaw, president; Dick Hughey, vice-president; Tom Willoughby, treasurer; Jack Burr, recording secretary; and Bill Minor, corresponding secretary; the Delta Alpha Chapter, which for over thirty-one years was known as Theta Chi Delta, concluded the year with an active membership of thirty-six.

Two TKE members, Don Burge and Ken Young, honored their fraternity by being elected WMC President and President of Men's Union, respectively. Dr. George Mallinson and Mr. Taisto Niemi were the faculty sponsors.

Kappa Alpha Psi

Kappa Alpha Psi, a national fraternity, strives to obtain for its members the benefits which can be derived from membership in a modern college brotherhood. Its fundamental purpose is achievement.

This year Kappa Alpha Psi sponsored a dance in Walwood ballroom called "Pre-Holiday Frolic." In addition, Kappa Alpha Psi was active in the promotion of the brotherhood program in Kanley Memorial Chapel during Brotherhood Week.

In order to cooperate with other campus organizations to produce the best that campus life has to offer, the group sponsored a trophy which was awarded during Greek-Letter Week. The Edward Taylor Trophy was named after a former Kappa Alpha Psi athlete.

Janet MacDonald, Mrs. Katherine Chapman,
Dr. Elizabeth Lichty, Carol Matthews.

The purpose of Women's League is to unite all women students in order to meet their social needs, to uphold high social standards, to govern women students, to afford leadership opportunities, and encourage scholastic achievement.

This year the officers of Women's League were Carol Cox, president; Janet MacDonald, vice-president; Carol Matthews, secretary; Marilyn Gibbs, treasurer; and Irene Kubovich, publicity manager. The sponsors for the year were Miss Elizabeth Lichty, Mrs. Katherine Chapman, Dr. Clara Chiara, and Miss Lucille Nobbs.

In order to better carry out its purpose Women's League is divided into two boards. Headed by the Vice-president, the Judicial Board is composed of representatives from the Off-campus House Council and the residence halls' councils. Its duties are of a disciplinary and regulatory nature, and it works with the administration in furthering the best interests of the women students. With the President of the League as chairman, the Activities Board composed of one representative from each all-women's organization on campus, provides a social program and sets social standards for the women students of the college.

First in the fall semester was the Senior Sister program supervised by co-chairmen Donna Kowalski and Betty Wright. This program is to familiarize prospective women students with Western by the assistance of a Senior Sister who is a Western woman already on campus. The Who's Who Party and Freshman Tea afford Junior and Senior Sisters an opportunity to meet in a social situation during Freshman Days.

Women's League

Also a part of the Freshman Week was the all-student Carnival sponsored this year by Women's League and Men's Union. General co-chairmen of the event were Shirley McCloy and George Kostelac.

A new social event this year was the Career Day Conference which, because of its initial success will now become an annual affair. Under the general chairmanship of Barbara Rohr, Western women were given the opportunity to hear Mrs. Evelyn Duval, executive secretary of the National Council on Family Relations, speak on "Combining a Career and Marriage." The program also included a fashion show, formal dessert, and discussion groups led by prominent Kalamazoo business women.

That same evening the annual Women's League formal was held. Sheila Nesbitt was general chairman of the girl-bid "Frosty Wonderland."

The first semester ended with the annual Christmas Chocolate in the ballroom with the Modern Dance Club and Women's Glee Club presenting the entertainment. Lorraine Rudzinski was general chairman.

Spring events included a Leap Year Sock Hop, a Women's League open house, the annual Mother's Day Tea, and the traditional June Breakfast and Daisy Chain processional.

The weekly teas held every Wednesday in the Davis Room were arranged by Mary Rinehart while Frances Bufe was in charge of signing organizations for the Fort Custer dances.

Arista

For the eleven girls "tapped" at last year's June Breakfast for membership in Arista, senior women's honorary society organized on campus in 1940, the 1951-52 school year has been filled with successful activity. Members of the society are unanimously chosen from among the junior women who are outstanding in leadership, scholarship, and service to the college.

Under the leadership of President Sally Schnese, the group carried on many activities both traditional and new. Assisting Sally were Nancy Brannan, vice-president; Donna Kowalski, recording secretary; Patricia Watson, corresponding secretary; and Mavis Dodge, treasurer.

Annual events continued again included a Carnival booth, Homecoming breakfast, and the chocolate for high scholarship sophomore women. The tapping ceremony and initiation breakfast in June concluded the society's traditional social activities.

Arista's major project was working for affiliation with Mortarboard, the national honorary society for senior women. In connection with this, they compiled a scrap-book concerning the College and activities of the group and entertained several members of Michigan State College's Mortarboard chapter. This year marked the first time Arista members have ever had a pin.

Projects of service engaged in by the girls included: filing the Student Council class cards for use by campus organizations, tabulating the activities questionnaire for Student Council, cleaning the Davis room, managing the reception for seniors after the last chapel service of the first semester, and ushering at the January graduation.

Although primarily a service organization, Arista held a few purely social gatherings. During the year dinners were given by two of the sponsors, Dr. Elizabeth Lichty and Miss Katharine Stokes. Dessert meetings were held at the home of Miss Ruth Van Horn, who has been an honorary member since 1942, and at the home of one of the members. Miss Lucille Nobbs and Mrs. Julius also served the girls as advisors.

Alpha Phi Beta was founded on the campus of Western Michigan College with eighteen charter members in the fall of 1951. The aims of Alpha Phi Beta are to promote among its members leadership, high morals, and scholastic achievement. The installation of officers was held at the home of Mrs. Paul Sangren on December 10, 1951, and was followed by a tea.

Activities for the year included a hayride, a caroling party with the Sigma Alpha Delta fraternity, a booth at the Inter-Sorority Convocation, a Mother's Day luncheon, and a house party.

Officers for the year were Joyce Dale, president; Joyce Howard, vice-president; Kathleen Folks, secretary; and Barbara Parham, treasurer. The sponsors were Mrs. Paul Sangren and Mrs. Robert Young.

Alpha Chi's float helped to make the Homecoming parade a whole of a success.

The "Human Ring Toss" booth at the annual all-student carnival opened the year's activities for Alpha Chi Omega and was followed by the "Blue Heaven" dance, the second week-end of school.

Fifteen new members were initiated into Alpha Chi Omega in October. The formal banquet was held in the Burdick Hotel honoring Founders Day as well as new initiates.

The traditional Christmas party was held at the home of Mrs. Marguerite Patton where members of Sigma Epsilon fraternity also met for the party and Christmas caroling.

Spring semester rushing took front and center framed by many other activities: the Inter-sorority formal; the Mother's Day luncheon, and the annual house party at Gull Lake.

Leaders for Alpha Chi Omega during the past year were Patricia Watson, president; Sally Schnese, vice-president; Diane Arnold, secretary; and Margaret Rauth, treasurer. Mrs. Marguerite Patton and Miss Margaret Feather sponsored the sorority.

The bright spot on Alpha Omicron Pi's calendar of events was its installation in September as the Kappa Rho chapter of the national sorority. Many guests, including national officers, were on hand to congratulate the members of the former local Pi Kappa Rho.

The penny-pitch booth was the sorority's contribution to the all-student Carnival. At Homecoming the girls sponsored a float, and their queen candidate honored them as a member of the Queen's court. Following close on the activities list was the fourth annual "Campus Couple Fling" in November with Barbara Musser and Joe Van Ness taking top honors as the Campus Couple of 1951. Entertaining other sororities became the social goal for the remainder of the year. The year's events were climaxed by the annual spring house party.

The sorority's aims of character, dignity and scholarship were furthered by President Jini Sprietsma. Other officers were: Alice Young, vice-president; Mary Reinhardt, recording secretary; Dorothy Cook, corresponding secretary; and Nancy Sharp, treasurer. Sponsors for the year were Mrs. William Berry and Miss Edith Eicher.

Alpha Sigma Sorority was initiated into Western's social life this spring. The aims of the sorority are to better the physical, intellectual, and social development of its members.

Despite a late start in the year's activities, Alpha Sigma had a closed formal dance, gave a banquet, held informal rushing and participated in philanthropic service. A house party concluded the group's affairs.

Delta Zeta

Delta Zeta officers: Janet Norton, Emmy Hamilton, Dolores Oszustowicz, Maxine Vaxter, Clara Hall, Margaret Eddy.

The Delta Zeta social year was initiated by the second annual presentation of the "Buttons and Bows" dance in September. Homecoming followed soon after with the sorority float "Victory Is Our Pattern" winning third prize. Alumnae celebrated the occasion with members at the annual coffee.

Inter-sorority and fraternity card parties, a French Cabaret party with the Sig Taus and a Flapper party with the Delta Sigs were Delta Zeta's contribution to fostering closer relationships between Greek organizations on Western's campus.

At a program open to all sorority women, Mrs. Paul Morrison talked on precious gems and silver. Another program featured John Hoekje Jr. who addressed the group on the topic of basketball.

Western Michigan College's campus was the scene of the annual State Day celebration of the Delta Zetas this spring, when the Gamma Pi's were hostesses to the University of Michigan, Michigan State, and Albion chapters.

Other activities of the spring were the Mother's Day luncheon, the annual house party, and the all-sorority pledge formal.

Leaders for the year were: Emmy Hamilton, president; Dolores Oszustowicz, first vice-president; Maxine Vaxter, recording secretary; and Margaret Eddy, treasurer. Mrs. John C. Hoekje, Sr. was the sponsor.

Betts Snyder rides a silver spoon to victory in the Homecoming parade.

Omega Chi Gamma

Omega Chi Gamma observed its sixth year as a unifying group for Western's off-campus girls with both business and social activities.

Volley ball was the intramural sport the girls chose to participate in during the year, and they sponsored several teams.

Fall activities included a get-acquainted party, picnics, and the traditional initiation ceremony.

Preparations are made for one of Omega Chi's business meetings.

Monthly gatherings are also informal in nature.

Off-campus girls hold their traditional initiation service in the Van Gogh room.

Winter saw a Christmas party and a tobogganing expedition. Spring brought with it the Spring banquet.

President Almeta Powell was assisted by Vice-President Dorothy Moses. Minutes were recorded by Secretary Marjory Ritsema and finances were managed by Treasurer Delores Thorson. Sponsors were Mr. William Perigo and Mrs. Angelo La Mariana.

With the annual house party this spring, the Sigma Kaps concluded their first complete school year as members of a national sorority. And, for the girls of the Gamma Beta chapter, it was a year of varied activity.

Hard work at Homecoming time produced a float on which the Washington Bears got washed out and hung on the line. That week-end also saw returning alumnae welcomed at the yearly lucheon at Chicken Charlie's.

October brought two more events—a juke box dance and a scavenger hunt at which the Sig Taus were guests. Early in December the sorority celebrated its first year as Sigma Kappa with an initiation service for alumnae. The traditional Christmas party again was a feature of the holiday season.

Biggest activities on the spring calendar were rush parties, pledging, and the Mother's Day luncheon.

Maxine Johnston and Wilma Penno served the group as President during the first and second semesters, respectively. Other 1951-52 officers included: Wilma Penno, vice-president; Louise Snyder, second vice-president; Joyce English, recording secretary; Joan Dimmick, corresponding secretary; and Marilyn Gibbs, treasurer. Miss Mathilde Steckleberg and Miss Hazel Cleveland were the sponsors.

Sigma Sigma

Sigma Sigma Sorority's colonization was begun in April, 1951 by a representative of Sigma Sigma Sigma, national social sorority.

The Crystal Room of the Columbia Hotel was the scene of the Alumnae Homecoming breakfast last fall. November also featured a hayride, followed by a party at the home of one of the members.

A candle-light dinner was held in honor of the national president of Tri Sigma, who came to visit the prospective chapter. As a holiday project, the girls held their first annual Christmas party at which they entertained a group of Kalamazoo's underprivileged children at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Jaqua. The annual house party climaxed the events of the spring term.

The thirty-five members of Sigma Sigma chose for their executives: Shirley Yates, president; Shirley Lyons, vice-president; Kay Foster, recording secretary; Marva Noor, corresponding secretary; and Nancy Maynard, treasurer. Miss Ada Berkey assisted the group as faculty sponsor.

Theta Pi Alpha started off its many activities for the year with an 'auction' at the all-student Carnival in September. Then Homecoming brought around its annual "Koffee Klatch" for the alums. Other activities were the fall house party which took place at Allen's Outpost again, the "fishing" booth at the Inter-sorority Carnival, the Dip 'n Dive square dance for all students, and the party given for the children at the Kalamazoo Juvenile Home. The foreign girls on campus were guests at a November meeting which featured a book review given by Dr. Brown.

Tops among the spring activities was rushing. Two parties were casual and one was a dress-up affair. The Mother's Day luncheon and house party at Lake Michigan were the other annual events carried on by the sorority.

Rosemary Higgins led the group for the year, while Peggy Reid was vice-president; Jean Lower was secretary and Carol Kurth was treasurer. Miss Anne Fuller and Miss Isabel Crane were the faculty sponsors.

Sociedant

The Sociedant Sorority was organized on the campus of Western Michigan College with the fundamental purpose of promoting character development and providing a healthy social and intellectual life for its members.

Formal initiation was held in November and with this event a year of activities was begun. At Christmas time a party was given for the children of the Douglass Community Center. Several members participated in a style show in conjunction with the Home Economics Club. Spring brought an Easter party for the children of the Kalamazoo Juvenile Detention Home.

A Sociedant landmark was the adoption of the Gamma Beta chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi as its brother fraternity.

Officers for the year were: Lela Williams, president; Sharlene Duncan, vice-president; Shirley Coker, recording secretary; and Rubie Branham, treasurer. Sponsor for the group was Miss Marjorie Goins.

The Gamma Phi chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, completed its second year of its post-war revival on Western's campus increased in membership and activities.

Among the projects undertaken by APO during the past year was the decorating of a large Christmas tree in front of the Union. The group continued its errand service for infirmity patients and its "keep off the grass" campaign. Members also acted as ushers at many college and local functions.

In conjunction with the Fruitbelt Area Boys Scouts, the fraternity sponsored a clinic for training patrol leaders which was attended by 135 boys.

Guiding the activities of APO for the 1951-52 season was President Charles Gage. He was assisted by Vice-president Jerry Woodard, Secretary Dick Bradley, and Treasurer William Breyfogle.

Gamma Theta Upsilon

The aim of Gamma Theta Upsilon, a national geography fraternity, is to further and strengthen professional interest in geography by affording an organization for those interested in that field. At present, Western's Alpha Gamma chapter is the only one in Michigan.

Collecting geographical data from all parts of the world and cataloging a collection of material given to the fraternity by a member of the geography faculty constituted the group's main projects for the year.

Dr. Cyril Stout's home was the scene of a picnic in the fall, and at one of the later meetings Dr. Stout showed colored slides of the Black Hills. The annual spring picnic held at the home of Dr. William Berry closed the organization's activities for 1951-52.

Assisting President Elmer Hess, were: Vice-president Samuel Ortaggio, Recording Secretary Carol Kurth, Corresponding Secretary Les Spaulding, and Treasurer Marilyn Potter. Dr. Cyril Stout, Dr. William Berry, and Miss Marguerite Logan were club sponsors.

Since its organization by the Faculty Science Club on November 17, 1920, it has been the aim of the honor society, Kappa Rho Sigma, to give recognition to students outstanding in the fields of science and mathematics.

Selection of students qualified for this honor is made yearly by the unanimous vote of the faculty members of the science and mathematics departments.

In April the annual initiation banquet was held at the Arcadia Brook Clubhouse, after which, new members were entitled to wear the key of the society.

The aims of Kappa Delta Pi, an honor society in education, are to encourage high professional, intellectual, and personal standards, and to recognize outstanding contributions to the field of education. Juniors and seniors exhibiting worthy educational ideals and good scholarship are invited to join its chapters throughout the country.

Beta Iota chapter, starting its twenty-third year on this campus, began its activities with a chocolate honoring freshmen who had achieved high scholarship in their high schools. Then at the opening meeting Dr. Russell Seibert and two students who were members of a social studies seminar last summer discussed their trip to England. Other programs throughout the year were presented by Dr. Richard Light and Dr. Zackery York who spoke on "Theater for the Layman." Educational methods and practices in foreign countries were discussed by a foreign students' panel in another program.

In December fifty-nine new members joined the Beta Iota chapter at their initiation banquet. At this time Dr. John Buelke spoke to the group on "Education and Social Crossfire."

John Overhiser presided over the chapter this year with Vice-president Mavis Dodge as program chairman. Joyce Aryes was secretary and Diane Arnold was treasurer. Dr. McKinley Robinson was the faculty counselor.

The Beta chapter of Sigma Alpha Tau, national honorary fraternity in the field of air transportation, was installed at Western in December, 1950. Since then the group has devoted its time to furthering its aims and purposes.

The objectives of Sigma Alpha Tau are the promotion of air transportation in colleges and universities and within the transportation industry; the promotion of aviation in general through unified effort on the part of all concerned; and the fostering and development of high moral character, integrity, and leadership.

Russell Melin served the group as President during the year. He was assisted by Donald Hitzfield, vice-president; Bruce Loughhead, secretary; and Jason Zoet, treasurer. Dr. Joseph Giachino and Mr. William Wichers of the aviation department were the sponsors.

Square and Compass

Membership in the Square and Compass Club is comprised of Masonic students, faculty, and other employees of Western. The group meets to promote friendship and fellowship among the campus Masons.

In planning the year's activities President Morris Hamilton was aided by Vice-president Jay Brown, Secretary Sam Brady, and Treasurer John Fricke. Dr. Cyril Stout, Mr. Ernest Weber, and Mr. Kenneth Hawkins acted as sponsors.

Movies and talks on subjects of common interest constituted the club's programs. "The History and Purposes of Masonry in the United States" was the topic chosen by Mr. H. Rex Paxton, guest speaker at one of the meetings.

Sigma Tau Chi, an honorary business fraternity, limits its membership to students enrolled in any of the business studies curricula who meet the requirements of the club. It is one of the largest coeducational organizations on campus.

The club's aims are to promote scholarship, to develop closer coordination between college training and actual business experience, and to aid in the placement of students both in the business fields and in the teaching profession.

Sigma Tau Chi

Talks by leading business and professional men and women of the city, a Christmas party, trips to various business concerns in Kalamazoo, a field trip to Chicago in April, and the annual formal banquet in May were a few of the activities enjoyed by the members of the organization.

Officers for the year were Leo Niemi, president; George Walsh, vice-president; Janice Gregerson, secretary; Jim Holmes, treasurer; and Nancy Sharp, alumni secretary. Mr. Lester Lindquist and Mrs. George Kirby served as club sponsors.

Some of the Phi Mu's gather around the piano for an informal sing.

During the 1951-52 school year Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, a national professional music fraternity, was under the leadership of President Robert Houts. Assisting him were Vice-president Carl Moore, Secretary Robert Smith, and Treasurer Salvatore Matina.

First semester activities included working on a Homecoming float, and holding a get-acquainted smoker for prospective members. Initiates were feted at a banquet at Chicken Charlie's. At Christmas time the group also went caroling.

Another smoker and banquet were held in the spring. Three events comprised the major projects for the second semester: a Music Education Symposium brought alums in the field back to discuss new ideas in music education; a jazz concert was given; and in conjunction with Sigma Alpha Iota, the group sponsored an All-American Music concert featuring their own members playing their own compositions.

Final social activity for the year was the annual dinner-dance.

Men's Glee Club

With the closing of the 1951-52 school year, the Men's Glee Club completed another busy and successful season. An organization for all Western men who are interested in singing, the group was this year directed by Mr. Jack Frey.

Four major activities were participated in by the Glee Club during the first semester. The men presented a broadcast over station WMCR and also furnished entertainment at a Student Council dance. Cooperating with the rest of the music department, they sang in the annual Christmas concert. An appearance at the mid-year Graduation program ended the semester.

The second semester was marked by a tour of many high schools throughout the southern part of Michigan at which the Glee Club presented programs. The group participated in chapel services and in the May Music Festival. It also sponsored its annual spring concert. A banquet concluded the year's work.

Officers for the year were: Norman Bradley, president; Kenneth Kessler, secretary-librarian; and Edwin Gibbs, treasurer.

With activities planned to support its aims of furthering the development of American music, raising the standards of work among the music students, giving inspiration and material aid to members, and upholding the highest ideals of the music profession, Sigma Alpha Iota concluded its third year on Western's campus.

Members of the Beta Eta chapter of the professional fraternity for women in the field of music had as their 1951-52 President, Doris King. Martha Nason served as vice-president, assisted by Mary Anderson, recording secretary; Joyce Ayres, corresponding secretary; and Albina Kamsickas, treasurer.

The year's activities began with first semester rushing which included a progressive dinner given by the Kalamazoo alumnae chapter. The "Rose Musicale" was followed by the pledging and initiating of eighteen new members. The group also honored returning alumnae at a Homecoming breakfast.

Second semester events featured the formal closed musicales given monthly and the farewell service for seniors. An "American Musicale" presented in conjunction with Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia was open to the public.

Mrs. Dorothea Snyder, Mrs. Margaret Beloof, and Miss Mary Doty were sponsors for the group.

Forty women participated in the varied activities of the Women's Glee Club this year under the direction of Mrs. Dorothea Snyder. The group, which is open to all college women meeting the musical requirements, provided entertainment for the annual Women's League Christmas Chocolate, in conjunction with the Modern Dance Club. This same program was given for the Women's Symphony Society of Kalamazoo. Other activities included regular trips throughout Southwestern Michigan, the annual Spring Concert, and providing music for several chapel services.

Women's Glee Club

The club also took part in the Christmas program and the Spring Festival, in conjunction with the College Choir, Men's Glee Club, and the Auxiliary Choir.

Selected from club members three years ago, the Varsity Trio served its last year. Dorothy Starkweather and Jean McVay, sopranos, and Doris Lusso, contralto, were accompanied by Charlotte Smith. A new trio will be selected in the fall on the basis of outstanding musical ability and talent.

Lorraine Seiple served the Glee Club as president. Other officers were Patricia Null, vice-president; Jean Lower, secretary; and Martha Nason, treasurer.

Varsity Trio: Dorothy Starkweather, Jean McVay, Doris Lusso.
Accompanist: Charlotte Smith.

College Choir

The College Choir offers the interested student an opportunity to participate in the singing of great choral work as well as music in a lighter vein.

Directed by Dr. Elwyn Carter, the Choir entertained at the MEA fall meeting held in Kalamazoo. At Christmas the group presented a program at the Salvation Army Citadel and at Central High School. The "Christmas Oratorio" by Saint Saens was featured, along with other well-known Christmas anthems.

As part of its spring choral work, the college choir toured twelve Southwestern Michigan high schools to present programs. The Annual May Music Festival marked the close of activities for the year.

Socially the group enjoyed a Halloween party in October and the annual picnic in May.

The top officers were President Norman Bradley and Vice-president Betty Dorow. Jacqueline Leach took notes and counted coins.

The Madrigal Singers are composed of music majors who are interested in studying and singing music adapted to small groups. Most of the music was written for groups ranging from eight to twelve in number.

During the year the group performed for various student and civic programs in Kalamazoo. Mrs. Dorothea Snyder conducted the Madrigal group and was aided by Charlotte Smith at the piano.

Band

Under the direction of Mr. Leonard V. Meretta, Western's 100-piece marching band was always ready to put on their half-time show for all of the home football games. During the marching season, they took part in the Homecoming parade, and also traveled to Indianapolis, Indiana, to perform during half-time at the game with Butler University.

The band featured three outstanding twirlers this year: Kay Meeder, Pat Burrus, and Joyce Kennedy. The drum major was Duane Pifer.

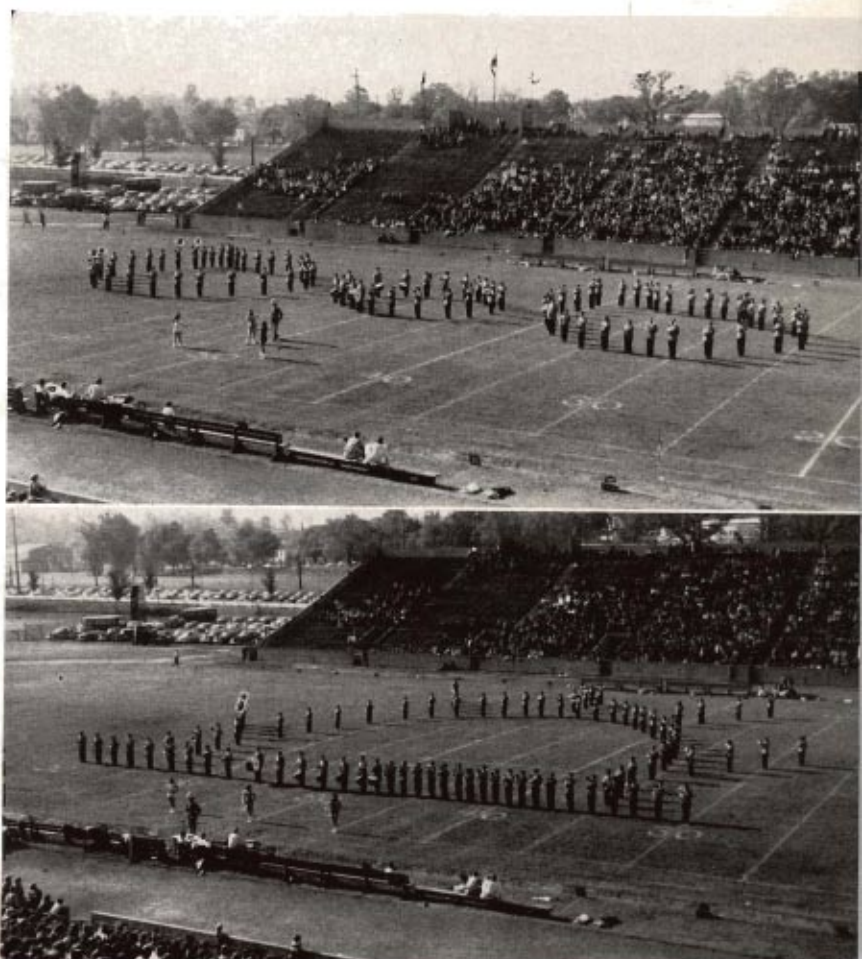

The band was divided into pep bands to alternate in playing for the home basketball games.

The highlight of the year's activities was the Seventh Annual Winter Band Concert with Mr. Leonard B. Smith, nationally known cornetist, as guest soloist and conductor.

Tours during the spring, took the band to various high schools in Southwestern Michigan for concert appearances. The annual Spring Concert was presented on the library steps, and for their final appearance, the band played for the Commencement program.

Orchestra

During the school year of 1951-52 the Western Michigan College Symphony Orchestra presented two concerts under the direction of Mr. Julius Stulberg. The first concert, November 20, featured Coral Lee Briney, pianist, playing the Beethoven "Concerto in C Major;" while the second program, in May, was an all orchestral concert. The literature ranged from Bach and Schubert to Anderson and Gillis.

The orchestra performed Abram Copland's "Rodeo Suite" during the Fine Arts Festival and also took part in the annual Christmas Concert presented by the Music Department.

An indoor picnic and square-dancing party held in the Spring was the main social event of the year.

Membership in the orchestra includes music majors and minors, but anyone playing an orchestral instrument is welcomed to the group.

Mr. and "Mrs." John Kemper dance
at Art Club's Christmas party

Under the guidance of President Paul Hepler, the Art Club has completed another active and successful year on Western's Campus. Assisting in directing the duties of the group were: Elizabeth Cunningham, vice-president; Shirley Beebe, secretary; and Harold Shoup, treasurer.

Art Club's calendar of events was a varied one starting with its caricature booth at the all-student Carnival. At the first meeting, held in McCracken Hall, prospective members were welcomed and introduced to the aims and activities of the group. The chapel provided the scene for the subsequent initiation ceremony.

In December the annual Christmas sale which included such hand-made articles as ornaments, jewelry, and wood-carving, was held.

Later in the month members gathered at Allen's Outpost for their traditional holiday party presided over by Mr. Kemper in an original costume. Entertainment for the event featured a skit.

Several speakers were invited to address the group during the year. One of these was Mr. Sydney Holloway, Dearborn, who spoke on crafts and also showed a movie on Greenville Village. At the January meeting Mr. John Kemper painted a picture for the group.

Other speakers during the spring semester included Dr. Russell Seibert of the history department and Mr. John Goldsworth, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds at Western. Top activities in the spring were the annual banquet with a well-known artist as guest speaker and the art show held during the Festival of Arts. The final meeting of the year was a picnic given by the faculty sponsors: Miss Lydia Siedschlag, Miss Elizabeth Smutz, Miss Elaine Stevenson, Miss Hazel Paden, Mr. John Kemper and Mr. Harry Hefner.

The Colophon Club is an organization open to majors and minors in the department of librarianship. The purpose of the club is to broaden professional interests and to provide opportunities for social activities.

Giving talks at the informal meetings were: Dr. Russell Seibert, of the History Department, Miss Ruth Warncke, Kent County Librarian, Miss Jean Lowrie, Campus School Librarian, Miss Lillian Anderson of the Kalamazoo Public Library, and Miss Shirley Miller, South Side Junior High School Librarian.

A Homecoming chocolate was held for the alumni and a Mother's Day tea was given for the mothers of the club members. A Christmas party was given at the home of Miss Alice LeFevre. A picnic completed the year's activities.

Miss Mate Graye Hunt and Miss Alice LeFevre were sponsors. Officers for the year were: Bernard Oppenneer, president; Lucille Pratt, vice-president; Irene Hamel, secretary; and Evelyn Armstrong, treasurer.

Country Life Club, as one of the oldest organizations on campus, participated in several traditional events during the year. Two of these were the Christmas party at Dr. McKinley Robinson's home and the National Rural Youth Conference at Jackson's Mill, West Virginia.

Top activities included nine foreign speakers from the Orient and South America, slides of West Virginia, and the spring Rural Retreat. The year's events concluded with a picnic when good wishes were extended to those who were to begin their teaching careers the following year.

Fall semester officers were President Andrew Younger, Vice-president Jean Dalstra, Secretary Shirley Brozzo, and Treasurer Jean Lehmoine. In February the following new officers were elected: President Dick Larson, Vice-president Barbara Coon, Secretary Katherine Ten Eyck, and Treasurer Dawn Dominee.

Sponsors for the group were Dr. McKinley Robinson and Dr. James Ansel.

Back row: Dale Bush, Donna Burnett, Ann Nussdorfer, Marjory Jackson, Celia Yntema, Doris Hawkins, Marilyn Green, Marilyn Hansen, Vernon Peachey.

Members of Der Deutsche Verein, an organization to acquaint the student with a practical use of the German language and to promote a better understanding of the German people, held their meetings every other Wednesday in the Bartoo House. The weekly "Die Tafelrunde" took place at the Union cafeteria.

The group's sponsors, Miss Mathilde Steckelberg, and Dr. Herman Rothfuss told of their experiences in Germany. Much information was also gained by listening to visiting German students.

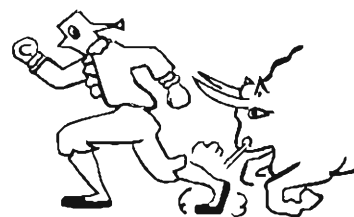

Homecoming meant an alumni tea. Hard work on the club's float resulted in third prize. Highlight of the social calendar was the annual Christmas party at which German hymns were sung and the Gospel was read in German.

Other activities included in the group's yearly agenda were helping to sponsor the language clubs' dance and a trip to see some dramatic production done in German.

Leading the thirty members of Der Deutsche Verein for the past year were: President Barry Ellis, Vice-president Lewis Kaminga, Secretary Ilga Upmanis, and Treasurer Alvis Ziemelis.

Der Deutsche Verein

Ecos Espanoles

Membership in Ecos Espanoles is open to those students with a speaking and reading knowledge of Spanish and a desire to further that knowledge.

Outstanding activities for the year included the Carnival booth, the Homecoming coffee, and the Christmas party with its play, breaking of the traditional pinata, and a talk by Alicia Gonzalez about Christmas in Nicaragua.

Also featured on the schedule of programs was the operetta "Cecilia Valdes," a Spanish play, slides of Mexico shown by Mr. Louis Acuna, and the farewell picnic in June. Informal round table discussions in Spanish were held each Tuesday evening in the Union cafeteria.

Miss Myrtle Windsor and Mr. Herb Jones were the club sponsors. Irene Whipple presided as President of the organization. Other officers included Vice-president Mary Lou McIntock, Secretary Alice Cubbon, and Treasurer Alicia Gonzalez.

Le Cercle Francais

Again during the past year the members of Le Cercle Francais participated in activities traditionally consistent with the club's purpose of understanding France, her language and her people.

The monthly meetings were devoted to informal talks, films, and games, as well as to singing and conversing in French. In attendance were club members and a number of guests, high school students, and interested townspeople.

In addition to the regular programs, the campus French students presented a play in March and published their newspaper "Entre Nous." Other co-operative efforts consisted of the entry in the Homecoming parade — a float which took second prize, a coffee for returning alumni, and a Mother's Day tea. A weekly feature of French Club's activities was the meeting of "la table ronde" on Thursday nights. A rummage sale during the first semester and doughnut sales held throughout the year comprised the organization's fund-raising projects.

Officers for 1951-52 were: George Eddington, president; Norma Parrish, vice-president; Barbara Frederick, secretary; and Douglas Johnson, treasurer. Continuing as sponsors were Dr. Frances Noble and Miss Marion Tamin.

A new record was set during the past year by the Foreign Students' Club of Western with a total membership of forty-seven, representing twenty-four countries. This included displaced persons and American citizens from overseas.

A different pattern was established for the sessions which were primarily devoted to special programs organized by the members of different nationalities. The Latin Americans, Latvians, and French presented shows that depicted dances, music, history and customs of their own land. These activities contributed to the development of a better understanding among the members and the Americans that attended the meetings.

The members of the club were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Householder, the Rotary Club of Kalamazoo, and Dr. and Mrs. Paul V. Sangren. With the cooperation of Mr. and Mrs. John Van Dyke it was possible for all to become acquainted with the American Halloween festivity.

To climax their program of activities the group gave a farewell dinner for Miss Roxana Steele, adviser for foreign students, who retired this year.

The club was aided by President Guillermo Hernandez, Honduras; Vice-president Ali Ouhadi, Iran; Secretaries Zuleikha Khan, Trinidad, and John S. Bilson, Liberia; Treasurer Gladys Tokushige, Hawaii. Miss Roxana Steele and Dr. and Mrs. George Bradley were sponsors.

Foreign Students Club

Elementary Club

Bringing together those students interested in the education of children and helping those interested to get a better understanding of children are the aims of the Elementary Club, an organization composed of students in the fields of both early and later elementary education.

The year's activities began with a booth at the Carnival. On Homecoming weekend the club sold the traditional Homecoming buttons and held a tea honoring the alumni.

During the year there were lectures on the subject of "Music in the Elementary Grades" given by Miss Mary Doty and the use of visual aids given by Mr. G. K. Cooper. The children from the home on Westnedge were invited to a Christmas party with gifts and refreshments. The year ended with the annual banquet in May.

The 1951-52 officers were: President Mildred Verhey, Vice-president Pat Wood, Treasurer Ken Krohn, and Secretary Barbara Correia.

The sponsors were Miss Bess Stinson, Miss Emeline McCowan and Dr. Sara Swickard.

Future Teachers

Future Teachers of America boasted a membership, during last year, of 110 men and women interested in the field of education. This organization is a chapter of the National Future Teachers of America which is endorsed by the National Education Association. Western's group was organized in 1938 and was named in honor of Dr. George Hilliard. Membership in Future Teachers brings with it affiliation with the MEA and the NEA, and the right to receive their monthly publications and to attend their annual meetings.

Among the activities of the 1951-52 season were campus tours, conducted for visiting high school students; a joint meeting with Pi Kappa Delta, a graduate fraternity; and a tour of the new Milwood school. The chapter was also invited to attend the meeting of the Michigan Youth Advisory Council at St. Mary's Lake Camp.

"Platform Speakers" was the title used by the Oratory and Extempore Speaking group this year. They represented Western in eight speech contests: Men's and Women's Extempore Speaking in the MISL and in the Peace Contests; Men's and Women's Oratory in the MISL and in the Peace Contests. Peggy Davidson won second place in the former category with Bill Parker also speaking. In oratory, Roberta Brown and Earle Robinson represented Western, with the former speaker winning first place. In the Peace Contests at Kalamazoo College, Jackie Baas and Lee Lonsberry were Western participants. Welton Chamberlain gave an oration. In addition, four discussion programs were put on for farm groups in various communities.

Western Michigan College's Men's Debate team opened its season at Bradley University on November 16 and 17. The negative team of Gerald DeMink and Jack Overhiser won four verbal combats to be undefeated. The affirmative team of David Wiant and Dennis Burgess won two and lost two. In December the debaters travelled to Purdue University winning two and dropping six contests. After Christmas vacation, the team travelled to Normal, Illinois, Michigan State College, Chicago, and the University of Wisconsin. At the latter school Dennis Burgess won second place in radio speaking. The men attended the national Tau Kappa Alpha tournament in Cleveland, Ohio in April. To close the season, they debated Manchester on campus for the Manchester-Western trophy.

Western's women debaters had an eventful year. Although the squad was small, many individual as well as team honors were won. Pat VanVleet, freshman, won several individual honors. At the Purdue Novice Debate tournament, Pat was second highest ranking debater. In the Split-team Tournament sponsored by Case Institute of Technology, Pat received a Wachtel award for excellence in debate. She was the only woman of the eight debaters receiving this honor. Dona Young, freshman, won individual as well as team honors. In the MISL Debate Tournament, Dona was second highest ranking debater. Her team was undefeated in the tournament.

The Western women also participated in the Delta Sigma Rho Debate Tournament at the University of Wisconsin and the Great Lakes Area Debate Tournament at Bowling Green State University.

On-campus debates were held with Albion, Michigan State College, Calvin, University of Michigan and Wayne University.

The National Tau Kappa Alpha conference April 3-5 concluded the year. At this conference Western's women participated in the discussions and legislative sessions. Miss Dolores Oszustowicz served as second vice-president of the National Student Council of Tau Kappa Alpha.

1950-1951 Western's women varsity debate teams won individual as well as team honors at the National Tau Kappa Alpha Debate Tournament. Janan LeBlanc received a Wachtel award for the highest ranking debater in the tournament. The teams tied with Louisiana State University for second place honors.

The Home Economics Club of Western Michigan College was founded to promote a better understanding and appreciation of homemaking. The group is a member of the national and state organizations. It co-operates in furthering friendship and interest among members.

With the opening of the fall semester a cookout was held at McCracken Hall, where fruit cakes and other articles made by the group were sold. The December meeting was combined with a formal initiation. The club sent two representatives and a sponsor to the Province workshop in Chicago. Closing the 1951-52 season were the spring banquet and picnic.

President of the club was Mary Sheldon. Other officers were: Gene Carpenter, vice-president; Shirley Peterson, secretary; and Marjorie Alwood, treasurer. Miss Rachel Acree was the faculty sponsor.

Bronson Nurses

The Bronson School of Nursing is affiliated with Western on a five year plan which leads to a B.S. degree. The three year students also take much of their academic work the first year on the campus at Western. There is much cooperation between the two schools in other ways too, such as the nurses having their activity and identification cards honored at all assemblies and athletic events of the college.

Bronson takes part in Western's activities, too, by entering a float in the Homecoming Parade each year. In the last three years their float has won a first and a second place prize in the beauty classification. The "Bronson Night" program is given annually for the Student Fellowship and each spring the Modern Dance Club and the Bronson choir join in a special assembly.

The "Capping" ceremony which takes place at the end of the first semester is a very important part of the freshman year. The largest class ever to enter the School of Nursing was "capped" in February.

Nurses Club

To unite all nurses and pre-nursing students on Western's campus is the purpose of the Nurses Club. The group was under the leadership of Gloria Masse, president; Jane Lyons, vice-president; and Janice Rivard, secretary-treasurer. 1951-52 sponsors were Mrs. Isabel Beeler and Mrs. Dorothy Bowers.

The club's main project for the year was the folding of bandages at the Kalamazoo Cancer Society's office. Early in the year the girls took two tours, one through the State Hospital and one through the Upjohn company.

The purpose of the Pre-Med Club is to bring together those students who are interested in medical science and its allied fields, to foster their interests in these fields, and to help the undergraduate student prepare for the transition from pre-professional training to graduate studies.

Men and women in the various special areas of medicine were featured speakers at club meetings throughout the year. Dr. Hazel Prentice, clinical pathologist spoke on cancer; Dr. Hanson, bone specialist chose as his subject the amputation of limbs; and Dr. Weadon, neuro surgeon, spoke on the history of neurosurgery and several methods used in performing various operations.

Workers in the fields of dentistry, osteopathy, chiropody, and pediatrics also addressed the group. In addition to the lectures, several movies of a medical nature were shown. Some of these were: "Atomic Medical Cases from World War II", "Amputation of Extremities", and "Strange Hunger", a story and study of vitamin deficiency in the human body. The annual spring picnic climaxed the year's activities.

The club's 1951-52 officers included: President Herman Outcalt, Vice-president Burton Butler, Secretary Lynn Taylor, and Treasurer Roger Hawkins. Co-sponsors were Mr. Towner Smith and Mr. Edward Reynolds.

Occupational Therapy Club

Through programs, discussions, lectures, and movies in the field of occupational therapy and related medical subjects, the Occupational Therapy Club sought to promote professional interest among students from eighteen states, and Puerto Rico. The club brought students of similar interests into an informal group where they could become better acquainted and compare like interests and problems. This was the seventh year on campus for the club.

Two of the outstanding activities of the club were the Friday night dance, "Anything Can Happen," and the Christmas contributions of canned food and toys for the Kalamazoo Civic League Home.

At the opening of the fall semester, the group sold paper weights and book ends at a booth at the Student Carnival. Featuring articles made by members, the club sponsored its annual Christmas and spring sales. In connection with Homecoming Week, members entered a float in the parade and sponsored a "Cider Sip" for returning OT alumni after the football game. A banquet for seniors leaving for affiliations was given in January, and a picnic for June graduates was held in the spring.

Club officers were headed by President Betty Wright, who was assisted by Vice-president Mary Barnum, Secretary Hildegard Nill, and Treasurer Marion DuMond. Faculty sponsors were Miss Marion Spear and Mrs. Jane Thomas.

Present and former members of classes in philosophy comprise the membership of the Philosophy Forum, which meets bi-monthly to informally discuss various topics. Among the subjects considered during the past year were: "Am I My Brother's Keeper?", "French Existentialism", "Free Will", "The Essence of Goodness", and "Human Destiny."

Occasionally, guest speakers were invited to address public meetings sponsored by the Forum. The first such program was a panel discussion on "Man: Natural and Spiritual" with Reverend Don Matthews, Reverend Elvin Olson, and Reverend John Duley, participating.

Informal social gatherings were sometimes held at the home of Dr. Robert Friedmann, club sponsor, and the year's activities closed in May with a picnic.

Officers were: William Parker, chairman; Winston Wessels, vice-chairman and publicity director; and Elizabeth Loring, secretary-treasurer.

"Man: Natural and Spiritual" is discussed at Philosophy Forum's first public meeting.

Players

Corlo Newmon, Bradley Smith, Dolores Oszustowicz, Barta Chipman, Joni Newblom, Evelyn Leopold, Myron Nichols.

The biggest event of the year for Players was the production of the Midwinter play, "The World We Live In," by Karel and Josef Capek. In this satire, which is considered a theater classic, the actions of butterflies, beetles, crickets, and ants pointed up human shortcomings. The chrysalis and the moths brought beauty and hope for the future; the vagrant with wisdom and understanding learned to accept the fact that "this is the world we live in."

It was a unique and challenging experience to the actors to create insect characters. The unusual nature of the costuming and staging presented many problems to be solved. So great was the demand for tickets after a three day run, that the play was held over for an additional performance on January 20. Following the Saturday night performance, the annual Midwinter banquet was held for alumni, Players, and their guests.

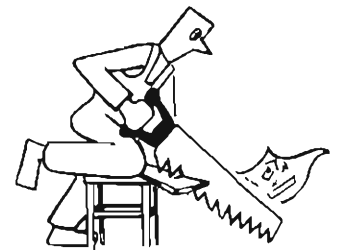

The Players found time for many other activities during the 1951-52 school year, starting with the membership tryouts in September. The group's Homecoming float was awarded first place in the originality division; another Homecoming event was a tea for returning alumni. The December agenda featured a Christmas party. A Thank You tea was held in March, and the second semester's calendar of activities closed with the April initiation of pledges and the installation of officers and the Senior tea and picnic in May.

Officers for the club this year were: Evelyn Leopold and Lucille Schutmaat, joint presidents; Dolores Oszustowicz, secretary; and Norma Parrish, treasurer. Sponsors were: Miss Laura Shaw, Miss Clara Bush, Miss Elizabeth Caughran, and Dr. Zack York.

Miss Clara Bush, Betty DeYoung, Jud Newcomb, Ann Keller, Miss Elizabeth Caughran, Dr. Zack York, Robert Ellis.

Industrial Arts Association

The Industrial Arts Association became affiliated with the American Industrial Arts Association in November, 1951. Much credit for the affiliation goes to Gilbert Hutchings who was the 1950-51 President. The AIAA is a national organization with the purpose of fostering the advancement of industrial arts education.

Activities for the year consisted of maintaining a booth at the fall Carnival, sponsoring a prize-winning float in the Homecoming parade, field trips, professional lectures, and social events.

The social highlight was the annual spring dinner-dance at which a bronze plaque was presented to the outstanding senior majoring in industrial arts education. The year ended with a picnic held in co-operation with Epsilon Pi Tau.

Assisting President Edward Shank were: Vice-President Bruce Bacheller, Secretary Richard Stell, and Treasurer Paul Hooker. Faculty sponsors were Mr. Charles Nichols and Mr. Neil Schoenhals.

Ts'ai Lun, an association of students in the Pulp and Paper Technology curriculum, was organized during the fall of 1951. The purpose of Ts'ai Lun is threefold: to further education in the art and science of papermaking, to further social contact among the students of the curriculum as well as among students and members of the paper industry, and to further the development of outside interest and recognition.

During the year such speakers as Mr. D. H. Greene, President of the Otsego Falls Paper company; Mr. H. J. Perry, Editor of the "Paper Trade Journal"; Mr. Harry Lewis, Dean of the Institute of Paper Chemistry at Lawrence College in Appleton, Wisconsin; and Thomas Flannagan, chemist from KVP, spoke to the group on the technical and practical aspects of papermaking.

Kenneth Maves was President for the year, assisted by: John Triplett, vice-president; Ray Janes, secretary; Phillip Avery, treasurer; and Wayne Kendrick, alumni secretary. Dr. A. H. Nadelman and Mr. Paul Newton were the group's sponsors.

Sociology Club

Membership in the Sociology Club is open to students who are majoring or minoring in that field and to any others who have a particular interest in sociology.

Guiding the activities of the club during the past year were: Arthur Fletcher, president; Sharlene Duncan, vice-president; Maryanne Prosello, secretary; and Barbara Polmanteer, treasurer. Dr. Chester Hunt and Dr. Paul Horton aided the group as sponsors.

The Homecoming coffee for returning alumni was one of the traditional events carried on by the Sociology Club. Another major activity was a two day field trip through Chicago's housing projects, slums, racial areas and settlement houses.

In addition to movies and discussions, numerous speakers addressed the organization on various issues of the day. Dr. Robert Friedmann, Dr. Thomas Pryor, and Dr. W. M. Robinson were among those who spoke.

Students majoring or minoring in the field of English are invited to join in the activities of the Stratford Club. One of the club's aims is to provide a closer relationship between English students and the faculty of that department.

Meetings at which trends in English, books, and other pertinent topics were discussed, were held twice monthly during the year. Sunday evening gatherings at the homes of the sponsors provided an opportunity for those members who could not meet on Thursday to join in the activities of the organization.

Joseph McKee served the group as President during the 1951-52 season. Other officers included Vice-president Jack McKeough, Secretary Joyce Shaffer, and Treasurer Cameron France.

Leading Western Wives through the 1951-52 school year were: President Virginia Miller, Vice-president Betty Cook, Secretary Hazel Burris, and Treasurer Vivian Goodman. Dr. Elizabeth Lichty was their sponsor.

In order to promote friendship among the wives of the students of Western and to provide them with some of the experiences of college life, the group met monthly for varied programs.

Featured on the agenda were such different activities as: the Welcoming tea, a baked goods auction, a movie, a Hard Times party, a Farewell tea, and a recognition program.

Membership in the Modern Dance Club is open to any girl interested in modern dance and willing to meet with the group weekly.

Under the leadership of Helen Rosko, president; Gita Gertsons, secretary; Marguerite Stocker, treasurer; and Jotte Hains, publicity manager, the club again worked with other organizations in presenting programs.

Included in those activities were presentations at the annual Women's League Christmas Chocolate and at the Alumnae Choir concert in the Civic Theater. During the spring the girls danced for the Water Sprites' show and the Festival of Arts.

A combined athletic and social event, the Homecoming Playday and Chocolate, opened Phi Epsilon's 1951-52 activities. In December the group, together with "W" Club, sponsored the third annual "Snow King Dance" with Bob Morse reigning as king for the evening.

Other social occasions included the Mid-winter dinner, the Spring breakfast, and a house party which officially concluded the year's work.

Joette Hains, president led the group, which is composed of women majoring or minoring in physical education and those women who have a special interest in athletic activity. She was assisted by Mary Richwine, vice-president, Georgiana Lewis, secretary, and Dolores Leach, treasurer. Miss Crystal Worner and Miss Eleanor Douglass were the sponsors.

Water Sprites

Each year the Water Sprites concentrate their efforts on presenting an aquacade. The event was held this year April 29 through May 3. All the arrangements were written by members of the club to create a theme of "Arabian Nights." Meetings were held once a week to perfect water stunts and strokes and synchronize swimming routines.

Membership in the club is open to anyone interested in synchronized swimming.

The officers for the year were: Nancy Wright, president; Joette Hains, vice-president; Doris Keith, secretary; and Cameron France, treasurer. Miss Margaret Large was the sponsor.

Back row: Miss Margaret Large, Janet McKee, Cammie France, Patricia Johnson, Joette Hains, Gail Drosendahl, Doris Keith, Marie Rozeboom, Mardi Lentz, Carol Koonmen.

Sky Broncos

From its beginning in the fall of 1946, the Sky Broncos club has risen to prominence in intercollegiate flying activities.

In carrying out one of the club's purposes, that of providing flying experience at a minimum of cost, various flying meets were entered. To promote an active interest in aviation among all students, meetings were devoted to films and talks on all phases of aviation. Social projects such as a dance and a homecoming float were also included in the group's activities for the year. The club also entered the National Intercollegiate flying meet held in Oklahoma A & M, Stillwater, Oklahoma.

Officers for the year were Russell Melin, president; Ted Holman, vice-president; Herschel King, secretary; and Donald Hitzfield, treasurer. Mr. Herbert Ellinger and Mr. Norman Russell, instructor in the aviation department, were sponsors for the year.

Hollis Wenning, Leo Pockard, Walter Scarlett, Marshall Boynton, Russell Melin, Mr. Herbert Ellinger.

Herschel King, Felix Survilla, Donald Hitzfield, Orton Hoxie, Jim Eccles, Ted Holman.

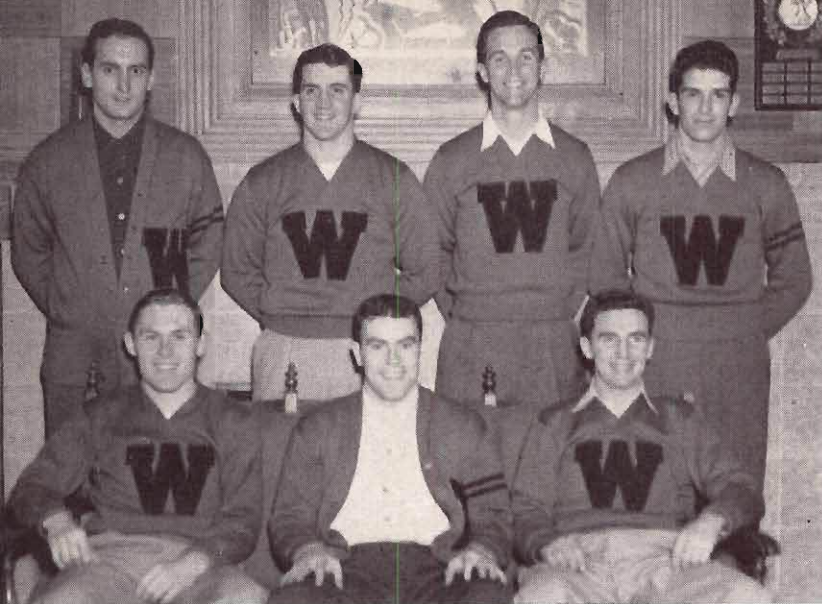

Presiding officers for the weekly meeting of the "W" Club during the last year were: President Joe Shaw, Vice-president Arnie Thompson, Secretary Bob Epskamp, Corresponding Secretary Jim Wenke, and Treasurer Dave Kistler. They were assisted by their sponsors, Mr. Clayton Maus and Mr. Edward Gabel.

The informal initiation ceremonies which brought new members into the "W" Club at the beginning of each semester proved entertaining to students gathered at the Union and elsewhere on Campus. An organization of varsity letter winners, the club has as its aim to bring athletes from each sport together for the purpose of working together to promote ideal sportsmanship.

An early fall dance sponsored by the group began the year's activities. Among the traditional duties, the members sold programs at football and basketball games and operated the concessions at the baseball games. Use of the profits derived from these activities was varied, but for the most part, proceeds were added to the "W" Club Scholarship Fund.

Two social events were on the second semester calendar. The annual dinner dance was held at the Hotel Harris in February, and the annual spring picnic brought the group's 1951-52 activities to a close.

Chapel Committee

The Chapel Advisory Committee, consisting of representatives from the faculty, clergy, and student body, advises Dr. Chester Hunt, Dean of the Chapel, on programs to be carried out in the Chapel building. This committee has determined policies on the use of the Chapel by different religious groups, has worked to publicize Chapel activities, and has helped in the planning of Sunday vesper services and week-day chapel services.

Although the Chapel was first dedicated in the spring of 1951 it is already used for many purposes. During both the first and second semester the voluntary week-day chapel services featured student, faculty, and ministerial speakers with musical assistance from the various groups of the music school.

The Canterbury Club held a regular Sunday service in the Chapel, the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship met on Tuesday evenings, Hillel on Wednesday, the Christian Science group on Thursday evening, and other religious groups used the Chapel building for occasional gatherings. Office space in the Chapel has been used for conference purposes by student pastors representing the Lutheran, Episcopal, United Brethren, Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist and Congregational Churches.

Because of its excellent acoustics and fine organ and piano, the Chapel was also a center for musical events with numerous recitals and concerts presented there during the year. The Chapel auditorium also furnished a perfect spot for weddings. Reception were held in the Social room.

To coordinate and encourage the various religious organizations on campus — Canterbury Club, Gamma Delta, Hillel Counselorship, Inter-Church Student Fellowship, Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, Newman Club, and YWCA, is the purpose of the Religious Council.

Under the leadership of President Sherwood Berman, Vice-president Richard Newsome, and Secretary-Treasurer Marilyn Brown, the council started its functions by distributing a bulletin entitled "Your Religious Organizations at Western." Another "Freshman Days" event was the open house for all new students.

During the year the group participated in all activities relating to Kanley Memorial Chapel and also sponsored Sunday morning and evening bus service from the West Campus to downtown churches.

Religious Council

Gamma Delta

Again, the Alpha Psi chapter of Gamma Delta has concluded a year of activity both religious and social in nature. An organization for students of the Lutheran faith, Gamma Delta aims to further Christian knowledge and service. In striving to do this, the group held Sunday evening meetings at the Zion Lutheran parish house.

Social activities were highlighted by a hayride, a Christmas caroling service, and the initiation banquet for new members. Gamma Delta also sponsored several Sunday afternoon services at Kanley Chapel. A week-end retreat was held at Wintercamp for Gamma Deltans from Michigan and Ohio.

Religious advisor for the organization was Reverend Louis Grother. Dr. Arthur Manske acted as faculty sponsor. Student officers for the 1951-52 season were: President Rudy Thies, Vice-president John Anilane, Secretary Maxine Kohlhoff, and Treasurer Jane Arnold.

Guiding the activities of Hillel during the past year were: Morris Richman, president; Donald Thall, vice-president; Susan Skolnick, secretary; and Sherwood Berman, treasurer. Mr. Julius Stulberg was the faculty sponsor, and Rabbi Nathan Levinson served as religious advisor.

To carry out the purpose of studying and perpetuating the Jewish culture and religion, Wednesday night classes were held to enable Hillel members to gain a better understanding of the Jewish language and traditions.

Among the activities on Hillel's calendar of events were a "Latka" party, joint meetings with Canterbury Club and the traditional spring picnic. During Brotherhood Week in February the group joined with other campus organizations in sponsoring a service at the Kanley Memorial Chapel. During the same week they also sponsored a universal service at the synagogue which was open to students of all faiths.

Inter-Church Student Fellowship

Membership in the Inter-Church Student Fellowship is open to students of Western, Kalamazoo College, Bronson School of Nursing, as well as to college age people working and residing in Kalamazoo. Four of the city's Protestant churches sponsor the organization — the First Baptist, First Methodist, First Presbyterian, and First Congregational Churches — but students of any faith are welcome.

Again, every member was encouraged to participate actively for the success of Student Fellowship, and there were many committees and interest groups for that purpose. "Agape", the bi-monthly newspaper, was put out by those interested in journalism.

Brief plays were presented by the dramatics group, and for those who desired a better understanding of the Bible and their faith, there were Bible study and cell groups. Through the work of these groups and the other committees, students were provided with Sunday evening programs of recreation and worship.

Some of the major activities sponsored by Student Fellowship during the year included the annual pancake supper and square dance, the Between Semester, Mid-Winter, and Spring Retreats, the World Student Day of Prayer, Saturday work camps, and Faculty Firesides.

Student Fellowship affairs during 1951-52 were guided by President Bill Rogers. Assisting him were: Vice-president Louis Brakeman, Secretary Louann Herndier, and Treasurer Paul Buntaine.

The Student House is open for informal gatherings after the regular Sunday night meetings.

The Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship aims to present Christ to students and also to further Christian growth and fellowship. The group is non-denominational, centering its fundamental doctrines on Biblical standards.

The organization held weekly meetings in Kanley Chapel and also sponsored daily prayer meetings and several Bible study groups each week. In December Inter-Varsity showed the Pacific Garden Mission's film, "Out of the Night," to a full house at the Chapel.

At one of the spring meetings Reverend Donald Holbrook of Brown City gave the group practical, Biblical, and factual advice regarding marriage and parent planning. A Halloween "mystery ride," skating parties, and spring outings were included in the social events of the year.

Officers for the year were: Chuck Reed, president; Donald Marvin, vice-president; Marian Hafner, secretary; and Geneva Lehmoine, treasurer. Sponsors for the group were Mr. Herbert Hannon and Mr. and Mrs. Turner Howard.

Tops on the second semester schedule of events was the Mardi Gras, a costume dance, revived this year by the club.

For the Holy Year, members of the group visited Kalamazoo's three Catholic churches. Another important event was the celebration of Mass for the first time in the new Kanley Memorial Chapel. Other plans included monthly Communion breakfasts in addition to the bi-weekly meetings.

Under the leadership of President Dick Newsome, Vice-president Marilyn Buschlen, Treasurer Bill Glass, and Recording Secretary Patricia Null, the group endeavored, as in the past, to supplement the social and intellectual life of Western's Catholic students. Father James O'Meara served as chaplain, and sponsors were Miss Marion Tamin, Miss Alice LeFevre, and Dr. Samuel Clark.

The Young Women's Christian Association had service as its goal this year. The girls "adopted" a Kalamazoo family as one of their projects. Clothes, furniture, games and toys, a Thanksgiving basket, and a Christmas tree were taken to the family of nine during numerous visits of members. Also included in the service projects were parties at the Kalamazoo Juvenile Home, contributions to the campus WSSF drive and national projects.

Annual "Y" activities included a Bowl-a-Ball booth at the Carnival in the fall, the candy cane sale and caroling party at Christmas, the initiation of new members, and the spring banquet and picnic.

YWCA officers for 1951-52 were Louise Snyder, president; Wilma Penno, vice-president; Mary Richwine, treasurer; and Barbara Weandt and Marilyn Bomers, secretaries. The girls were aided by Miss Myrtle Powers, Miss Esther Shroeder, and Mrs. George Bradley, sponsors.

The Burnham Hall Council, composed of the proctors, popularly elected representatives, and the directors, is the governing body of the twin dorms for men.

It is the duty of the council to settle any controversies that may arise in the dorms. During the year, cooperation and good fellowship were promoted by such activities as smokers.

A television set and a new snack bar kept many of the residents in a happy mood during their spare time. Certain traditional events were again carried out. At Homecoming Burnhamites worked long and hard on their float and outside decorations.

The council's social committee had charge of planning the exchange dinners with Draper and Siedschlag Halls and the annual "Festival of Knights" dance.

Front row: Eugene Boyd, Lyle Bartlett, Neil Van Dis, Thomas Rowald, Paul Stock, George Walsh, Jay DeWark, Frank Zientek, Bill Durkee, Bill Lubke, Dr. Sam Clark, Mr. Frank Hinds.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hinds, Vandercook's director and house mother.

Vandercook Hall, located on the East Campus, houses 210 men students. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hinds are the dormitory director and house mother, respectively. Assisting them during the past year were Mr. Hugh Anderson, Mr. Charles Starring, and Dr. Samuel Clark as counselors.

The Council, composed of proctors and representatives from each floor, resident counselors, and the dormitory director, passes legislation that carries out the activities of the dormitory. 1951-52 officers were: Gene Boyd, president; Lyle Bartlett, vice-president; and Neil Van Dis, secretary-treasurer.

Vandercook Hall

Leaving the dorm at vacation time seems to bring no regrets to these Vandercook residents.

Vandercook Hall celebrated Homecoming with an open house and was also awarded first prize for their outside decoration. Highlighting the dorm's social activities this past year, was the eleventh annual "Tepee Tango." The affair was held on April 26, and as in previous years, its theme centered around the legendary "Tepee Tony." Bill Durkee was general chairman for the dance.

Other social activities during the year included get-acquainted and farewell smokers, and the traditional Christmas party. An intramural sports program was under the leadership of athletic director, Don Withey.

Active socially, the first event on the dormitory's agenda was a reception for students and alumni following the Homecoming game. Yvonne Hill, a resident of Draper Hall, was a member of the Homecoming queen's court.

"Arabian Nights" was the theme of the dormitory's annual open house, held November 16. For the second successive year, Dr. Albert Becker addressed the women at their Christmas party. The Yule Log ceremony and music provided by the Draper Hall Choir and trio, Betty Dorow, Margaret Gaskill and Marcelle Gillespie, took spotlights during the evening's festivities.

Draper Hall

Several exchange dinners cemented friendly relations between the women's residence hall and Burnham Halls during the year. Terminating the year's social gatherings was the annual spring formal dance, presented May 1 in cooperation with Siedschlag Hall. Dancing was in both dining halls and refreshments were served in the double court.

Officers for the first semester were Judy Werner, president; Helen Miller, vice-president; Kay Kalhorn, secretary; Jean Douglas, treasurer. Miss Marjorie Estes assisted Mrs. Waneta Stabler in her duties as house director. The second semester ushered in new officers: Helen Miller, president; Lorraine Rudzinski, vice-president; Carol Sennema, secretary; and Marilyn Bryant, treasurer.

Siedschlag Hall's social calendar has been varied and busy during the past year. Both the float and display won prizes during Homecoming weekend, which was climaxed by a coffee held in the dorm after the game.

Davy Jones furnished the theme for the open house on November 16. Guests were entertained by a skit, "The Seaweed Saga" and danced to the music of Siedschlag's all-girl orchestra.

Siedschlag Hall

Siedschlag sailors form a nautical chorus line at their open house.

Dorm parties included monthly pajama parties, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and birthday dinners, and pajama breakfasts. Several mixers were held during the year, and a tea for freshman faculty was held during the fall semester.

May 17 was the date of the formal dance, given in cooperation with Draper Hall.

Mrs. Katherine Chapman was dormitory house director, aided by Assistant Director Mrs. Elnora Neff.

"Keep Bears Behind" was the motto of Siedschlag's Homecoming float.

Spindler Hall

One of the many "vicious" card games take place in Spindler's rec room.

The blue Room is a comfortable place for the girls to chat a while.

Those crisp, sunny days find Spindlerites congregated outside the dorm.

Homecoming week-end was first on Spindler's social calendar, with the residents busy decorating the dormitory and working on Spindler's float to welcome the returning alumnae. "Noah's Showboat" was the theme of the annual fall open house. Other activities were pajama parties, the Thanksgiving coffee, and at Christmas, the traditional Christmas breakfast and dorm party.

Some of the second semester events were the Mother's Day luncheon, the spring lawn picnic, and the dinner honoring the senior women. Spindler and Walwood girls together planned their inter-dorm informal dance, another early spring social event.

Officers for the first semester were Connie Barker, president; Marion DuMond, vice-president; Jeanne Hipp, secretary; and Carolyn DuMond, treasurer.

Student counselors Jini Sprietsma, Alice Young, and Norma Frolich aided Mrs. Katherine Parsons, housemother, and Mrs. Helen Inman, assistant housemother.

Middle row: Phyllis Kone, Connie Barker, Mrs. Helen Inman, Jini Sprietsma, Mrs. Katharine Parsons, Gail Peters, Janice Gregerson, Jeanne Hipp.

Front row: Marion DuMond, Carolyn DuMond, Norma Frolich, Barbara Musser, Alice Young.

Walwood Hall

An "Out of This World" open house initiated residents of Walwood Hall into the 1951-52 social season. A preview of life on the planets was presented as entertainment for the guests.

After this, the girls were kept busy working on the Homecoming festivities including their float which won third prize in the parade.

The Inter-dorm dance, sponsored jointly by Walwood and Spindler Halls furnished the highlight of the second semester's agenda. Among the other affairs were more pajama parties, the Easter breakfast, Mother's Day tea, picnics on the lawn, and a June tea. The Senior Farewell dinner concluded the year.

The officers for the first semester were Nancy Lewis, president; Sally Schwab, vice-president; Marilyn Gibbs, secretary; and Sheila Nesbitt, treasurer. The second semester those duties were taken over by Sheila Nesbitt, Joyce Shaffer, Patricia Ryan, and Alice Cubbon, respectively.

Mrs. Mabel Hinkle held the position of house director during the past year assisted by Miss Lois Schember, assistant director, and Margaret Rauth and Margaret Eddy, student counselors.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

An abstract collage of various sports-related items. A thick, jagged black line runs diagonally from the bottom left towards the center. Several thin black lines intersect across the page, some ending in solid black circles. A golf ball is suspended from a horizontal line near the top left. A tennis racket is positioned in the middle left. A football hangs from a line on the left side. A baseball bat is oriented horizontally in the lower middle. A soccer cleat is at the bottom left, and a basketball is at the bottom right. A large, irregularly shaped, textured object resembling a piece of fabric or a glove is in the upper right, with a white rectangular label containing the word "Athletics" placed over it. The background is a light, textured surface.

ATHLETIC BOARD CHAIRMAN

The Athletic Board as a functioning body is an ex-officio group that supervises the entire intercollegiate athletic program here at Western. This ex-officio group consists of eight members, five of whom have either faculty or administrative duties while the remaining three members represent the student body.

As Dean of Administration, Mr. John C. Hoekje is chairman of the board and has served 32 years in this capacity.

Director of Athletics, Mr. Mitchell J. Gary is the representative link between the board and the athletic department.

Mr. Cornelius MacDonald, comptroller of Western, is a member by appointment and acts as secretary.

The two personages representing the faculty are Dr. William Berry of the Geography Department and Mr. Charles Smith of the English Department.

Representing the student body in their ex-officio positions are Don Burge, Student Council; Joe Shaw, W Club; and Ron Smith, sports editor of the Herald.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
MITCHELL "MIKE" GARY

Having served two years as director of athletics and physical education and also having served previously as an assistant in the above capacity, Mr. Mitchell Gary has yet before him one of his most requiring tasks. Working in the closest co-operation with President Paul V. Sangren, the coaching staff and the contracting architect, Mr. Gary and this group are attempting to bring about the realization of a new athletic plant, estimated at a cost of one and a half million dollars, but due to increasing costs of labor and materials the estimate will undoubtedly become higher. When completed it is designed to contain a field house, gymnasium, swimming pool, offices, class rooms and other additional essential facilities. The plans and the estimated expenditure have been submitted to the various State departments for approval and it is hoped that construction will be undertaken in the near future.

Previous to his position as administrator of Western's athletics and prior to his entrance into the Navy in 1942, Mr. Gary served thirteen years as head football coach. He climaxed his coaching career by gaining national recognition with a team that went eight games without a loss or tie.

Back row: Mr. Bill Perigo, Mr. Ray Sorenson, Mr. Tom Slaughter, Mr. Cloyton Maus, Mr. Ed Gabel, Mr. Roy Wietz.

Mr. Charles Maher

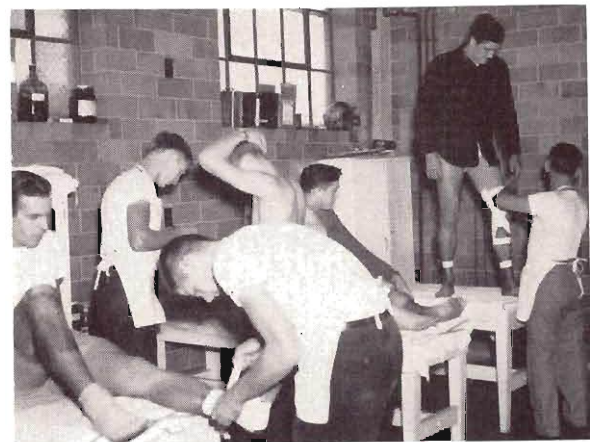

Mr. Homer Dunham

The other role undertaken by coaches is the instruction of courses in the field of physical education, those designed to meet the requirements of majors and minors in the field and those required courses set up for the general college student.

Majors and minors are offered technical courses that supplement the major sports of football, basketball, track, and baseball plus an orientation in minor sports. Those male students not in the specific field of physical education are required to take four hours of general physical education.

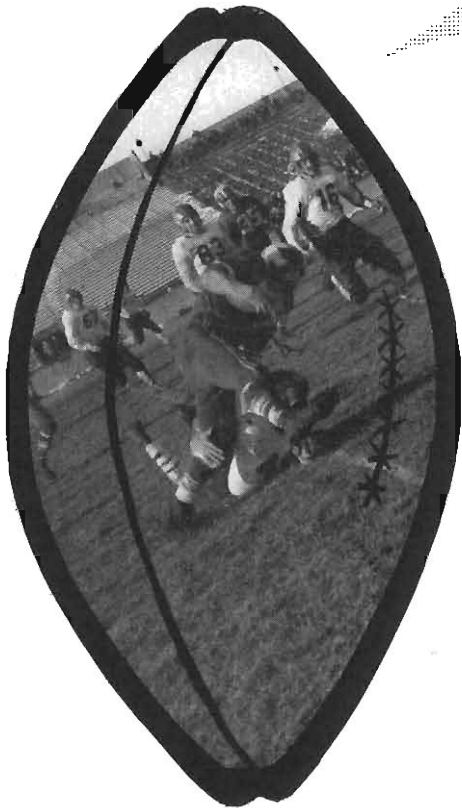

Western has been recognized for its ability in the preparation of students who have distinguished themselves in the field of coaching and the teaching profession and with the expanding facilities of Western, in the way of a new athletic plant, the Physical Education Department will be able to offer a more extensive program.

Captain Bill Pitkin

Western's football team this year was at times a somewhat incongruous group. It was composed of ten senior letter winners; who played their last intercollegiate football game; a combination of sophomores and juniors; and eleven freshmen, who have before them three competitive years. The experience of the seniors and the inexperience of the freshmen afforded a contrast that made consistency on certain weekends somewhat difficult to obtain, whereas other times this group reached unusual heights. The upset over Toledo and the near victory over Miami that was, however, a moral victory, reflect these unusual heights.

We pay humble tribute to these seniors, men who like to play football for what it is, regardless of the circumstances or the results. On the line we had Chuck Atkocunis, Al Cater, and Tom Morris, ends, (Tom Morris played defensive half-back most of his career); Captain Bill Pitkin, tackle; Eli Avromov and Ron Gow, guards; Howard Peterson, center; and Len Johnston, Bob Morse, and Arnie Thompson in the backfield.

Guard Ron Gow was chosen by the team as the most valuable player while Les Coster, freshman tackle, was selected by the coaches as the most improved player. Quarterback Chuck Higgins was elected captain for next year.

The 1951 football season highlighted itself in various respects both here at Western and throughout the country at large. The impending world condition and the draft status of young men resulted in a retraction of the freshman rule allowing incoming freshmen to participate in varsity contests. Just how much influence these incoming freshmen had on a team's record and performance naturally varied with the school. Here at Western, however, they played a major role in the Bronco's performance.

Eleven freshmen were invited back for early fall practice and at the conclusion of the season seven of these freshmen had won varsity awards. One member of this group, Owen Bennett, established a new Bronco passing record totaling 661 yards through the air. A new scoring record was set also as senior Len Johnson, compiled a total of 54 points for the season.

In recognition of their defensive work, Tom Morris and Floyd Stollsteimer were placed on the Mid-American All-Conference defensive team.

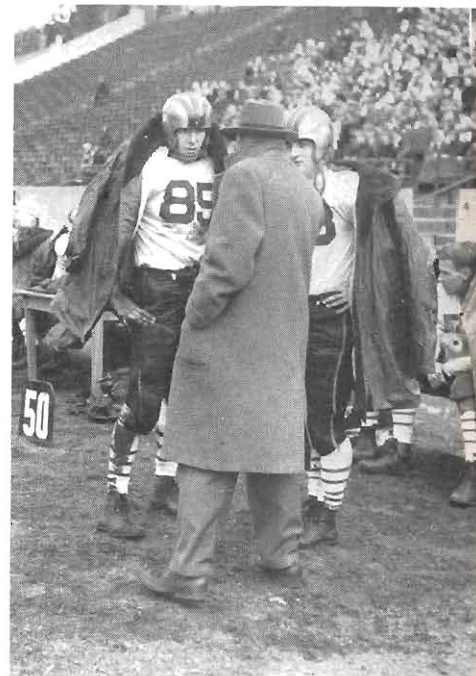

John Gill concluded his tenth season as head football coach here at Western, although not having a formidable season, he nevertheless upheld his established precedent in not having a losing season, winning four out of eight games. Unfortunately, however, the Broncos for the second year in a row finished in last place in the Mid-American Conference.

KENT STATE

Western opened the 1951 football season by losing their first Mid-American Conference game, 48-19, to its newest member, Kent State University. This first encounter between the two schools left in the minds of Western fans a vivid realization of Kent State's capability as a new conference opponent.

Spearheaded by Jack Mancos' five touchdowns, the Golden flashes had little trouble overcoming a seemingly mentally and physically unalert Bronco squad. Kent State put across four scores in the first half and two in the second, capitalizing a great deal on Western's fumbles.

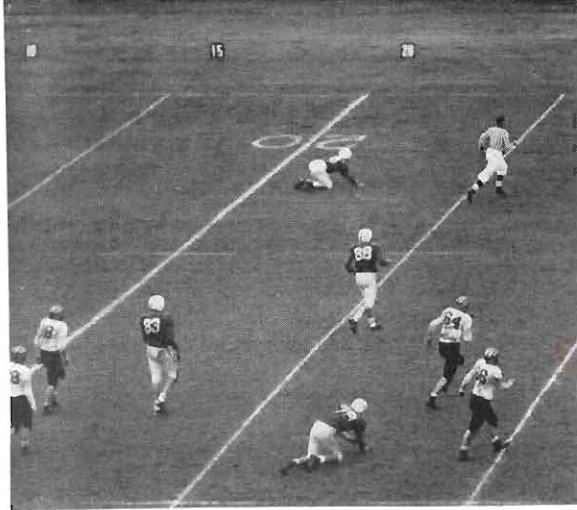

Western put on a belated rally in the second half which was set off by Earl Montross's 98 yard kickoff return. Bennett missed the conversion. Thompson scored Western's second touchdown on an intercepted pass, covering 30 yards. Once again Bennett was unable to make good his point after touchdown.

Coach John Gill discusses strategy with end Charlie Atkocunis and quarterback Chuck Higgins.

TOTAL YARDS RUSHING

Bennett	568
Montross	556
Higgins	358
Johnston	286
Thompson	286

The Broncos final moment of brilliance issued forth on a pass-play from Chuck Higgins to Tom Morris, who at the point of being tackled, lateraled off to Bill Brown, who went the rest of the way. Chuck Higgins added the conversion.

TOLEDO

There was certainly an air of astonishment among people after Western's 14-6 upset over Toledo University. In fact the team itself showed some surprise amidst their jubilant yelling, although they had known that the Rockets were primed for an upset.

Recognition of this victory demands recognition of one of the finest defensive games a Western team has displayed in a number of years. It was Patanelli's crashing defense that held the Rockets to 141 yards rushing and became the instigating factor behind both touchdowns.

The hard tackling of the Bronco team repeatedly made the Rocket backs fumble, setting up Western's first score. Leading from this fumble, Owen Bennett hit Bob Chant alone in the end zone for six and Chuck Higgins' conversion put the Broncs out front 7-0.

Toledo got back in the ball game with six minutes left, making the score 7-6 and continued to threaten through passing. It was here that Western sewed it up. Don Earl intercepted a Toledo pass on their 35 and returned it to the eight. With two seconds remaining, Len Johnston scored around left end and Higgins' conversion certainly added flavor to the 14-6 upset.

OHIO

In spite of Western's brilliant upset the previous week over Toledo, bad weather and Ohio University's hard running backs delt the Broncs a 13-0 defeat, the second in conference play.

The first half developed into a kicking duel with Higgins and Bennett matching Ohio's Bob Haus. The high point of the half came when Stan Malec stole the ball from a Bobcat ball carrier in a pile-up and stepped off 67 yards for a score. It was nullified, however, by a Bronco clipping penalty.

Tom Morris attempts to lend a helping hand to a fellow teammate in the Miami game.

Ohio dominated the second half with their running, and their defense capitalized on Western's offensive mistakes, turning a fumble and a blocked punt into a 13-0 victory.

MIAMI

Western Michigan's football team never looked more inspired than they did in defeat as the defending Mid-American champs, Miami University, robbed the determined Broncos in the last 13 seconds, 34-27.

This game took on an atmosphere of determination right from the start. A long run and a well placed punt out of bounds put Miami in the hole on their two yard line. Miami punted out, but two plays later Montrass had worked his way back to the two. Taking two downs, Higgins hit Thompson in the flat for the first score. Higgins' conversion made it 7-0. Western scored again in the second quarter when Al Cater recovered a fumble on the Redskin 40. A pass from Stan Malec to Tom Morris put the ball on Miami's 20 and on the fourth down Owen Bennett rifled one to Johnston. A well aimed kick by Higgins and the Broncos led 14-0.

In the closing minutes of the first half John Pont climaxed a 79 yard Redskin drive on a pitch-out from the Western three giving the game a 14-6 half-time score.

In the third quarter Western took a back seat to Miami's Pont as he passed and ran for two scores and assisted in a third. But in the fourth quarter and losing 27-14 the Broncos put forth a relentless rally in putting across two touchdowns. Bennett passed to Johnston on a sleeper and Montrass went 17, after an interception by Tom Morris had set it up. Higgins' second conversion tied it at 27-27. Two minutes and fifty seconds dwindled to thirteen seconds and Kennedy's pass to Zachary gave Western their third conference defeat in as many tries.

The question is whether Montrass made it; however, Western beat Central Michigan 46-25.

WASHINGTON U

A Homecoming crowd of 8,000 watched John Gill's team rise twice to overcome an unbeaten Washington University team 12-7. It was quite evident, in this second win in five starts, that the Broncos hadn't fully recovered from their previous week's loss.

Western responded twice in the second quarter with a pair of screen passes that set Earl Montross and Len Johnston off on jaunts of 61 and 83 yards, respectively. A pass from Owen Bennett set Montross going while Chuck Higgins enabled Johnston to start off on some agile open field running that carried him through a host of would-be Washington tacklers. Both of Higgins' attempts at conversion were wide.

The running attack of the Washington Bears throttled down after their first quarter score and threatened only once in the second half.

BUTLER

An open date that provided two weeks of preparation, geared the Broncos to the point where they had little trouble in beating Butler 20-0. A cold wintry day limited the offense to a running attack and added to the misery of the Butler fans.

The Broncos scored in the first, second, and third periods with Len Johnston scoring two and Arnie Thompson the third touchdown. Bennett's passing assisted on two of the scores. Johnston skidded eight yards around his own left end for the first six points with Higgins' conversion making it seven.

A recovered fumble in the second period started Western on a drive that carried them to the 14 in eight plays. It obtained significance when Bennett hit Johnston on the five and Bennett made it 14-0 for the Broncos. An intercepted pass by safety Floyd Stollsteimer and a pass interference penalty led to the final score. This time Bennett connected with Arnie Thompson on a pass that carried 39 yards for six points and there it ended; Western 20, Butler 0.

WESTERN RESERVE

Midway through the third quarter of the final conference game of the year and winning 26-7, Western met a new Western Reserve that rallied to win 27-26 over the Broncos. This game decided which team was to occupy the cellar position in the conference.

Western started the game by scoring on their second series of downs with Montross going the distance. Higgins made it 7-0. Two interceptions set up Western's second and third touchdowns with Johnston going 15 yards after Calloway's interception and with Montross, on a screen pass from Bennett, taking advantage of Stollsteimer's agility as a pass defender. Higgins and Bennett missed both tries for the extra point. Between the Broncos' second and third score, Reserve made their first touchdown.

In the third quarter, and playing excellent pass defense, Stollsteimer intercepted a Reserve pass and went 72 yards giving Western a 26-6 lead. Reserve, however, took the ensuing kick-off and drove for a touchdown in eight plays and never stopped driving until they were out ahead 27-26. When the gun went off Western was on Reserve's five yard line.

CENTRAL MICHIGAN

Blizzards, national records broken, Dad's Day; these were all part of Western's 46-25 win over Central Michigan spelling "finis" to a rather bleak season. Western was leading 33-0 before Central's Andy MacDonald started on his way to establish a new national small college passing record.

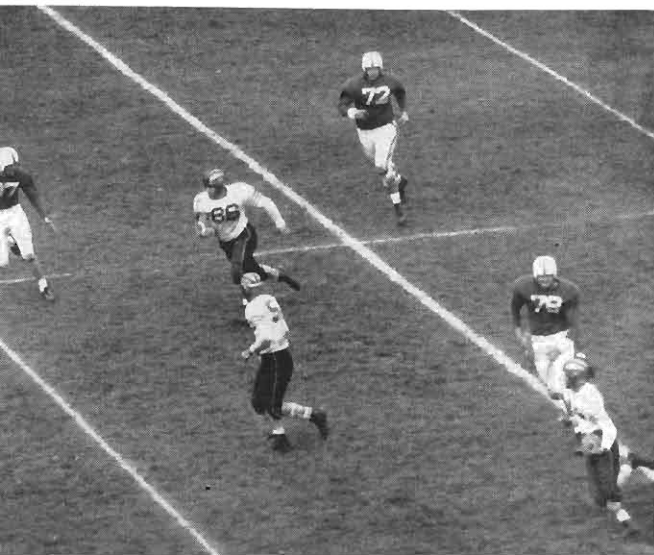

The unpredictable Broncos reached their offensive peak of the season grinding out seven touchdowns for 582 yards. Len Johnston, Arnie Thompson, and Earl Montross each accounted for two scores, while end, John Smith, tallied one. Five of them came on the ground and two by aeriels. Chuck Higgins made good on four conversions.

Until Central's first score, Andy MacDonald hadn't looked like any record breaker, having completed only one out of nine passes. But from the moment of the Chippewa's first drive, right to the end, MacDonald riddled Western's secondary with 20 out of 25 completions. It was too late, though, for the Broncos' offense had built up a substantial lead.

Agile Stollsteimer, assisted by Tom Morris, goes up high to break up a Miami pass.

The question is, "Who has the ball?" This action took place in the Kent State game.

Gorzelloni, 66, and Peterson clear the way for Johnston's 83-yard touchdown run against the Washington Bears.

Functioning as a junior varsity squad rather than as a freshman squad, because of the "freshman rule," altered somewhat, the scope of its function. In this new capacity the junior varsity team allowed a greater number of men to participate in inter-collegiate football with a greater possibility for these men to make the varsity team. One of the other primary functions was to scrimmage against the varsity squad using the plays, both offensive and defensive, of the varsity's next opponent.

The J. V.'s, under coach Tom Slaughter, beat Ionia Reformatory 21-7; lost to Grand Rapids Junior College 34-7; and a third game with the University of Detroit, was cancelled because of snow.

The game against Grand Rapids Junior College seemed to be a game of mistaken identity as a number of men brought down from the varsity offered little assistance. It was only after Grand Rapids had scored most of their touchdowns that the Western squad, working as a complete junior varsity team, revealed themselves.

The second game proved to be different. A blocked punt, by Joe Maurer, who recovered it in the end one, gave the J. V.'s their first score. The second came on a pass from Tom Szczygiel to Pat Barr. Don Foltz added both conversions. The final score came when Jerry Kenton intercepted an Ionia pass on their 20, going the entire distance Foltz again made good on his conversion.

Twenty-seven men received freshman numerals and George Heydlauff was elected honorary captain.

Young Harriers Show Competence with

Led by a bright array of freshmen and sophomores, Clayton Maus' cross country team turned in a sparkling performance and one of the most notable in several years.

Without the services of veteran star Russ Gabier in the first few meets, and losing three key harriers through graduation, this youthful but competent squad won five out of six dual meets and took second in the Mid-American Conference championship run here at Kalamazoo.

a Future

Competing for the first time in his intercollegiate career, freshman Tom Coyne led Western to their first victory, 18-45, over Central Michigan, by taking first place honors and setting a new 3 mile course record of 17:03.4.

The seven man Bronco squad of Coyne, Moser, Leland, Linders, Mollon, Eichenlaub, and Cobb took all but one of the first eight places.

A week later Western played host, simultaneously, to a triple-dual running against Michigan Normal, Hope, and Albion. Normal's Ed Aylmer's first place was the big factor in their 26-29 win over Western. His first place time of 18:24.9 (3 1/2 miles) was two seconds faster than Tom Coyne's third place effort.

Against the two MIAA schools, however, the Broncos outran them both 17-43.

Running in a style that has made him one of Western's great distance runners, Russ Gabier made his initial appearance of the season by leading Western to a 25-31 victory over Wayne University. In doing so, his first place time tied the Tartars' varsity, 4 mile course record of 21:45. Two-tenths of a second behind Russ was Coyne, taking second place while Leland and Moser slipped in at fifth and sixth.

As defending Mid-American champs, Miami, on their home course, previewed to the Broncos what challengers had to contend with in dethroning them from their championship. The preview was a triangular win over Western and Butler University with Cash Powell and Jack Heineman of Miami taking first and second places, respectively. Tom Coyne led Bronco harriers in fourth place with Gabier, seventh; Leland, eighth; Eichenlaub, ninth; and Mollon, tenth.

From sunny Miami University at Oxford, Ohio, the Broncos journeyed to Milwaukee to overcome Marquette University 24-33 in a blizzard of 16 degrees. Russ Gabier took a second to the Hilltopper's captain, Ted Baars, but the placing of the other Bronco harriers made the difference.

Confronted with 18 inches of snow and coach Maus' temporary course, Miami successfully defended their MAC country crown with 27 first place points followed by Western, 37; Western Reserve, 73; Cincinnati, 104; and Ohio, 133.

Gabier was third behind Miami's Powell and Heineman with the other Broncos, Eichenlaub, Mollon, Coyne, Moser, and Leland, bunched in between seventh and eleventh in that order.

In the Central Collegiate, Western ran fourth in a field of six with Gabier placing sixth.

Russ Gabier comes across in third place in the MAC cross country running held at Western.

Keeping Western's spirit on top is the job of the cheerleaders. This group attends every home football and basketball game throughout the season faithfully and does their utmost to cheer on the team as well as the crowd.

This year the cheerleading squad consisted of six girls who met each week to practice together as well as to cheer at all the games. Throughout the football season they appeared on the field in their school sweaters and slacks, and when basketball season rolled around, they got together and made their own brown pleated skirts to wear indoors. But whatever their costume, the cheerleaders were a familiar sight to the crowds during the various sports seasons.

Front row: Neil Benford, Benton Harbor; Chuck Brotebeck, Flint; Bob Adams, South Bend, Ind.; Joe Shaw, Leslie; Roy Healy, Montgomery, Ind.

Western's basketball team completed one of its most successful seasons in several years by sharing with Miami University the Mid-American Conference title. In doing so, the team registered a record of sixteen wins and eight losses, and established several new scoring records: 100 points against Western Reserve for a single game and a new season scoring mark of 1680 points, shattering the old one by 183 points.

Completing his third season as head coach, Bill Perigo started the season with seven returning lettermen, but was troubled somewhat, with the problem of locating a center. This problem resolved itself in an experienced, six foot, two inch sophomore, Neil Benford, and an inexperienced six foot, six inch freshman, Ron Jackson. Jackson, though starting slow, proved to be the most improved Bronco player at the season's end and set a new scoring record for a first year center, with 267 points.

Bob Adams in closing out his career, led his teammates with 379 points, giving him a three year total of 1036. Adams was placed for the third time on the All-Mid-American team as selected by the coaches and also received honorable mention on Collier's All-American team for the Midwest, which is also selected by a group of basketball coaches.

Prospects for next season remain good, even though Adams and Shaw will be gone, for there remain, along with Brotebeck, Healy, Benford, and Jackson, promising replacements in Pindar and Stacy, as well as up-and-coming sophomores and freshmen.

Co-captains Bob Adams and Joe Shaw.

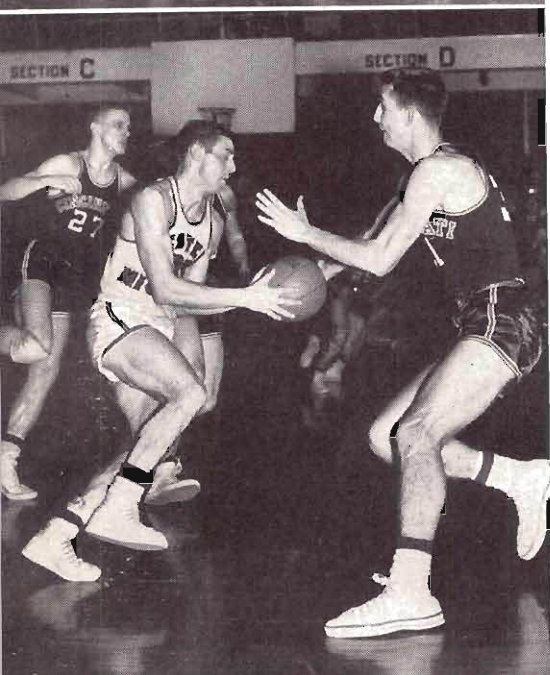

Bob Adams and Joe Shaw are both seniors and their capacity for playing basketball and just being great guys is certainly going to be missed around Western. Both Bob and Joe are married and both of them are majoring in business administration. Bob hails from South Bend, Indiana, while Joe's home town is Leslie, Michigan. During their three seasons on Western's squad their threat as scorers has been exemplified in that Shaw has been top scorer once during his career and Adams, twice.

For all the effort we hope Shaw made it.

Although Western won nine out of twelve conference games, at the beginning of the season, Miami, Cincinnati, Toledo, and Ohio all presented themselves as possible conference contenders. Cincinnati was the biggest surprise, winning only five out of ten conference games, while Western's win over them was the first time for any Bronco basketball squad.

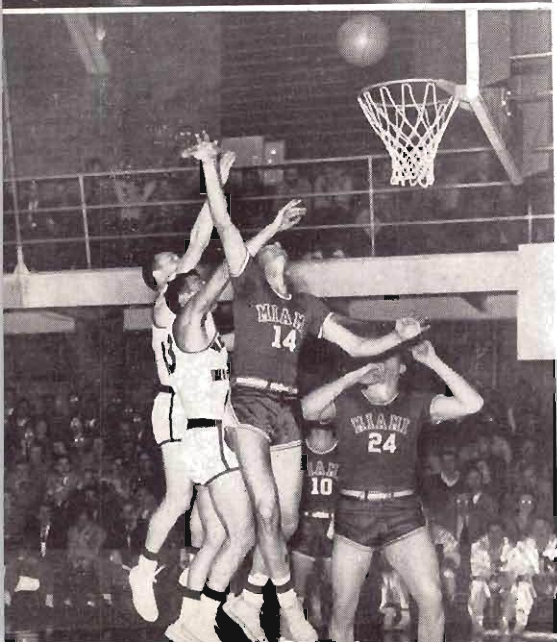

Western opened the 1951-52 season against Manchester of Indiana, beating them 74-50. Western lacked polish to accompany their aggressiveness, but led at the half 31-11. Bud

Benford is going through regardless.

Brotebeck and Bob Adams led the Broncos with 20 and 17 points, respectively.

Iowa played host and revenged their previous year's upset by Western by completely dominating the 72-68 victory. Iowa's dominating command, led by Chuck Darling's 30 points was almost shattered as Western put on a drive in the last quarter that was to become characteristic in games to come. This ten minute drive netted 32 points, but Iowa was able to stall off the Broncos in the closing minutes. Benford was high for Western with 13, followed by Pindar with 12.

Adams and Benford battle for a rebound.

Returning home the Broncos had to come from behind in the second half, to overcome a stubborn Central Michigan team 58-48. Adams, Brotebeck, and Shaw again came through with a scoring punch while Healy's knack for stealing the ball greatly added to the rally.

Western entered into league play in the Toledo Tournament and still was far from expectations, losing to Miami and Cincinnati. Led by Jim Holstein, Cincinnati kept the lead through the game and was able to stave off that seemingly inevitable fourth quarter rally of Western. Bud Brotebeck's five baskets in the first half and his game total of 17 points highlighted Western's effort.

The Miami game, which was a consolation only to Miami, found Western on the short end, 76-65. It was Miami's superior rebound strength that gave them the advantage plus the 25 points of Ed Gunderson. Although the Redskins used a zone, it wasn't too effective but it helped and Benford's sharp shooting in the third quarter was of no avail.

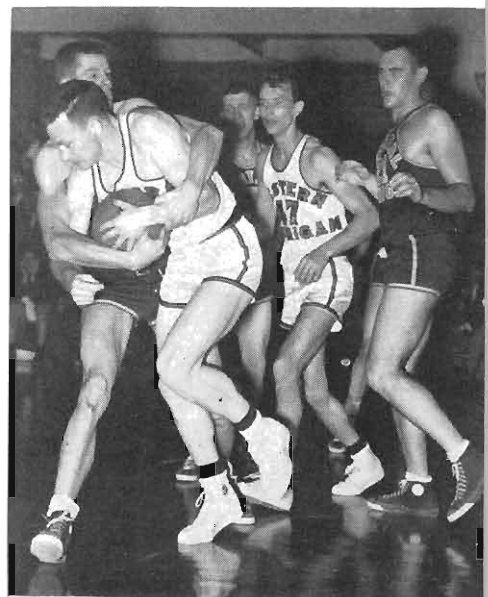

Northwestern was the lull before the storm and a hard battle contested throughout the entire game gave the Wildcats a close 80-77 win. Ron Jackson, starting at pivot, shared scoring honors with Bob Adams. Each made 17 points as the Broncos began to look more like themselves.

The storm broke with a 79-62 win over Valparaiso that started a 10 game winning streak and found the Broncos scoring over 70 points in six of these games and beating and upsetting Loyola, Miami, and above all, Cincinnati.

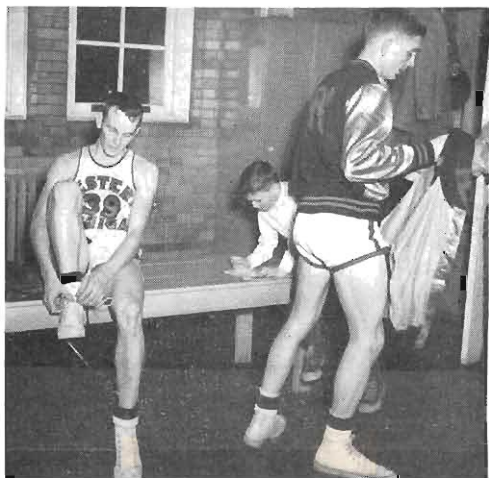

Brotebeck and Healy dig in the Loyola game as Benford and Jackson look on.

"Jump ball? ——— What do you say, Bob?"

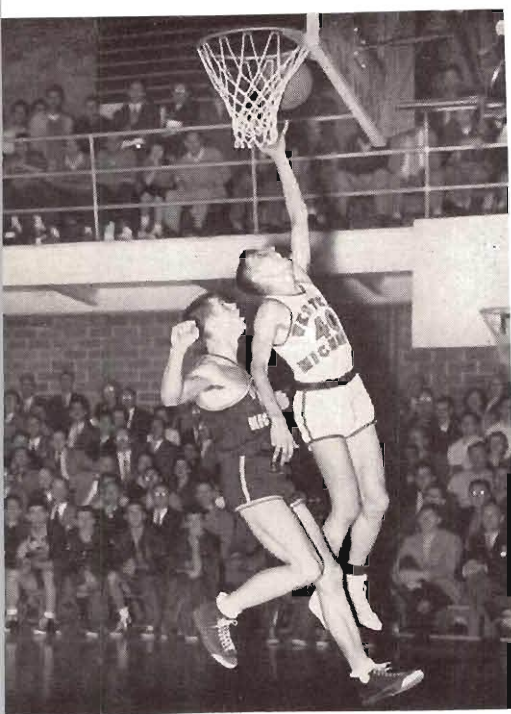

"Who won Pete?"

Coach Perigo's system stresses a fast game.

Joe Show gets two in the Central Michigan game.

Bud Brotebeck led the Broncos against Valpo with 17 points before going out on fouls. A 22 point rally in the fourth quarter cinched Western's first victory with nine that were to follow.

Number two came in overtime against Loyola, 75-66, with Benford putting in the winning baskets. Bob Adams was high with 22 and led the Bronco second rally that was rapidly beginning to gain prestige.

During Christmas vacation, Western added four more victories to their 4 and 4 record, two of them coming in conference play against Kent State and strong Miami. In beating Kent State 71-62, Western had to contend with two of the finest pair of working guards that they were to meet up against in Grenfell and Alvado, both of whom scored 17 points. It was Adams' 25 points and the timely shooting of sub John Pindar in the second half, however, that broke up the Golden flashes combination.

Once again it was a fourth quarter rally that enabled Western to come out on top beating Northern Illinois 74-68. Roy Healy's offensive tactics netted him 16 points and enabled the Broncos to break up a game that had been tied ten different times. Jackson and Adams scored 15 and 14 respectively.

"Quick, Brotebeck, grab it."

Western moved into first place in the MAC by beating highly rated Miami 58-52. Excellent work off the boards and the balanced scoring of Brotebeck's 14, and Jackson's and Benford's 11 points, contributed to Western's victory over Miami. This victory revealed Western as a team to take notice of.

Little opposition was met in beating Central Michigan for the second time in the season. Brotebeck was again high, this time with 15, while John Pindar collected 13. Central came close only once during the game as they rolled within two points of Western.

Continuing their winning ways, Western eclipsed their third win in official conference play by whipping Western Reserve 79-46. Western Reserve attempted to use a controlled type of ball but the balanced scoring of the first five broke it up and Western Michigan won going away. Bob Adams and Bud Brotebeck were high with 14 apiece.

Confronted with their own temporary ineffectiveness and Valparaiso's height, Western had some trouble registering a 54-46 win. Adams was high with 20 points but Healy's effective defensive tactics and 12 points and timely hitting by Joe Shaw won in the end.

Beating Cincinnati 62-56 was undoubtedly one of the most satisfying victories Western fans have experienced in some time. The game started fast — 27-21 for Western at the end of the first quarter — perhaps too fast, for it had its tiring effect in the second half.

Adams scored 23 points to Jim Holstein's 21, and Brotebeck's uncanny shooting in the first half together with his and Healy's defensive work gave Western a very satisfactory ninth win in a row.

Adams' shot is about to be blocked during the Toledo game.

The Broncos had to come from behind to beat Ohio U. on their own home court 65-60, with the Bobcats' Glen Hursey scoring 23 points.

A last quarter spurt by Ron Jackson, (high with 15), and Joe Shaw brought the Broncos from nine points behind to win.

Journeying to Toledo, Western had their 10 game winning streak snapped as they lost their first official conference game 57-54.

Bob Adam's 29 points just weren't enough to combat Toledo's controlled style of play and their long shots.

Going directly from Toledo to Kent, Ohio, Western won over Kent State for the second time 89-73. In a game that had 62 fouls called, all but Adams of the first five fouled out, but before doing so, Benford collected 19 points, Brotebeck 17, and Healy and Jackson 11.

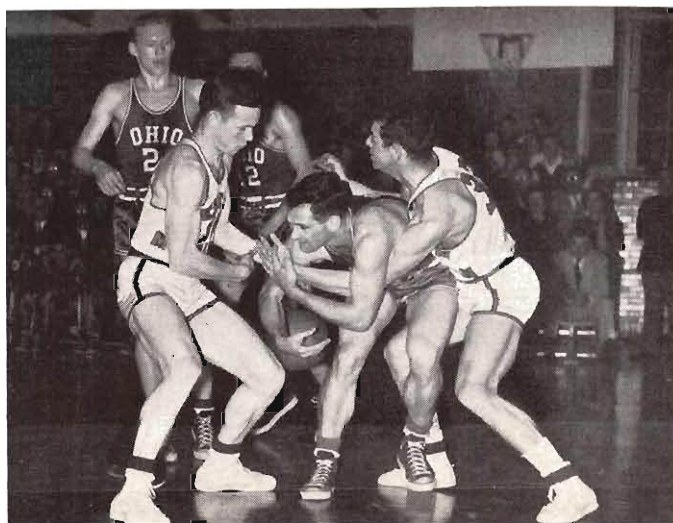

Playing the next three games in a period of four days found the season catching up with Western. In hitting a slump the Broncos lost to Loyola, Miami, and Cincinnati.

Loyola's 58-61 victory was led by Hanrahan's 30 points. The game was close, but Western wasn't hitting and Loyola was a good ball club.

Miami really revenged their earlier season's loss to the Broncos by whipping them 95-66. Miami's center, Dick Walls, scored 29 points while his teammate Don Knodel scored 26. Western's best effort was by Healy, 19 points, followed by Benford's 13.

By losing to Cincinnati, Western found themselves in a second place tie with Toledo in the conference race. Cincy's Jim Holstein's passing and rebounding kept the Bearcats out front and when Ron Jackson went out on fouls, the Bearcats proceeded to control the boards, enabling them to go on to a 63-56 victory.

Adams and Benford inflict a little "underhandedness" on Ohio's Hursey.

"Ah ——— Let's keep it clean in the pivot, boys!"

Returning home, Western was confronted with three conference games on their own court. Losing just one would have put the Broncos out of the conference race. They didn't however, as they started off by beating Ohio University for the second time, 85-74.

In doing so, Western eclipsed the all time season scoring record of 1510 points by 13, and Ohio did the same with the opponents all-time record.

Ron Jackson, having improved with each game, put in 25 points, and Joe Shaw looking his old self, scored 16 as did Benford. Adams collected 15 points, and became the third Bronco to score over 1000 points. (Others were Hal Gensichen and Don Boven.)

In beating Toledo, Western employed their famous fast break with Adams scoring 26 points and Jackson 20. Besides featuring the fast break, the Bronco did some excellent rebounding.

Western closed out the season in first place in the conference, a half a game ahead of Miami. Whether or not the Broncos were to share the title with Miami or claim undisputed first place depended on the outcome of the Miami-Cincy game. We shared it, Miami winning 82-79.

In winning the final game, 100-60, against Western Reserve, Coach Perigo's team established a new scoring record for a single game. For a while it didn't appear as if the Broncos were going to hit 100 points, but after missing one chance earlier, John Pindar sank a foul shot with thirty-five seconds remaining in the game.

This game marked the final one in the careers of co-captains Bob Adams and Joe Shaw, as they climaxed it by scoring 16 and 20 points respectively. Jackson was high with 22 points.

Brotebeck is fouled in the process of shooting during the Manchester game. Elementary, hey what?

MID-AMERICAN ALL CONFERENCE BASKETBALL TEAM

Knodel (f)Miami
 Martin (f)Toledo
 Holstein (c)Cincinnati
 Hursey (g)Ohio
 Adams (g)Western Michigan

Bud Brotebeck (g) and Ron Jackson (c) of Western were placed on the second team.

Front row: Al Nagel, Marshall; Mel Edgerton, South Bend, Ind.; Dwight Fouts, Roann, Ind.; Ed Foster, Niles; Bill Huntsinger, Elwood, Ind.; Jerry Nawinski, Cleveland, Ohio; Dave Crocker, Chelsea.

Western's 1951-52 junior varsity team won seven out of eight games and in doing so, averaged 74 points a game, the highest average ever compiled by any Colt squad. Two of these victories came at the expense of two city league teams, beating Panalyte 92-52 and Douglas Community Center 68-39.

Top scorer for the junior varsity was Bill Huntsinger with 99 points followed by Mel Edgerton, 86 and Ed Foster with 77. Foster was also elected honorary captain at the end of the season.

Junior Varsity Basketball

WESTERN JV 78 — PERCY JONES 50

The season opened against Percy Jones and with Coach Slaughter substituting freely; all twelve men figured in on the 72-50 win. Ed Foster was high with 18, and Huntsinger tallied 15.

WESTERN JV 74 — VALPARAISO JV 55

Bill Huntsinger's 19 points, together with Benbow's 17, led the Colts to their second win of the season over Valparaiso. Foster also featured in the scoring with 11 points.

WESTERN JV 56 — VALPARAISO JV 57

A basket in the closing 21 seconds and some cool stalling by Valpo revenged their pre-vacation loss to Western's Colts. Benbow took scoring honors this time with 19 points while Huntsinger hit for 12.

WESTERN JV 78 — PERCY JONES 69

The balanced scoring of Benbow, 18; Diment, 17; Edgerton, 13; and Nowinski, 12 enabled the JV's to bounce back into the win column but the unsung hero of the game was Percy Jones' Eaddy who scored 40 points for the losers.

WESTERN JV 75 — HOPE JV 51

In their first encounter with Hope's JV, Western's Colts made good percentages in beating the Dutchmen 75-51. Edgerton, Huntsinger, and Fouts scored 16, 15, and 13 points respectively while Al Nagle wound up with 10.

WESTERN JV 80 — HOPE JV 53

Coach Slaughter's team closed out the season with an impressive second win over Hope JV, 80-53. As it had happened other times during the season four men were responsible for the bulk of the scoring. Edgerton was high with 17 points and Foster had 13. Lee and Fouts each scored 11 points.

Brancos Take Third M A C

The performance of Western's baseball team gained additional recognition on the basis of honors bestowed on certain individuals on the squad. Five members of the team, Don Edwards and Tom Cole, pitchers; Scotty Wilson, short stop; Dave Gottschalk, second base; and Fran Green, center field; were selected for the All-Mid-American team. In addition Don Edwards was named second string All-American having compiled a season's record of eight wins and two losses.

Fran Green led the team in hitting, with an average of .382, while Jack Baldwin was second with .365. Dave Gottschalk had the best fielding average by virtue of committing only one error during the entire season, while his hitting was the most effective with 19 RBI's. Len Johnston proved to be the toughest target for opposing pitchers, working them for nineteen walks.

The Western pitcher bears down with a man on third.

The conclusion of the 1951 baseball season marked the third consecutive Mid-American Conference title won by Western and marked, also, the fourth time that a Maher-coached team had qualified for the fourth district NCAA playoffs. With a record of sixteen wins and three losses during the regular season, coach Charlie Maher completed one of his most successful seasons as Western's baseball coach. In the NCAA playoff, Western, who had beaten Ohio State twice during the regular season, lost to the Buckeyes in a three game series, two games to one.

A 6-1 and a 5-2 win over Washington University of St. Louis opened the 1951 season for Western with Don Edwards allowing four hits in the first game and Jerry Hogan yielding eight hits in the second. Len Johnston highlighted the second game with a home run, a triple, and a single.

An eleventh inning home run sparked the Broncos' entry into Big Ten baseball circles with Don Edward's losing a four hitter to Illinois, 3-0.

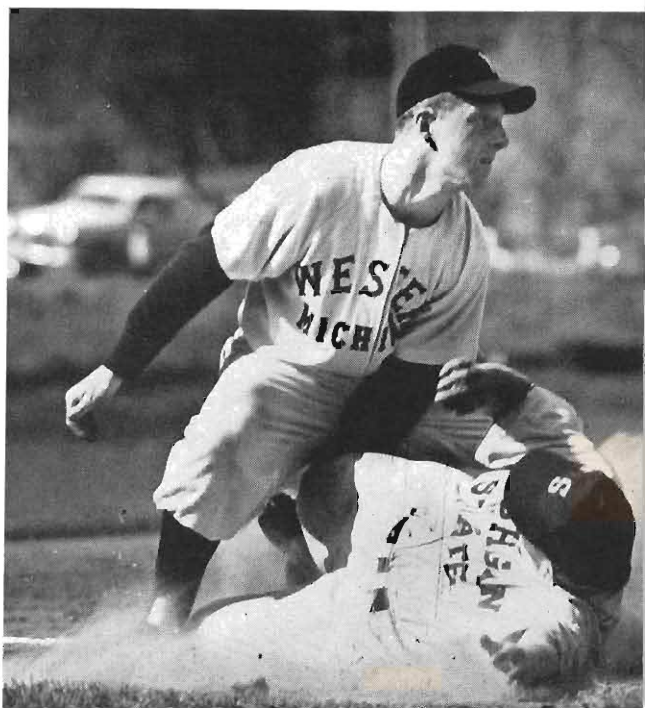

Still competing in Big Ten baseball competition, Western started an eight game winning streak by beating Michigan 5-4 on Green's four run homer in the tenth.

In returning home the Broncs initiated the home season with a 3-2 win over Ohio State and came from behind in the second game to register a 7-5 victory over the Buckeyes with Green and Johnston sharing five RBI's between them. Edwards hurled the first game with Bob Urda assisting him in the ninth, and Tom Cole registered his first victory in the second game.

Michigan State was next to feel the wrath of Western's hitting as they unleashed sixteen hits off three State pitchers. Fran Green collected four RBI's as he led the Broncos to their 12-5 decision with a home run, a triple, and two singles.

Western began their bid for the conference title by winning the next four games, two from Western Reserve and two from Ohio University. Three runs in the first inning and four runs in the seventh supported Hogan's 7-2 victory over Reserve. Tom Cole yielded three hits and struck out ten in Western's second win against the Redcats, 2-1. A pinch hit single by Stan Malec drove in the winning run.

A "rhubarb" develops after Dick Bruny's home run during the Michigan game.

Continuing their winning itinerary in Ohio, Don Edward's four hit pitching and the powerful hitting of Gottschalk, Baldwin, and Wilson shut out Ohio University 9-0. The second game of the series breathed victory on a barrage of singles by Baldwin, Green, Johnston, and Mikulas in the fourth and eighth innings.

State came back in the second encounter with the Broncos and snapped their eight game winning streak 12-2. State collected eighteen hits off three Western pitchers, while triples by Al Horn and Bill Hayes accounted for Western's runs.

Journeying to Oxford, Ohio, Western captured their third straight MAC title beating Miami in a two game series 12-3 and 5-3. In the first game, Johnston led off in the first inning with a home run while Dave Gottschalk spelled "finis" to the victory in the ninth with a four run homer. Western collected eleven hits backing Edwards in his fifth win in six starts.

Western took to the road on a five game series to again oppose Big Ten competition. The Bronco's first stop was at the University of Iowa where they acknowledged their appreciation with a 4-3 victory over the Hawkeyes. Edwards won his sixth game while Scotty Wilson added lustre to an already brilliant season by making a triple play. With men on first and second, short stop Wilson, snagged a line drive, touched second, and threw to first completing the play.

Against Wisconsin under the lights, Western lost the first of a two game series 5-4 in spite of outhitting the Badgers twelve to six. In the second game eleven Bronco hits produced twelve runs with Malec collecting three of them, and Green, Mikulas, and Wilson each accounting for two.

Western closed out the regular season by blanketing their old rival, Notre Dame, 11-4 and 9-5. Tom Cole was the winning pitcher and Western batted the circuit producing five runs in the fourth inning. The Broncos made fourteen hits off two Irish pitchers in the second game while using three pitchers themselves. Edwards took over in the fourth and finished the game out, allowing two hits. Jack Dobbs accounted for three runs on a triple.

In the NCAA district playoff, Western lost the first game of a double header against Ohio State 1-0. In the second game the Broncos were ahead 4-2 in the fifth inning when the game was called in favor of Western on account of rain, with Cole the winning pitcher. Ohio State won the third game 3-2, and for a fourth time Western was prevented from going any further.

The freshman baseball team concluded their 1951 season with a record of seven wins and two losses that featured strong hitting and better than average pitching, two qualities that a winning varsity can always use. Jim Stevenson from Detroit was elected honorary captain for the season.

1951 Frosh Baseball

The frosh team opened the season with a 3-1 victory over Grand Rapids Junior College behind the two hit pitching of Paul Schartman. Schartman assisted his victory by driving in Duane Emaar in the fifth, Emaar having reached third on a triple.

In the second game Juane Emaar, brother of Duane, had a no hitter going into the eighth as the frosh beat Percy Jones 9-3. Emaar struck out twelve batters and walked two. Jim Stevenson led in the hitting department with two hits.

Thirty-four runs were scored by the Colts in the next two games against Flint JC and Olivet. In the Flint game sixteen players were used as the frosh beat them 10-0. Stevenson, Hoehner, and Heaviland led the hitting and Jim Lewis tagged the only extra base hit.

The 24-4 victory over Olivet produced twenty-one hits and was called in the seventh inning for obvious reasons.

Juane Emaar allowed three hits and struck out ten men in the Colt's 7-2 win over Hope. Barikmo hit a home run and two singles in four times at bat, while Wolfe collected three singles.

In a return engagement with Hope the Colts received their first setback, in a game that went eleven innings. Paul Schartman started for the frosh and was relieved by Wayne Hastings.

Against Fort Custer the frosh had to face Ray Herbert who, previous to his induction into the army, had won four games for the Detroit Tigers. The Colts, however, made a good showing against Herbert in losing 5-2.

The frosh closed the season with a 12-4 win over Ionia Reformatory. Twelve hits produced four runs in the first inning and nine runs in the third. Twenty-one men were used in the game with Miller the winning pitcher.

Another baseball season opened for Western in 1952 with that perennially recurring problem of remaining a baseball power in the Midwest. In a position such as this coach Maher has his problem in replacing, from one year to another, the positions left vacant by those men who have graduated.

Early this spring Mr. Maher was selected by the Government, along with Wisconsin's Coach Arthur Mansfield, to conduct baseball clinics in Japan for the Far East Air Forces and the Japan Logistical Command.

This leave of absence on the part of Maher placed some uncertainty as to who was to fill some of the vacant spots. With pitcher Don Edwards gone, Tom Cole, with a 6-1 record last season, was the natural one to start on the mound for the Broncos. And Bob Urda and Charlie Atkocunis would most likely follow, but there still remained, with our schedule, a need for more pitchers.

Scotty Wilson's graduation left a gap at short with replacements likely to be found in Jack Dobbs or perhaps some freshman or sophomore. Stan Malec seemed to be the one to replace Fran Green in the outfield, while Al Horn made a strong bid for catcher to replace Dick Bruny.

Nevertheless, with such regulars as Len Johnston and Jack Baldwin in the outfield, Dave Gottschalk, Chuck Mikulas and Bill Hayes in the infield, it was bound to be an interesting season, especially behind the coaching of Charlie Maher.

Western's 1951 track team or components of it participated in ten meets. Of these ten, four were dual meets in which Western emerged the winner only once. Their sole dual win came against Central Michigan while losing to Bowling Green, Wayne, and Miami.

In a triangular running against Cincinnati and Butler, Western took a second behind Cincy. A third place was taken in the Mid-American Conference meet and as host to the 35th annual running of the State Intercollegiates the Broncos ran third. Russ Gabier and Al Renick were the only two hurriers to represent Western at the Drake Relays. Gabier ran a 4:24 mile to take second as Renick reached the finals in the high hurdles, but was unable to place. In the CCC, Renick was just barely beaten in the highs by Jack DeMedicus of Alabama Poly, who later placed third in the NCAA.

The Broncos opened the outdoor season with a 72-55 loss to Bowling Green of Ohio. The strength of certain individuals was revealed when three Broncos became double winners. Al Renick hurdled all obstacles in taking the high and low hurdles while Gabier won both the half mile and the mile. Joe Bryant was the other double winner as he won the shot put and discus throw. Another first was scored in the broad jump by Bill Clinger.

1951 Track

Five records were broken and another tied as Western outran Central Michigan on their home track $67\frac{2}{3}$ to $63\frac{1}{3}$. Gabier set a new record in the mile with a winning time of 4:21.2, while Renick's time of 15.2 over the highs also established a new meet record. In the field events Ron Cole tied the pole vault record at 12 feet, and Al Howard cleared any old records in the high jump with a jump of 5 feet 10 inches. Central was not left out entirely, however, for they set a new 3:31.7 record in the mile relay.

Gabier's record-breaking performances in the half mile 1:59.6 and the mile 4:25 proved to be not enough with Cincinnati $58\frac{1}{4}$ deciding their victory over Western $53\frac{3}{4}$ and Butler 39 in the final event. Al Renick again was a double winner in the highs and the lows, and Ron Cole's consistent vaults of 12 feet, set a new meet record. Al Howard tied for first in the high jump.

Michigan Normal unofficially won (no scoring) the Bowling Green Relays with Bowling Green second in domination. The Broncos placed third in the two mile relay, third in the medley and Cole took a second in the pole vault.

A well balanced Wayne team beat Western for the second time during the 1951 season in spite of Western's eight out of fourteen firsts and four new meet records. Renick's two firsts in the hurdles, with a 15.2 record in the highs, set the pace for the Broncos. Mollen's performance in the two mile and Gabier's in the mile accounted for the two other meet records, and a third was singled out by Cole in the pole vault. Clinger won the broad jump, and Bryant, the discus.

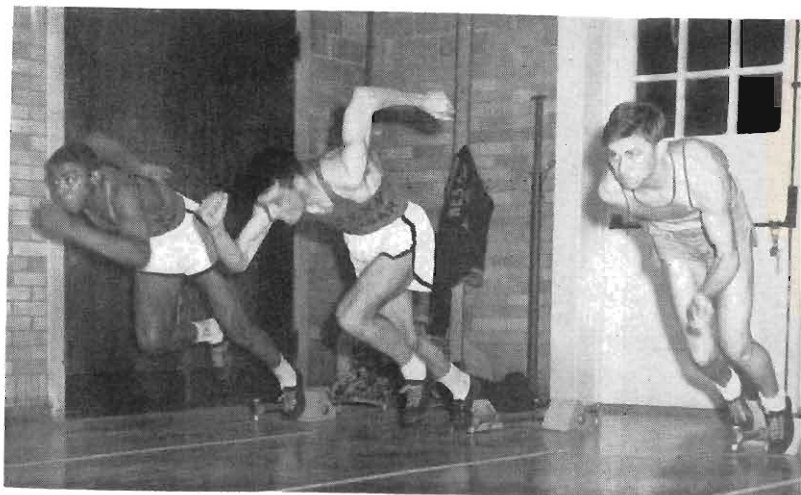

Miami previewed their strength to conference foes in beating Western $84\frac{2}{3}$ - $37\frac{1}{3}$. This fast Ohio squad swept the 100, 220, 440, and won the mile relay, in addition to five other first places. Al Renick was still a double winner and Russ Gabier broke his, the school's, and the meet's two mile record with a time of nine minutes and forty seconds. Joe Bryant repeated in the discus and Ron Cole in the pole vault.

Western took third in the Mid-American meet run off at Ohio University, and the winner, Miami, broke three records and tied a fourth. Renick tied the record in the 120 yard hurdles with a time of 14.6 and in addition won the lows. Russ Gabier finished second behind Miami's Powell who turned in a 4.19 mile.

Michigan Normal won the State Intercollegiates with an impressive 119 points. Western followed in third place with 44, but the most impressive individual performances were turned in by Michigan State running unattached. Al Renick won the high hurdles and took second in the lows and Russ Gabier captured a second in the mile.

1952 Indoor Track

Renick and Spencer leaving the blocks in the Albion meet.

Western's 1952 track season was an ambitious one right from start to finish. The indoor season found Western participating in ten track meets in which half were dual contests and the other half relays and large open meets. Three out of the five dual meets were won by Western and creditable performances were turned in during the open meets.

A triangular running between the University of Michigan, Michigan Normal, and Western opened the indoor season with Michigan's team completely dominating the meet with their 90 some points. Ron Cole won a tie in the pole vault, while Gabier tied for second place in the mile. Al Renick took a second in the high and low hurdles.

Some of the more powerful trackmen in the Midwest appeared in the State AAU and Michigan State Relays. Western's best effort in the AAU was a third in the high hurdles by Renick and fifth place in the broad jump by Bill Clinger.

A new Western record was set by the Bronco mile relay team as they took third at the State Relays. Renick took a fourth in the 75 yards high hurdles.

Chicago University displayed a little more than scholarly finesse as they beat Western in a dual meet $61\frac{1}{3}$ - $42\frac{2}{3}$. Chicago won eight firsts to the Broncos' four and had a double winner in Jim Laskey. Western's four firsts had Joe Bryant breaking the meet record in the shot put, (44 feet 10 inches), Ron Cole winning the pole vault, and the mile relay team taking a first place.

"It's a long way down, isn't it, Cole?"

The Chicago loss had little after effect as Western took seven first places in out-running Central Michigan 59-45 in Central's new field house. In doing so, several field house records were broken by virtue of wins in the high and low hurdles, and Ron Cole's 13 foot vault in the pole vault. Other firsts were taken by Tom Coyne in the two mile, Joe Bryant in the shot, Frank Nugent 440, and the Bronco relay team also won again.

The following Tuesday Albion wasn't allowed any mercy with Western grabbing eleven firsts to beat the Britons 78-21. Victory was highlighted by the shattering of three records and the tying of a fourth by Al Renick in the high hurdles. Renick also won the lows.

A new time of 3:60:6 in the twelve lap relay was the high point of the evening. Accompanying this record were two freshmen records, Tom Coyne in the two mile and Val Eichenlaub in the half.

The CCC's proved to be tough competition with Western placing sixth in a field of eleven teams. Renick led Western harriers with a second in the high hurdles and a fourth in the lows. Bill Clinger leaped to second in the broad jump.

A Marquette team that had far too many good sophomores outran Western 74 $\frac{1}{3}$ - 20 $\frac{3}{4}$. Al Renick remained his consistent self in winning the high and low hurdles for Western's only first places. Ron Cole placed second in the pole vault.

Western, determined as ever, bounced back by defeating Wayne for the first time in five years. Once again the relay team set a new record, this time for eight laps while still winning the twelve lap relay. Renick and his teammates, Spencer and Skiba, swept the high hurdles and Renick also won the lows. Jerry Leland won the mile and Val Eichenlaub's second place in the 880 was the best freshman time ever recorded, 2:03:4, in Western's gym.

Western closed out the indoor season with some outstanding individual performances in the Chippewa Relays which found Miami of Ohio taking first place honors.

Al Renick set a new field house record of 8.2 in the high hurdles and tied his own 7.6 record in the lows. Ron Cole broke his own record of 13 feet in the pole vault by a half an inch.

1952 Indoor Track

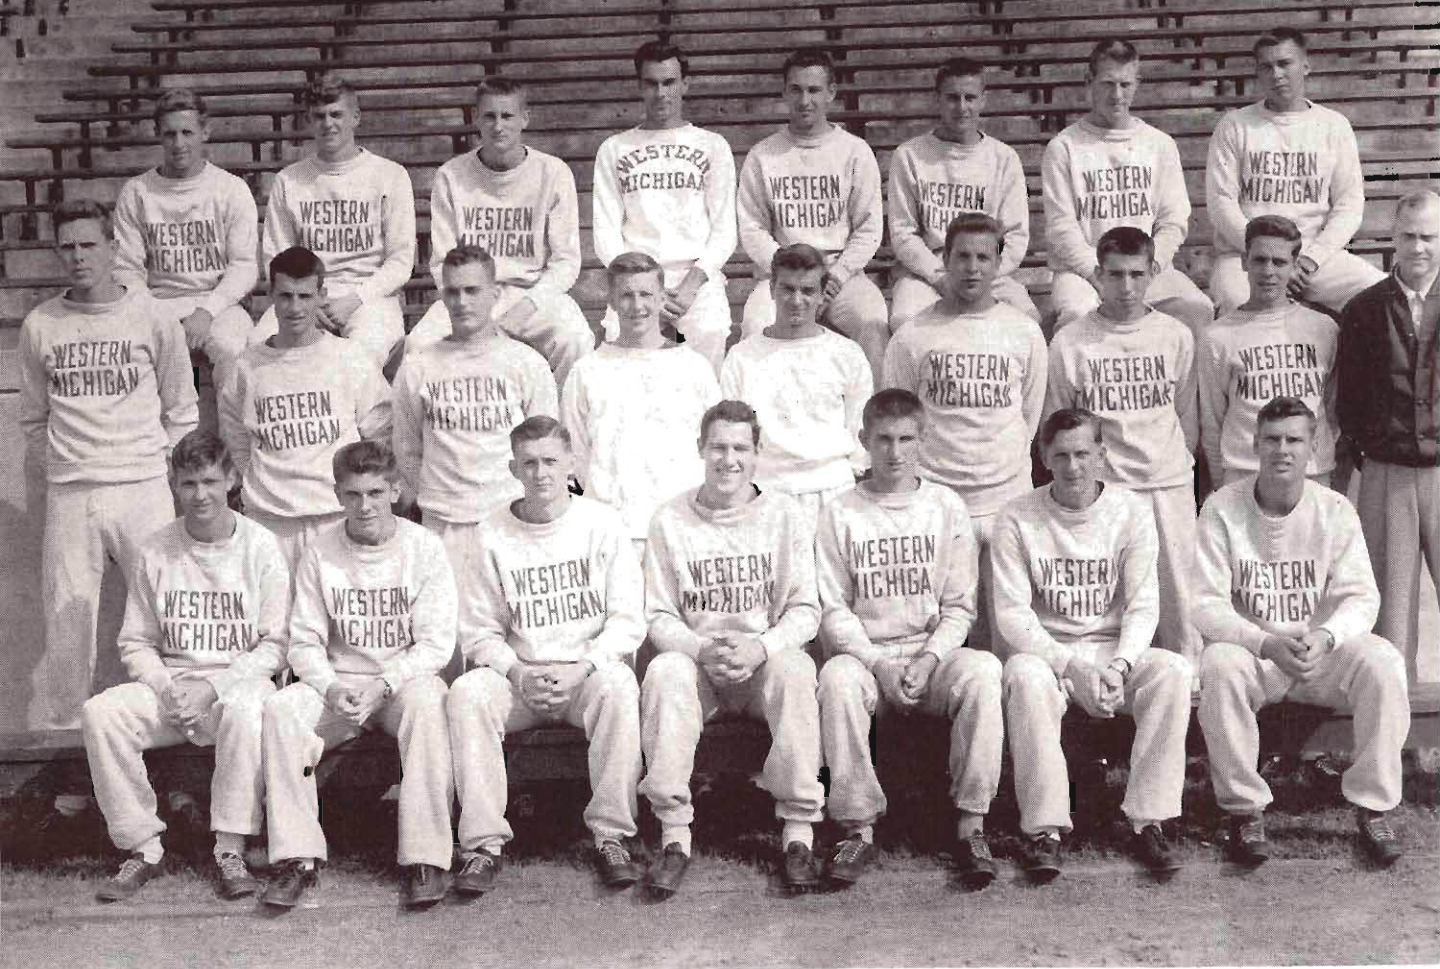

Western's outdoor schedule was even more ambitious than the indoor schedule and was climaxed by the NCAA and NAAU, (Olympic Trials). Whether or not Coach Maus would enter any of his men in the NCAA or the NAAU naturally depended on their season's performance, notably that of Al Renick, hurdler.

Miami appeared to be the team to beat for the Mid-American Conference title, for they showed plenty of power indoors at Central Michigan's Chippewa Relays.

Abandoning the State Intercollegiates for the CCC, promised stiffer competition, and it looked as if Notre Dame and Drake would be battling for first place honors.

OUTDOOR TRACK SCHEDULE

- April 23 — Bowling Green at Kalamazoo.
- April 26 — Drake Relays at Des Moines, Iowa.
- April 29 — Wayne at Detroit.
- May 3 — Butler and Cincinnati at Kalamazoo.
- May 10 — Miami at Oxford, Ohio.
- May 16 — Marquette at Kalamazoo.
- May 19 — Central Michigan.
- May 24 — Mid-American Conference at Kent, Ohio.
- May 30 — Central Collegiate Conference (Closed) at Ypsilanti.
- June 7 — Central Collegiate Conference (Open) at Milwaukee, Wisc.
- June 13, 14 — NCAA at Los Angeles, California.
- June 20, 21 — NAAU at Long Beach, California.

Western's freshman team was undoubtedly one of the most powerful squads that Coach Maus has handled in several years. In four meets, only once did they fail to score 70 points.

In the first meet against Bowling Green the frosh won 67-58, taking seven first places, sweeping the 100, 220, mile, and taking first and second in the high jump and pole vault.

The combination of Harding, Zientek, Jones, and Howard swept the 100 and 220, while Leland, Bailey, and Linders won the mile. Other firsts and seconds, in that order, were taken by Hope and Francisco, high jump; Embury and Lamb, pole vault; Spencer, high hurdles; and Metzcus, shot put.

1951 Freshman Track

Wayne was the next team to fall under the might of the Frosh, who won eight out of fourteen firsts, took nine seconds, and made grand slams in the 880 and pole vault.

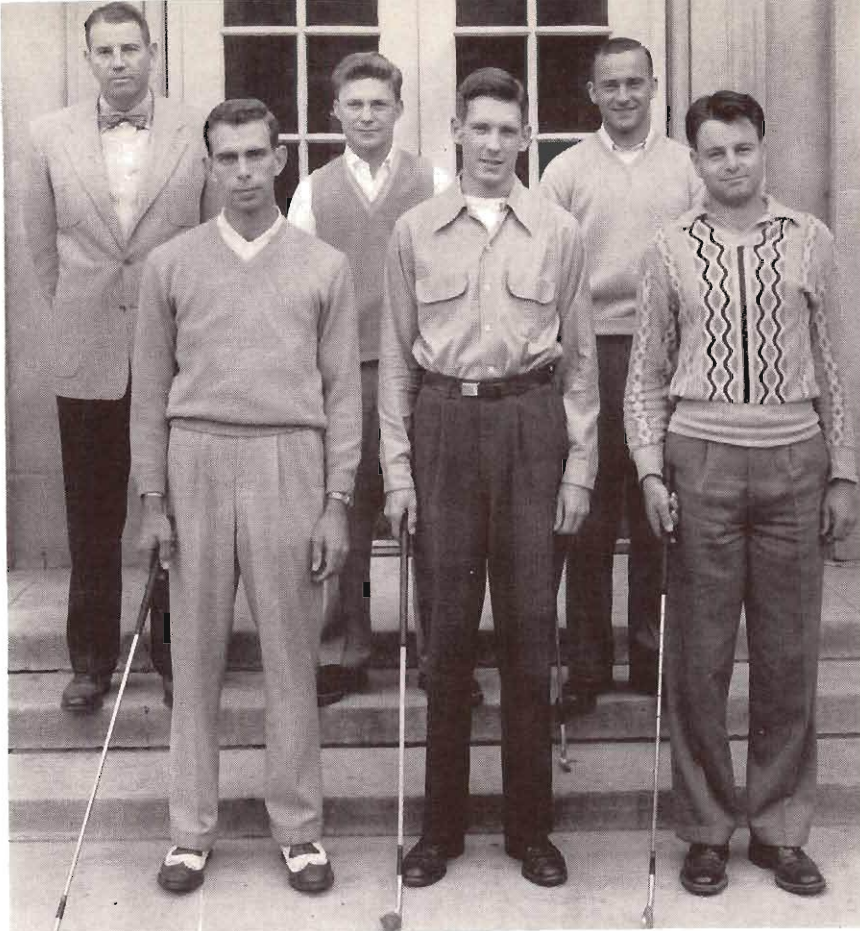

The frosh next beat Grand Rapids JC, 76-45 by taking eight firsts, ten seconds, eight thirds; won the relay, and swept the 440 and half mile. Gordon Hope was a double winner in the broad jump and the high jump. Howard won the 440, and Hansen won the 880.

The season was climaxed in the state Junior AAU with the frosh amassing 134 points to their nearest opponent, Wayne Frosh's 32 points. Jerry Embury won the pole vault and the Colts won the relay, but it was the depth of the squad that spelled victory and climaxed a brilliant season.

Western's team as a junior varsity squad didn't compete indoors, for most of the men were absorbed by the varsity. Most of the indoor season was confined to getting in shape and developing good techniques in preparation for the outdoor season.

Two outdoor meets were scheduled for the junior varsity. One was May 16 with Jackson Junior College, and the second meet was held May 20 against Grand Rapids Junior College.

Western's golf team had a rather unsuccessful season in winning only two matches out of eleven. Their individual performances were often overshadowed by the performances of their opponents. In the conference match held in Athens, Ohio, host Ohio University carded out with 593 strokes for first place while Western tied with Toledo for last place.

Foregoing a southern trip, the Bronco golfers nevertheless opened up the season early, with a 10½-1½ loss to Detroit, and an 8-4 loss to Toledo. Back in Detroit, a match with Wayne resulted in an 11-7 win for the Tartars.

Bad weather and high winds accompanied the Broncos' 35-4 loss to State, and the same conditions prevailed in the Marquette match. Don Sprague's low of 70 wasn't enough to combat the Hilltoppers' 16-11 victory.

State came back the second time just as strong as they did in the first match as six golfers shot in the 70's assuring them a 37-2 victory. Against Valparaiso Western's effort again went unjustified losing to Valpo 11 ½-6 ½ with Don Sprague shooting a one under par 72. Illinois Tech. handed Western their eighth straight loss 10-8.

Western's next two defeats resulted in identical scores, losing to Detroit and Valparaiso, both for the second time, 17 ½-½. But the inevitable finally happened as Western upset defending conference champions, Miami, 14 ½-3 ½, and the Broncos didn't stop there but made it two in a row, 10 ½-7 ½ over Wayne. The golfers closed the regular season with a 9 ½-8 ½ loss to Loyola.

The freshmen, besides playing the varsity several matches, had one match with Grand Rapids Junior College, losing it 16-11. Members of the squad were Joe VanNess, Jack Hill, and Phil Johnson.

Prospects for 1952 centered around Jack Billard from last year's varsity squad, and most of the men from last year's frosh squad. Spike Carlson, a freshman, who was a high school state titlist also showed promise.

The 1951 tennis team under the coaching of Ray Sorenson produced a record of five wins and five losses while sharing a CCC tournament with Notre Dame and placing second in the Mid-American Conference.

The season got under way with a four-game southern trip in which the Broncos won one, lost two, and were rained out in another. Tennessee opened Western's season by handing them a 7-2 setback. A few days later and after the rain, Western dealt Southwestern a 7-1 defeat. In meeting Vanderbilt the Broncos met one of their great teams and suffered defeat by them, 7-2.

Returning home Western met Michigan who continued their record of 25 dual wins by an 8-1 win over the Broncos. Western winning in intervals, came back with a 5-4 victory over Detroit. The next match, at South Bend, against Notre Dame, was carried on into 4½ hours of extra set tennis with Western emerging winner, 5-4, the first time in eleven years.

At home again, on the Davis Courts, Western was host to Cincinnati and Mr. Tony Trabert of Davis Cup and NCAA fame. Charlie Walker had the pleasure of playing Trabert and turned in a creditable performance. Cincy won the match 6-3. Going into doubles, Western had Purdue 4-2, but Purdue rallied to sweep the doubles giving them a 5-4 win.

1951 Tennis

In a return engagement with the University of Detroit the Broncos beat the Titans for a second time 8-1. While they were in Detroit, Western closed out their dual schedule with an 8-1 win over Wayne, giving Coach Sorensen a five and five season.

The Conference tournament ended in an unusual way. Cincinnati needed one point for the team title but was denied this point when rain washed out the tournament. Conference officials, deciding not to have a rematch, had Cincy play out their doubles match with Miami. Cincy won but in justification to those other schools whose players, notably Western, including Western's Brandt, Dieters, and Kistler in the singles, and Brandt and Kistler in the doubles had reached the finals, there was a duplicate award of medals. Consequently, these Bronco players received duplicate first place medals.

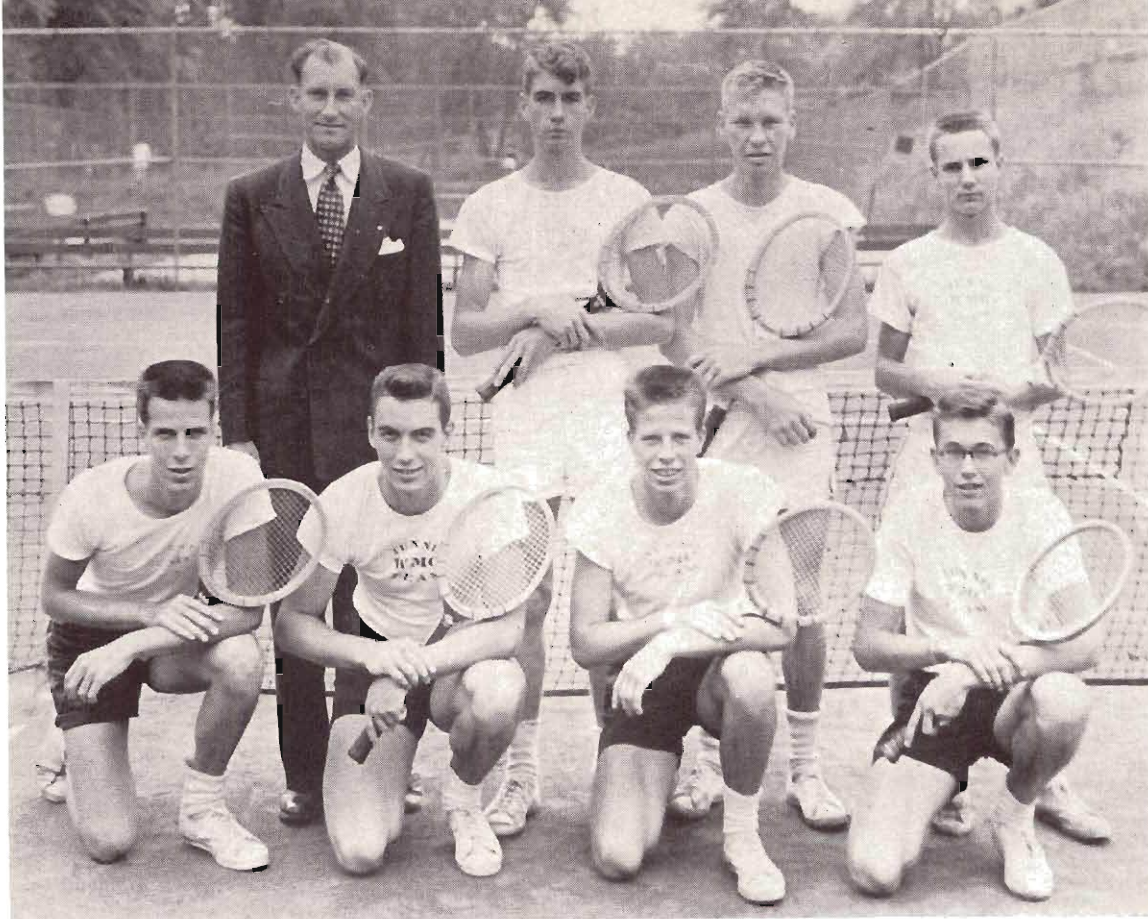

Closing out the season, Western tied with Notre Dame in the Central Collegiate tournament. Norm Dieters went all the way in the third flight of singles, while Dave Kistler reached the finals of the fourth flight without a loss. Kistler teamed with Yale Brandt to take the second flight doubles crown.

Coach Sorensen could foresee some optimism for the 1952 season with four returning lettermen: Captain Dave Kistler, Yale Brandt, Bob Nuding, and Dick Hendershott, from last year's squad that placed second in the Mid-American Conference and tied for first place with Notre Dame in the Central-Collegiates.

Along with the four lettermen, there were three sophomores and two freshmen that would probably fill out the itinerary for the southern trip and for the rest of the season. Sophomores were Ed Foster, Bill Clink, and Chuck Church, while the freshmen were George Carpenter and Jack Vredevelt.

INTRAMURAL DIRECTOR
CLAYTON MAUS

To Mr. Clayton Maus goes the task of conducting Western's intramural program that features league competition in football, basketball, and softball, and tournaments in track, tennis, golf, and table tennis.

In the fall, football was highlighted with a championship game between the winners of the Vandercook Hall league and the Independent-Fraternity league. The championship game was won by the Arabs of the Independent league beating Allen Hall of the Vandercook Hall league 6-0 on a touchdown pass from Jerry Hogan to Don Guilders. Members of the Arab team were Connie Dussias, Matt Heinch, Jerry Hogan, Ed Janz, Arnie Palanca, Lee Steinhardt, and Bob Walterhouse.

Intramurals

An aggregation of nearly fifty teams made up the seven different basketball leagues. The top teams in each league combined in an elimination tournament that Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity won. The championship game was won on a forfeit because the opposing team of the W-Club was unable to play due to many of the members being out for major spring sports.

The spring confined itself to softball and Inter-Fraternity track meets as well as meets between dorms and men off campus. Plans were also made for another table tennis tournament. Last year Al Peppel beat Ed Foster in a tournament that boasted of three former champions.

We sincerely hope that intramural athletics continue to function as well in the future as they have in the past under the direction of Mr. Clayton Maus. A well planned intramural program certainly has a place in the extra-curricular activities of a college.

Les Spaulding, Norb Vandersteen, Bill Hackett, Don Tapert, Dick Fleming, Joe Van Ness, Dick Shore, Al Stirling.

Women's Physical Education

Miss Stephanie Prychitko, Miss Eleanor Douglass, Miss Lois Schember, Miss Doris Hussey, Miss Morgorel Large, Mrs. Helen Brown, Miss Crystal Worner.

To the staff of the Women's Physical Education Department goes the job of maintaining the goals to be achieved, according to the specific needs of each Western woman. This is carried out through the general program and through the curriculum open to those girls who plan on making physical education their career.

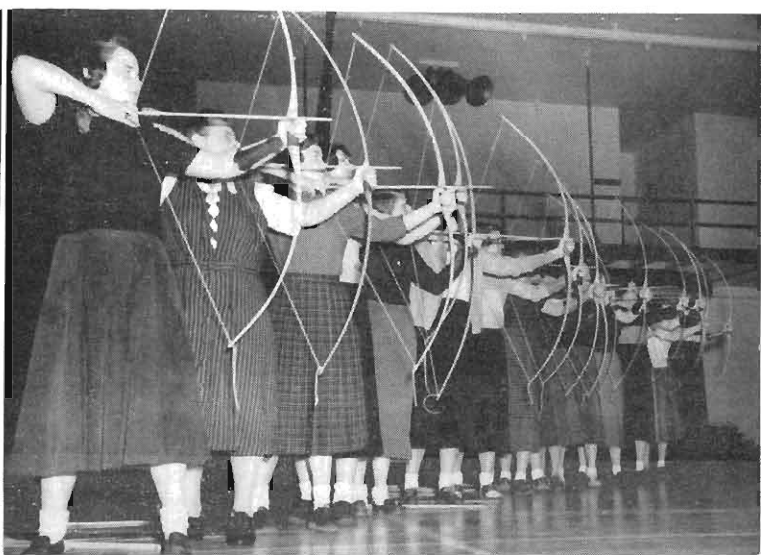

A course in individual gymnastics which is designed to correct postural defects, and which features a series of special exercises for that purpose, is one of the features of the department.

In addition to training physical education instructors and carrying out the general program, the department offers several Red Cross lifesaving and first aid courses. After passing a test given by a representative of that organization, students receive a standard or instructor's certificate.

Students interested in physio-therapy often join in the physical education program to obtain a major in that field, which may be used as a basis of further study.

Under the direction of Miss Margaret Large, faculty sponsor, and a student manager, an active intramural program is carried on. The activities are planned according to seasons and to specific group interests. Included in the program are badminton, volleyball, bowling, basketball and softball. Rapidly gaining in popularity are the department-sponsored open houses which provide relaxation and entertainment through sports activities.

Basketball is a popular intramural, as well as class sport.

FALL SPORTS: Courses available to women students when they return to school in the fall include: archery, badminton, swimming, volleyball, social and square dancing, folk and modern dancing, hockey, soccer, and fencing.

WINTER SPORTS: In the winter the department emphasizes team sports, especially basketball. Various types of dancing and individual sports are also enjoyed.

SPRING SPORTS: Softball, tennis, golf, archery, and many other games are carried on as soon as spring rolls around each year.

ROTC

The Reserve Officers' Training Corps at Western Michigan College was formed in the fall of 1950 for the purpose of training future officers for the Quartermaster Corps, United States Army. With an increase in enrollment of some 200 cadets, the staff of the detachment was enlarged making a total of five officers and five enlisted men. In the spring seven graduates were offered commissions in the Regular Army, and fifty-seven were offered reserve commissions in the Quartermaster Corps.

Representing the Unit in social life were: Saber and Key Society, formed of selected cadets from the advanced class; Phi Chi Eta, national Quartermaster fraternity; and Epsilon Delta Gamma, the crack drill team composed of cadets from the basic class.

Lace and satin, pinks and pips — the second Annual Military Ball! Music for the occasion was provided by Ray Gorrell's orchestra from Detroit. The setting was the men's gymnasium, completely renovated as a Medieval Castle with drawbridge and all! The cadet corps chose a regimental sponsor to act as honorary Lt. Colonel over the entire corps along with a staff of four honorary Majors.

Seated: Mrs. Lynn Gould, Mrs. Geraldine Miller.

As the Regimental Commander for the year, Cadet Colonel David Gould placed the honorary capes on the sponsors. Each Major and her escort then walked down the white carpet through the Arch of Sabers formed by the honor guard, Epsilon Delta Gamma. The highlight of the evening was the all white cape and the final command: "Present Sabers!" The regimental sponsor was escorted through the arch of sabers by Colonel Curtis Varner as the band played the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance."

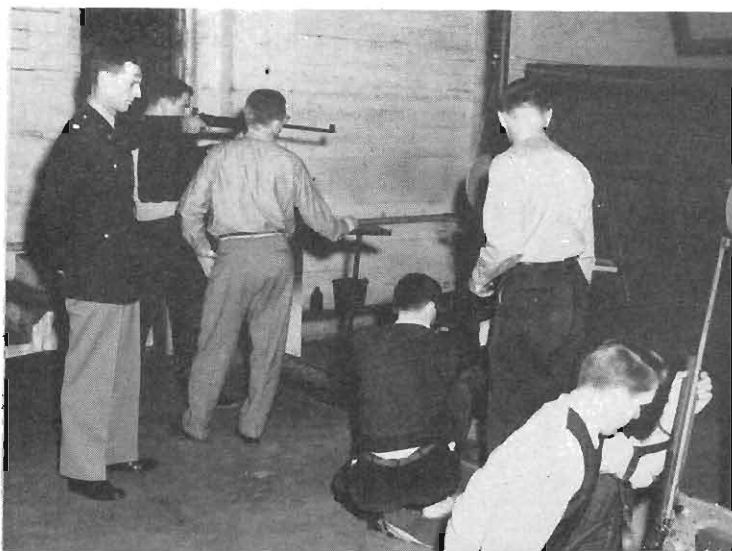

In celebration of the sesquicentennial of the founding of West Point, two cadets were sent as representatives of the Unit and were integrated into the program at the academy for four days. Western Michigan College was one of fifty-five other colleges in the United States to be awarded this honor.

Climaxing a year of hard work and preparation, was the annual Inspection and Review held during the second week of May in conjunction with Armed Forces Day. Commander of Troops for the annual Review was Cadet Colonel Gould.

During the Review, the following awards were presented to outstanding cadets for achievement: The Quartermaster Association Key, the Quartermaster Association Medal, the ROA Medal, and the Chicago Tribune's Gold and Silver Medals.

As the ROTC at Western completes its second year, sending many of its seniors on to active duty, it is firmly established as an integral part of the life on Western's campus.

Social highlight of 1951, as in 1952, was the Military Ball.

Standing: Dick Templeton, Jim Yates, Gerold Petersen.

Phi Chi Eta, national fraternity for members of the Quartermaster Corps, has as its aim to develop a greater degree of professional pride, as well as a lasting feeling of brotherhood, among its members.

The Zeta chapter's 1951-52 list of activities included a fall outing, a Christmas dinner, the spring dance, and the annual banquet.

Saber and Key

Concluding its second year of activities as an organization on Western's Campus, is the Saber and Key Society, the honor society of the ROTC, composed of selected men from the advanced courses, who have high scholastic achievement and outstanding leadership ability.

Sponsoring the first dance of the year during "Freshman Days" was the responsibility of the organization. This was a highly successful social event and will be an annual affair.

During the year, two groups were pledged and initiated at the formal banquets held for that purpose.

At Homecoming time, the Saber and Key Society enjoyed one of its most memorable experiences of the year preparing the float for which the organization received a second prize.

The highlight of the social calendar was the banquet before the Military Ball. This was sponsored by the Society for all advanced cadets and their guests, and was held at the Burdick Hotel.

As a service project, the group promoted a blood drive in conjunction with the Pre-Med Club and other organizations.

As the Saber and Key Society of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps at Western Michigan College terminates its second year of activity, it holds the hope of affiliation with the national group, Scabbard and Blade.

Leading the group this year were: Richard Hughey, president; David Gould, vice-president; John Rodgers, treasurer; David Wiant, recording secretary; and Jerry Powers, corresponding secretary. Sponsors were: Col. Curtis Varner, Lt. Col. David Brown, Lt. Col. Emil Mosheim, Major Ehrlich Chipley, and Capt. Ray Estlinbaum.

Howard Boshoven, Sam Goodman, David Gould, Bill Hayes, Richard Hughey, Tom Williams, Jerry Powers, Dave Wiant.

First Step to Success

Most college students have little time or reason to think about saving money. The big problem is to make some. Yet those who get ahead faster will open a savings account with their first pay check, and add to it every pay day. Keep it in mind, wherever you locate. If you stay here, Kalamazoo's oldest and largest bank would like to serve you.

Proud as a Peacock

You'll pardon us, we hope, for our pride in this year's Brown and Gold. It is printed on Peacock Folding Enamel. You can easily see why the editors preferred this paper. The superb finish takes printing to perfection.

B. & P. Peacock Folding Enamel is one of the nationally favored papers made by the Allied Paper Mills of Kalamazoo for Bermingham & Prosser Company. If you ever have a printing problem that demands a paper with rich appearance and fine printing and folding qualities, remember Peacock Folding Enamel.

To the various campus organizations which purchased space in the book, to the Athletic Departments, the ROTC, the advertisers, and the companies which held production contracts for the year, goes a share of the credit for the success of the 1952 Brown and Gold.

The S. K. Smith Company of Chicago again supplied the covers. Engravings were done by the Hughes Engraving Company, and printing and binding were handled by the Northwestern Printing Company, both of Grand Rapids.
