It's back to school for some 8500 Western students. Coming from all corners of the state, many other states, and some foreign countries, students are immediately caught up in the college atmosphere and campus life. The first day finds all students unloading cars, cleaning and arranging rooms, meeting old and new friends, and gathering at the University Student Center to make and renew other friendships. Yes! School has truly started for another year.

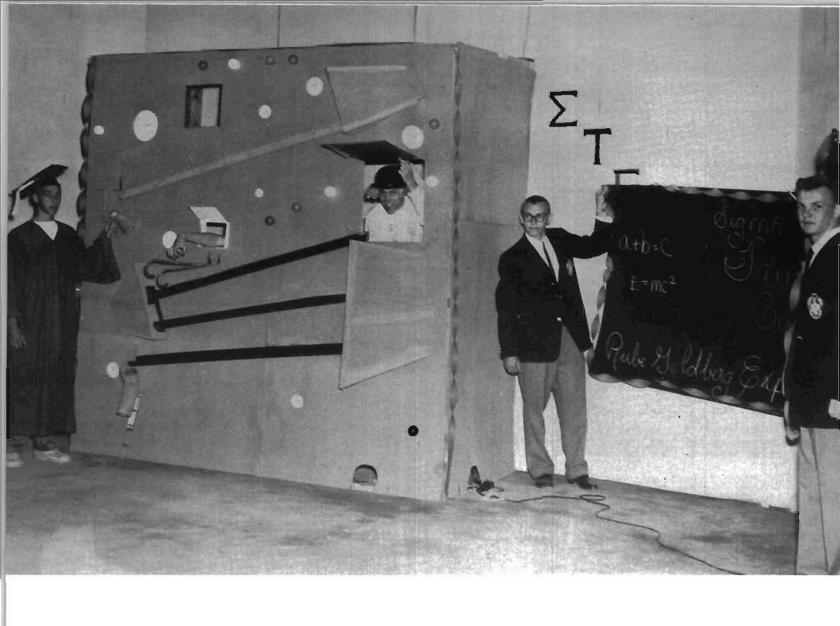

The first week seems to be half the battle of the semester. We struggle through registration, bookstore lines, check book lists, and purchase supplies. Our quest for knowledge then leads us in search of the right building and classroom. Classes begin, and we find ourselves caught up in a whirl of homework to last throughout the semester.

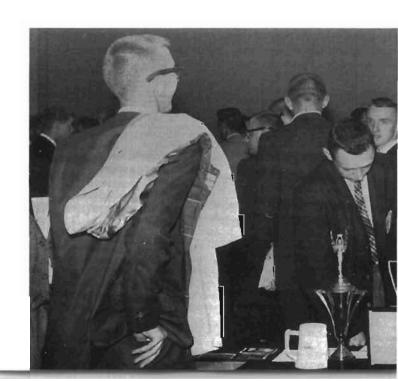

Activities Are Discovered During

The first week draws to a close and activities again prevail. The Freshman Carnival, popular among all classes, brings the spirit of competition for the winning carnival booth.

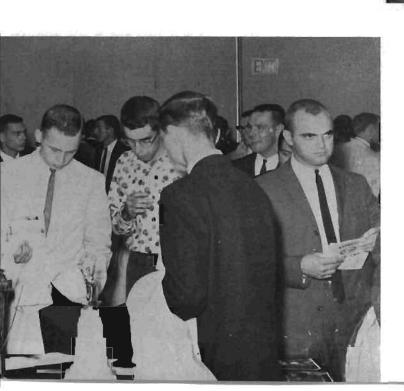

Dance Mixers and Sorority-Fraternity rushing give us another outlet for activities and friends. The IFC Mass Rush and the Panhellenic Rush are held during the second week of school to familiarize students with the various fraternities and sororities on campus.

PANHELLENIC RUSHING brings forth sorority girls.

the First Week

WE MEET NEW friends at the many dance mixers.

A FAMILIAR PLACE of worship for many students is Kanley Chapel.

We Acquire

Classes scarcely begin before we form many habits that remain with us during the year. Signing out and late studies become daily occurrences with many students. But weekends bring other events. There are the football games on Saturday and the quiet relaxation of Sunday worship.

GIRLS SOON LEARN of the signing out regulations.

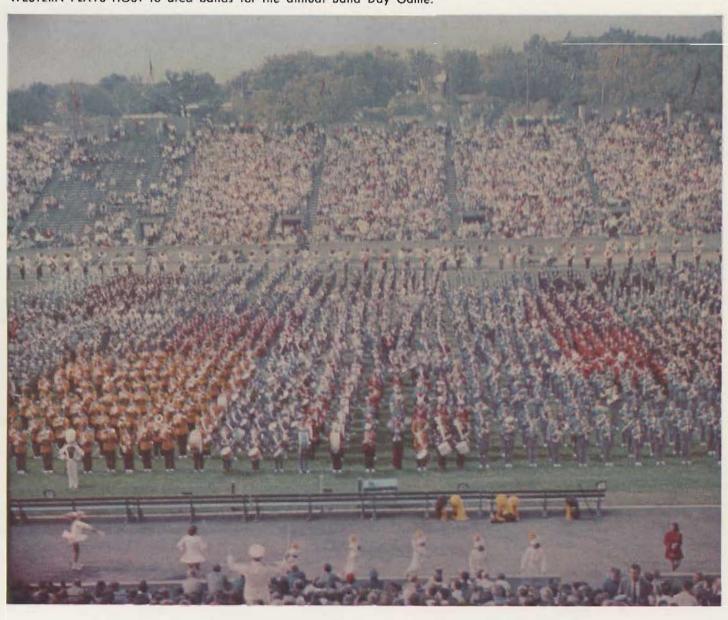

BURNING THE MIDNIGHT oil.

Many Routine Habits

WESTERN PLAYS HOST to area bands for the annual Band Day Game.

During the first month of school the students become acquainted with the many services that the university provides. Students also find ways that they may be of service to the university and to each other. We learn of the RHA blood drive, the many assemblies and the transportation available.

Faculty members also participate in group activities. As the school year gets underway they hold many gatherings and parties.

A STUDENT BLOOD drive is sponsored by the RHA.

FACULTY MEMBERS GATHER for a square dancing party.

THE SCHOOL OF Liberal Arts sponsored the opera "La Boheme."

Familiar Campus Services

SHALL WE RIDE the bus or hitch?

Homecoming, with all its gay festivities, is a time for the entire campus to participate. The fun begins with hoe-down day and the jazz concert on Friday. A huge bonfire adds to the Friday night activities. Many students work into the night putting the final touches on the many house displays and floats that make their appearance on Saturday. The parade through town and the game add to the excitement, all of which is climaxed with two top name bands playing for the Homecoming Dances.

THE HILLTOPPERS PROVIDED entertainment at the jazz concert.

A HUGE CROWD saw Western win the Homecoming game.

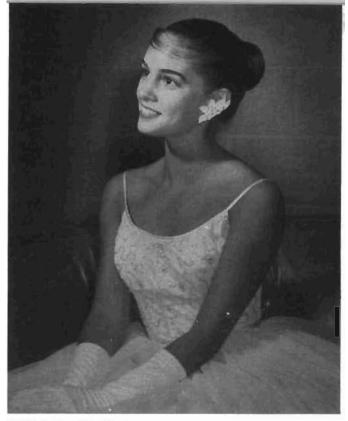

WE DANCED FOR many hours.

THE QUEEN'S FLOAT.

Homecoming is never complete without a queen and court. Weeks ahead, various campus organizations each select a girl to enter the competition. The final week the excitement mounts as the selection is narrowed to ten, then five, and finally the queen is selected. Davis Hall had the honor of selecting Queen Gayle as their candidate.

Assemblies and Plays

Contributing to the education of students are the well planned university assemblies and plays. The first play of the season was a presentation of George Bernard Shaw's "Arms and the Man." Shortly after this the School of Education sponsored a talk by the noted educator Dr. Henry Steele Commanger.

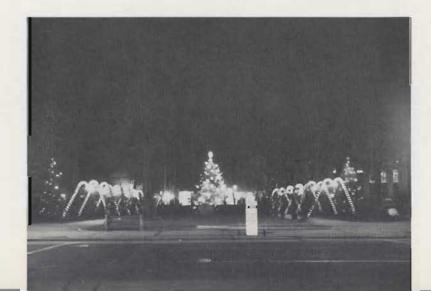

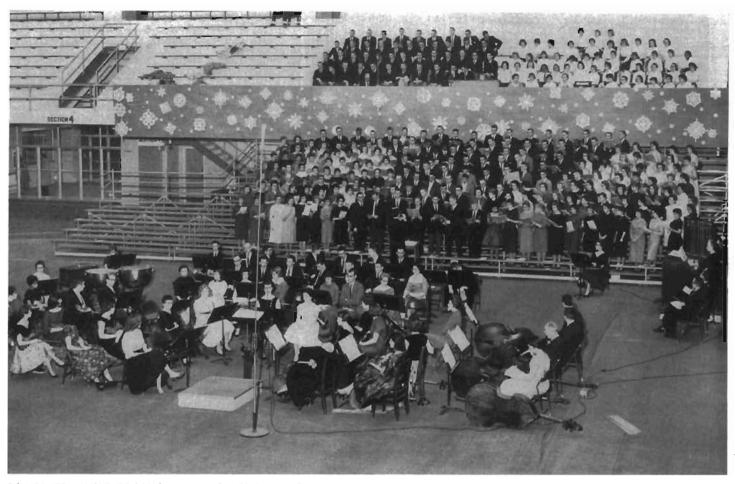

A MUSICAL PRODUCTION of "The Most Happy Fellow."

Tis the Season

It's the Christmas season, and we go shopping. But, any shopping trip in Kalamazoo is never complete without walking along the Mall or through Bronson Park, both gayly decorated. The snow may be deep and the weather cold, but we hardly notice the winter as we stare at the wonders of Kalamazoo.

COMBINED MUSIC GROUPS present the Christmas Concert.

As the Christmas vacation draws near the anticipation mounts. We look for rides to distant cities, and begin to pack. But there is still time for the activities prior to vacation. The various music groups join together and present the annual Christmas Concert. Attendance at this and the final game before vacation help to create the Christmas spirit.

Returning from the Christmas vacation our education is again enriched by the assembly programs of the University. January brought the return of the Canadian Players to Western. Central High School Auditorium was filled for their excellent performance of "The Cherry Orchard."

INTRODUCTION TO THE Greek World.

VOCAL ENTERTAINMENT WAS provided by Judy Swanlund at Carnicus.

Finals Draw Near

A BIT OF magic is provided the Carnicus audience by Dave Hauer.

Nearing finals we pause to enjoy the entertainment of Carnicus. A variety of entertainment is provided and all proceeds going to charity. The semester is not complete however, without the traditional Panhellenic Ball. This is the introduction of sorority pledges into the world of the Greeks.

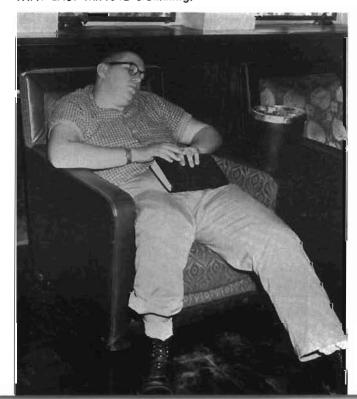

Activities cease, and studies become the only thoughts to enter our minds. Finals draw near, and we wonder, "Why didn't I start to study sooner." Seeking quiet seclusion, many students are found to be in Waldo Library.

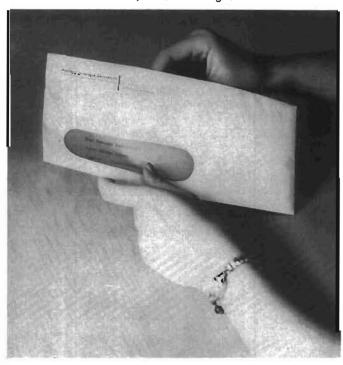

THE FUTURE IS here for January graduates.

Another Semester Ended

THAT LAST MINUTE cromming.

THEY FINALLY ARRIVE, after waiting a week.

A new semester begins, and we are again caught up in the various elements of campus life. We register, buy books, attend classes and await the weekend for the famed Men's Union Snow Carnival. Although the weatherman did not allow for the traditional snow sculptures, all other events were held as usual. The fun carnival brought a first place trophy to Delta Chi. An added feature this year was the beatnik gathering in the Student Center, complete with Phyllis Queen reading poetry.

A New Semester

ENTERTAINING WMU AUDIENCE is the entire cost of "The Lady in the Moon."

GLOW, BEAM, AND Shine, the three Moon brothers.

Western's theatre audience was entertained to new heights this year by the combined talents of Brown and Gold Fantasies author, Jerry Smith and director Daniel Turonek. Colorful costuming, plus unusual scenery and lighting, created the desired effects for the entertaining plot of "The Lady in the Moon."

Brown and Gold

AUTHOR JERRY SMITH tooks over script with director Daniel Turonek who points to the stage.

Indeed the all student production centering around the theme of an earth man falling in love with the daughter of the Moon Lady was a new twist in show business at Western. Excitement was added when a white rat, brought to the moon by the earth men, escapes. The danger of a green cheese vault robbery and the loss of valuable information into the hands of questionable Moon Men becomes paramount. But a fantasies ending is in store with happiness winning out over all forces of evil.

"The Lady in the Moon" was well received by the audience at all five performances and surely gives future Fantasies authors a new mark to aim for.

NOTED AUTHOR, MR. Vance Packard.

University Speakers

The second semester was filled with enlightenment upon many subjects. Guest speakers, from many areas, made a dynamic impact upon the campus. During February the School of Business sponsored another fine assembly program featuring the noted author, Mr. Vance Packard. His latest book, The Status Seekers, became the topic for discussion.

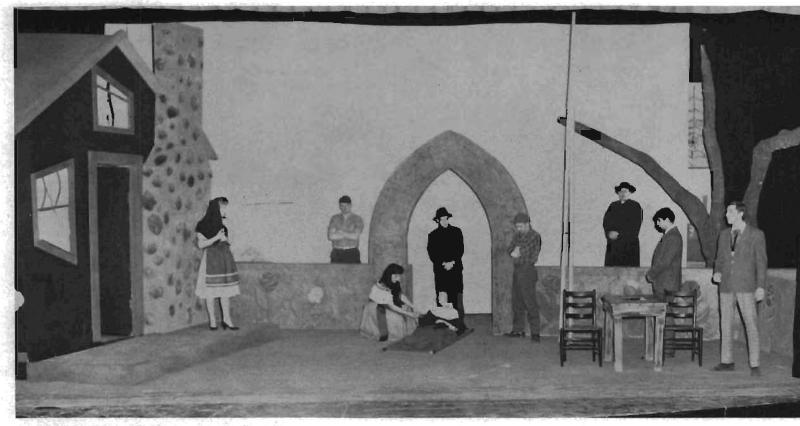

During March one week was devoted to the annual University Conference on Religion. Numerous speakers of all denominations visited the campus for informal lectures and classroom discussions.

RELIGIOUS SPEAKERS WERE Dr. Howard G. Hageman, Dr. Markus Barth and Rev. J. Maguire.

A PERFORMANCE OF "Cock-a-Doodle-Dandy."

MR. HERB PHILBRICK.

March became a month to remember with the many plays and assemblies. Saint Patrick's Day was the opening of Sean O'Casey's "Cock-a-Doodle-Dandy." This coincided with the opening of the Festival of Arts earlier in the week. An entire month was devoted to the Tenth Annual Festival of Arts.

The Soviet Union was the topic for World Affairs Week. Panel discussions and speakers emphasized various aspects of Russian life. Among the speakers was the noted author of I Led Three Lives, Mr. Herb Philbrick.

RECEIVING AWARDS ARE the outstanding cadets of ROTC.

Military Events

With the coming of spring there are numerous university events and an even greater number of student initiated activities. Among the campus events are the Military Ball, complete with royalty, and the ROTC review, honoring outstanding cadets.

Springtime also provides the opportunity for many long anticipated activities. It's the time to think of that Florida vacation, washing cars and of course spring dating.

MILITARY ROYALTY OF 1959 was Carol Ristau, Queen Judy Sweeny and Morg Havenga.

Spring time

Campus Programs

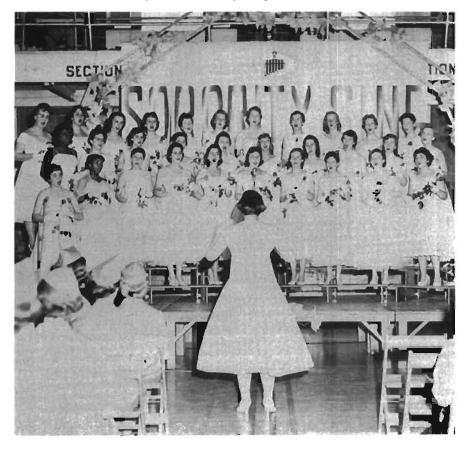

Among the favorite campus programs are the annual Sorority Sing and Fraternity Sing held each spring. The various Greek organizations practice months in advance for the sings. Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia is the traditional sponsor of Fraternity Sing and Sigma Alpha lota the sponsor of Sorority Sing.

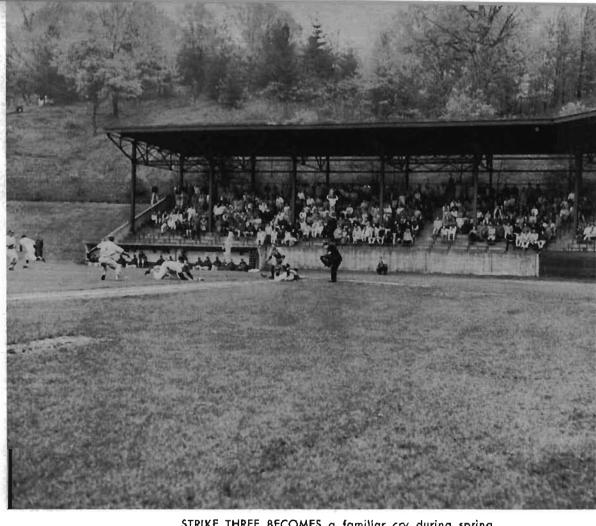

ARISTA ROSE DAY.

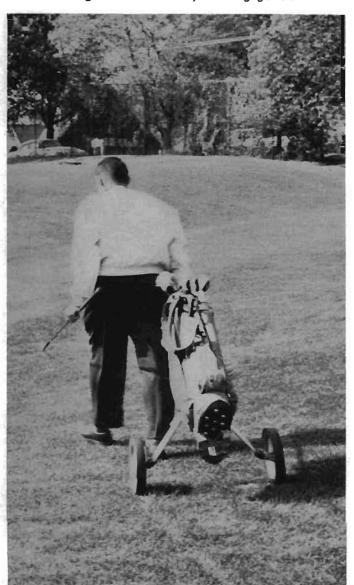

A very special program is held during the early part of May. This is the annual Arista Rose Day at which time outstanding senior women are given special recognition. The women who are honored are leaders in scholastic ability or campus organizations.

TIME OUT FROM study with frisbee action.

Two of the much anticipated social activities of the year are the Greek Week festivities and the Cotillion. Greek Week, an annual event, is set aside at Western for the promotion of Greek relations. Activities range all the way from bicycle races and swimming meets to a semi-formal dance which tops off the entire week of festivity. Members from all Greek organizations on campus work together on the project to make it a success and, when the big week finally arrives, all the individual groups merge into one big family of "Greeks." To top off the social year at Western is the long anticipated "Cotillion." It is the only formal dance of the year, the boys don tuxedos and the girls are given 2:00 a.m. late permission.

A Last Break Before Finals

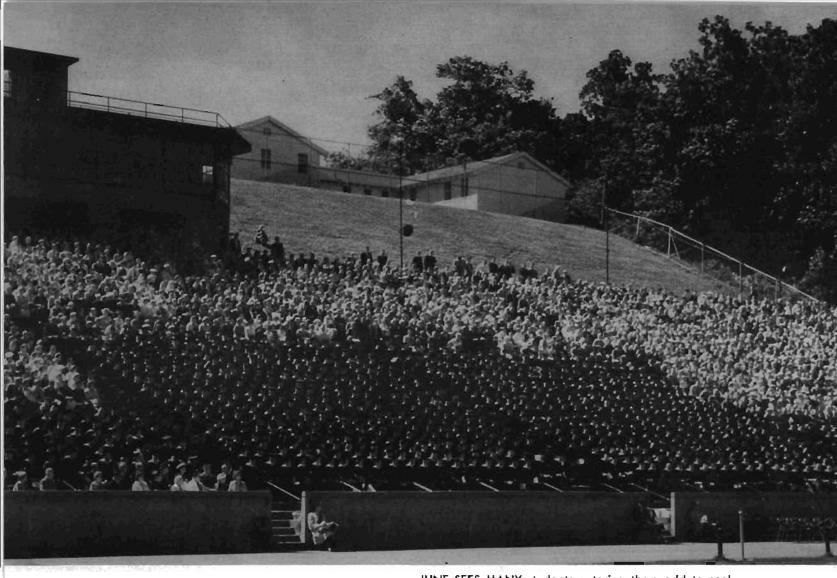

HONORING FRESHMEN GIRLS the Daisy Chain leads to the June Breakfast.

With the pressure of finals upon us, there is little time for any activities. Sororities take a final break before finals by holding house parties at Lake Michigan. Once finals have begun the last activity of the year is the annual June Breakfast. Freshman honor students form a Daisy Chain leading to the Student Center, where the breakfast is held. This is a final tribute to outstanding women.

Dr. Paul V. Sangren

Dr. Paul V. Sangren, president of Western Michigan University since 1936, retired from his duties at the close of the 1959-60 school year. A graduate of Eastern Michigan College, he obtained his master's degree at the University of Michigan in 1922 and his doctor of philosophy degree there in 1925-26. He then returned to Western in 1926 in the capacity of director of the bureau of educational research. Two years later he was named head of the education department and, in 1934, dean of administration. As the second president of Western, Dr. Sangren, instituted many outstanding programs in developing the school to its high standing as a university. Certainly his efforts have been an inspiration and challenge to the many students who have attended Western.

THE HOME OF President and Mrs. Sangren.

Student Services

A graduate of Western, Dr. L. Dale Faunce returned to the campus in 1956. Since this time he has held the position of vice-president of student services and public relations. Dr. Faunce received his M.A. from the University of Michigan and his Ed.D. from Michigan State University.

Academic Affairs

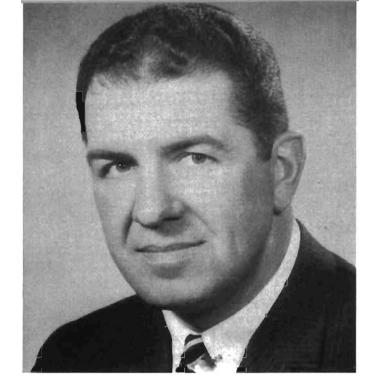

Dr. Russell H. Seibert was named vice-president of academic affairs in 1956. Prior to this time he held the position of director of basic studies and professor of history. Dr. Seibert received his B.A. degree from the College of Wooster, his M.A. from the University of Chicago and his Ph.D. from Ohio State University.

Dr. L. Dale Faunce.

Dr. Russell H. Seibert,

DR. PAUL GRIFFETH

Dr. Paul Griffeth joined Western as Dean of Students and Director of the Counseling Bureau in 1958. A graduate of Michigan State University, he also attended the State University of Iowa where he received his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees.

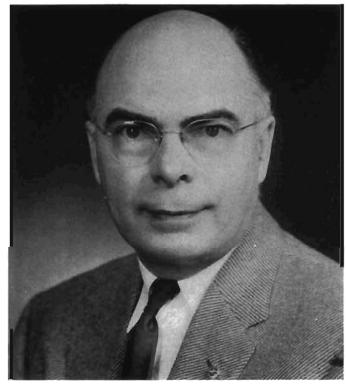

DR. ELIZABETH LICHTY

Dr. Elizabeth Lichty, Dean of Women, joined the faculty at Western with a sound background in the field of education. Prior to her teaching in a number of colleges and universities. Miss Lichty received her B.A. degree at Lake Forest College, and her M.A. and Ph.D. at the University of Wisconsin.

MR. J. TOWNER SMITH

Mr. J. Towner Smith, Dean of Men, was well known to Western students before accepting his present position. A graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Mr. Smith has served Western as a track coach, residence hall director, and Assistant Director of the Office of Student Personnel and Guidance.

MISS MARIE STEVENS

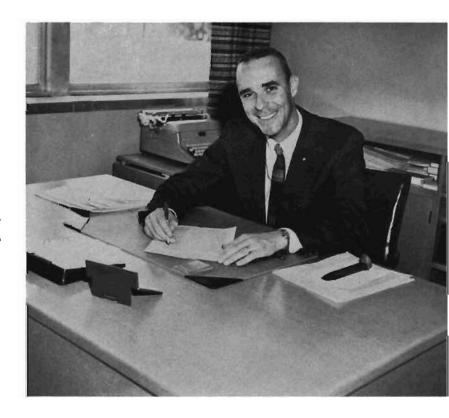

Serving as Assistant Dean of Women manages to keep Miss Marie Stevens very busy. A graduate of Northern Illinois State College, Miss Stevens came to Western in 1957. Her work here consists of student personnel aid.

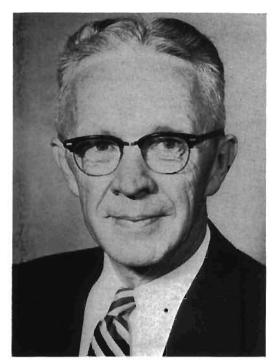

MRS. BETTY HOUSEHOLDER

Well known to everyone on Western's campus, Mrs. Betty Householder, holds the position of Social Director. Mrs. Householder received her B.S. at the University of Michigan then came to Western where her husband is also on the faculty.

A friend for all male students to look to is Mr. Sterling Breed. A 1955 graduate of Western Michigan University, Mr. Breed is currently serving as Assistant Dean of Men.

MR. C. B. MAC DONALD is comptroller for the school.

Many more people in administrative positions. We often hear of these names but rarely come into contact with the men. They are the ones behind the scenes, controlling the many important functions that make up a university.

HEAD OF THE placement bureau is Mr. Vern Mabie.

ADMISSIONS AND REGISTRATION are handled by Mr. Clayton Maus and Dr. Keith Smith.

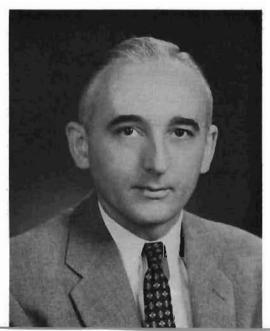

DEAN OF KANLEY Memorial Chapel is Mr. Lewis Crawford.

STUDENT CENTER ACTIVITIES are directed by Mr. Donald Scott.

DIRECTION OF THE field services is handled by Mr. Otto Yntema and Mr. Leonard Gernant.

APPLIED ARTS AND SCIENCES

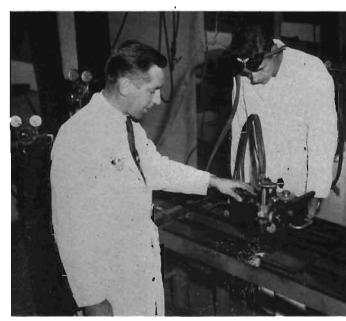

MR. JOHN LINDBECK describes shop planning to future teachers.

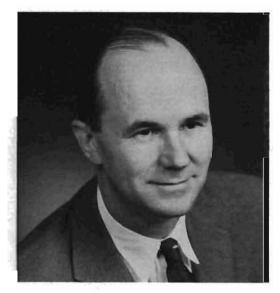

BASIC ELECTRONICS PROVES a challenge to many students.

The School of Applied Arts and Sciences strives to produce citizens who will benefit a democratic and technological society. Whether we're learning to bake, to build, or to become an effective army officer . . . we are participating in a program very vital to all American Universities. The School of Applied Arts and Sciences is indeed responsible for giving students an opportunity to gain experience in many fields which used to be foreign to college campuses.

THE TECHNIQUES OF industrial welding are demonstrated by Mr. Elmer Brune.

DR. GEORGE KOHRMAN, dean of the School of Applied Arts and Sciences.

ADVANCED WOODWORKING PROJECTS are undertaken by future shop teachers.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO practice in Dr. Betty Taylor's experimental foods class.

From Home to Army

Among the many and varied departments in the School of Applied Arts and Sciences are those of Home Economics and ROTC. They look like fun, but try spending many long hours learning the fundamentals of chemistry and the science of dietetics, or marching in step with an ROTC platoon. The men in ROTC acquire additional training by attending a summer camp at the end of their junior year.

ANIMAL INDUSTRY STUDENTS learn from Dr. Lee Baker.

OT STUDENTS prove their skills in ceramics class.

SPECIAL DEVICES FOR the handicapped are demonstrated by Miss Alice Lewis.

Other departments in the School of Applied Arts and Sciences are Occupational Therapy and Paper Technology. For the O T students, their education ranges from classroom lectures to hospital affiliations throughout the United States. In an equally challenging curriculum, the paper technology students are constantly studying and working with the latest machines in the field of pulp and paper.

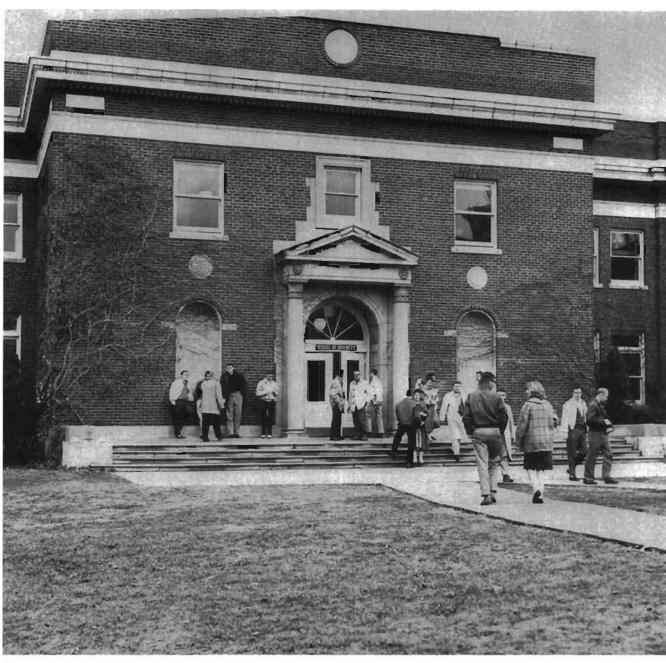

BLEACHING PROCESSES ARE illustrated by Dr. John Fanselow.

FIBERS MUST BE examined under microscopes by students of Mr. Raymond Janes.

BUSINESS

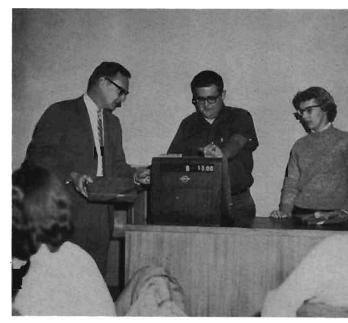

THE SEVEN C'S of correspondence make good letters in the business world.

A FAMILIAR SIGHT to the many business students of Western.

The School of Business strives to prepare students to fill positions in business and industry. Three main programs are offered in the field of business: business administration; business teacher education; and two-year programs leading to certificates in secretarial training, retailing, and technical business. The subject matter offered by the School of Business is of a wide variety, ranging from Cost Accounting to Merchandise Information.

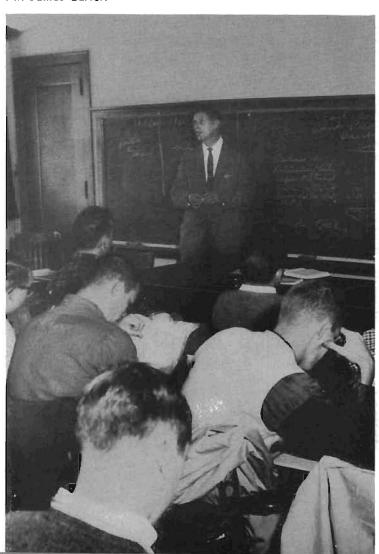

RETAIL METHODS BECOME familiar to many business students with Richard Embertson.

DR. ARNOLD SCHNEIDER, dean of the School of Business.

IF YOUR FIELD is auditing you can learn much from Mr. James Carter.

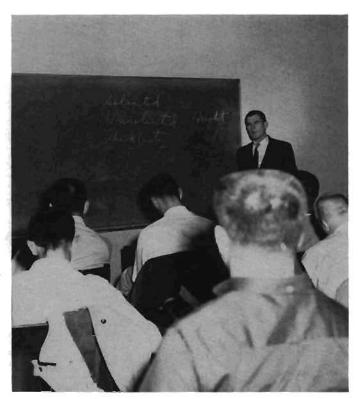

AN ESSENTIAL CLASS for secretaries is shorthand taught by Mrs. Edna Kirby.

Accounting, law, and statistics, are many of the problems faced throughout the week by the students in the School of Business. From the secretarial student to the marketing major, the day is filled with the use of business machines, solution of various problems, and the analysis and interpretation of facts and figures.

A World of Decisions for Future

THE COMPLEXITY OF business machines is pointed out by Mr. George Cooper.

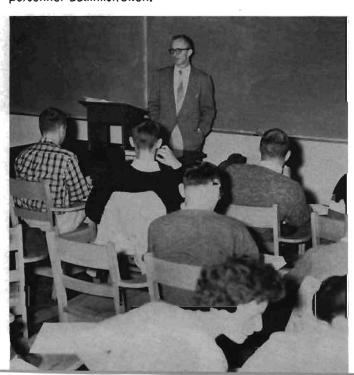

THE MYSTERY OF management report writing is explained by Mr. Charles Blagdon.

MR. GALE CLARK discusses problems in the field of personnel administration.

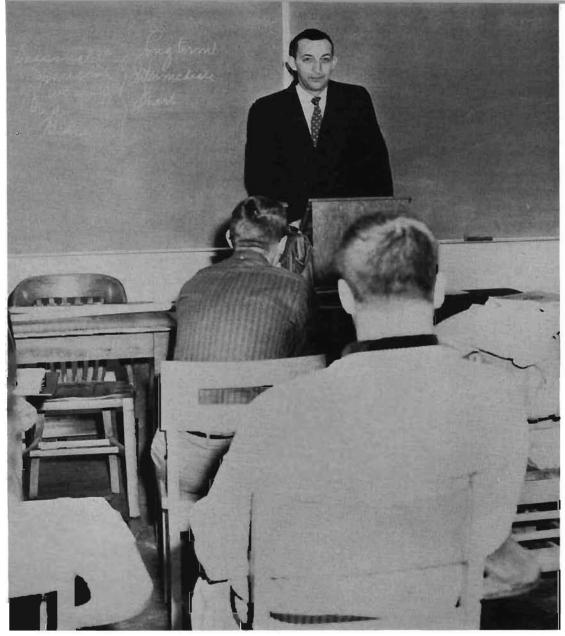

INSURANCE PRINCIPLES AND policies are brought to light by Mr. Emil Sokolowski.

FUTURE SECRETARIES LEARN of debits and credits from Mr. Leo Niemi.

FROM CURRENT MARKETING news to the latest federal tax reports, the library annex is well supplied with this information.

THE FINANCIAL WORLD becomes clear by the efforts of Dr. Edwin Grossnickle.

We Study and Work for the Future

RETAILING METHODS ARE taught by Mr. Russell Powell.

Whether our specialization in the School of Business has been Accounting, Marketing, Management, or any of the others, we realize that it is study and work that prepare us for a responsible position in the world of business.

EDUCATION

TEACHING METHODS ARE procticed in a lab in education class with Miss Lais Robinson.

AN ADDED OPPORTUNITY for some students is the adult reading class taught by Mr. Homer Carter.

The School of Education strives to develop future teachers who will be competent and efficient in class room performance. With specific education courses and the required practice teaching, a great number of students meet these goals each year. There are also advanced courses in the School of Education for students who are working toward a Masters Degree.

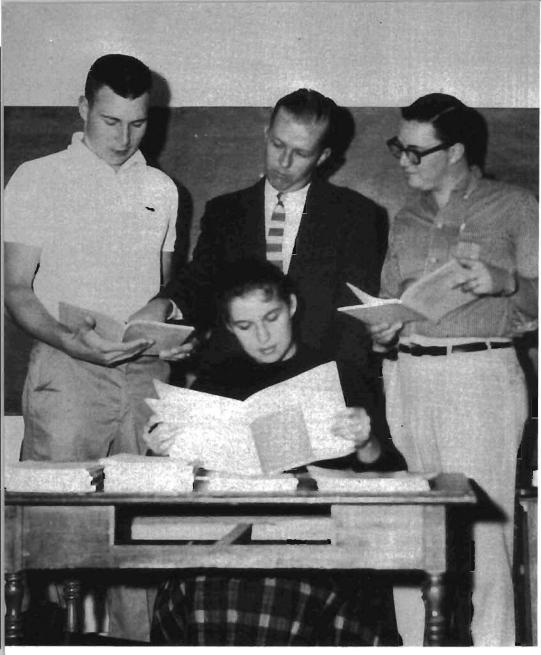

INTRODUCTION TO DIRECTED teaching leads to many group discussions with Dr. Louis Govatos.

DR. JAMES GRIGGS, dean of the School of Education.

NOON TIME ACTIVITIES for practice teachers at the University High School.

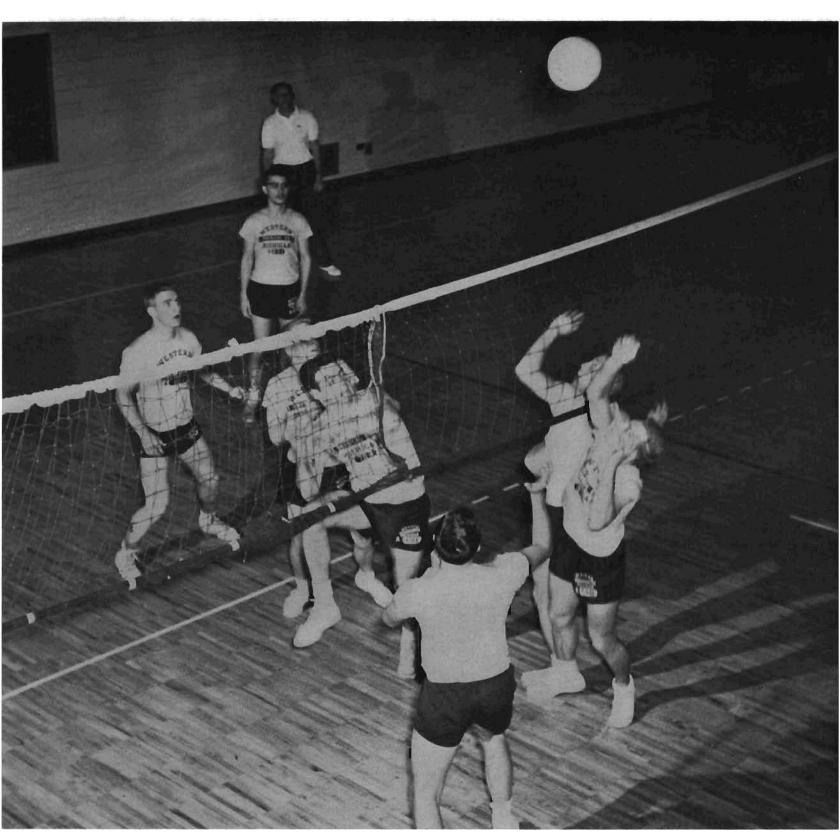

PREPARING FUTURE SPEECH teachers is Dr. John Pruis.

The School of Education prepares students in a number of fields. Many are prepared for the elementary level while others are prepared for high school teaching. There is also the matter of what subject material we are to teach. Whatever it may be, the School of Education offers an extensive program in preparing students to become future teachers.

FUTURE ATHLETIC TEACHERS learn track techniques from Mr. George Dales.

From Classrooms to Athletic Courts

A FAVORITE SPORT among the men's physical education classes.

CHA - CHA - CHA provides fun for social dancing students.

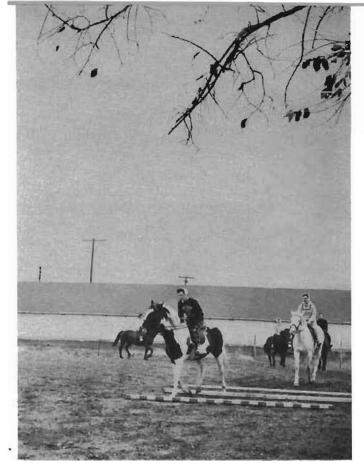

AN OUTSTANDING PROGRAM sponsored by the women's physical education department was the Gladys Andrews dance clinic.

WOMEN'S TENNIS TEAM members are: ROW 1, Jean Soderman, Phoebe Wienke, Lillian Pribish, Greta Soderman; ROW 2, Sandra Butler, Carol Hagadorn, Jane Krieger, Shirley Van Valkenburg, Miss Eleanor Douglass.

Who would think that we come to college to learn how to ride a horse or to play golf? This may not be the case, but with a few exceptions, everyone is required to have four semester hours of physical education for graduation. A wide variety of athletics are offered for men and women, including co-educational classes in bowling and dancing.

POPULAR AMONG GIRLS is the class in horsemanship.

A Relaxing Type of Education

READY FOR THE green are the girls in Dr. Roell's golf class.

YES! THEY ARE taking this class for credit.

LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES

LABOR PROBLEMS ARE very important to the economic students of Dr. Robert Bowers.

FIELD TRIPS BECOME an important aspect of outdoor science with Miss Anne Fuller.

The School of Liberal Arts and Sciences strives to develop students who will bring forth new ideas; and whose ideas will be enriched by an understanding of his cultural heritage. These goals are achieved through the many and varied departments that this school offers.

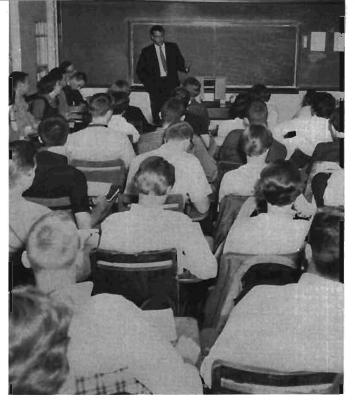

ARTS STUDENTS DISPLAY their talents in ceramics class.

DR. GERALD OSBORN, dean of the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

SPEECH STUDENTS ENJOY classes in interpretive reading.

GENERAL PSYCHOLOGY CLASSES become popular with Mr. William Yankee.

Aesthetics become increasingly important to students in the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences. We find an opportunity to study such diversified subject matter as art, music and English. It's a wonderful world for the student who loves the fine arts.

A CAREER IN music means learning the fundamentals of conducting.

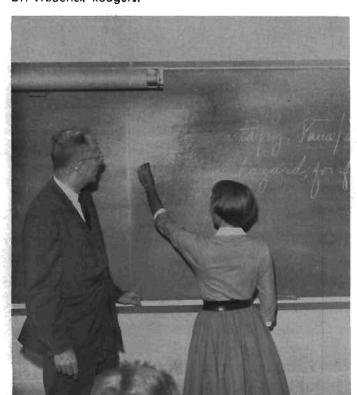

WE BECOME ACQUAINTED with the foundations of our western civilization from instructors such as Dr. Walter Brunhumer.

SHAKESPEARE BECOMES AN interesting subject with Dr. Frederick Rodgers.

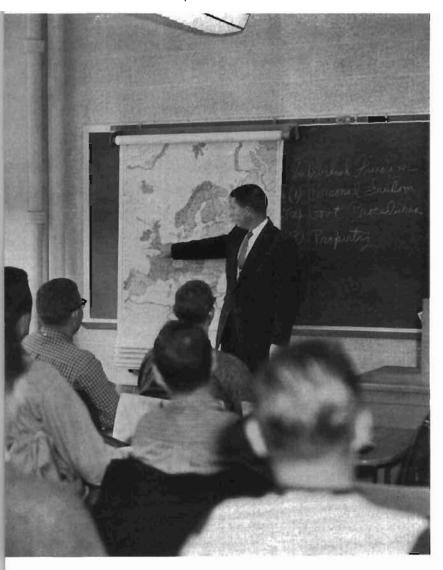

PREPARING FOR THE future, students discuss modern marriage with Dr. Paul Horton.

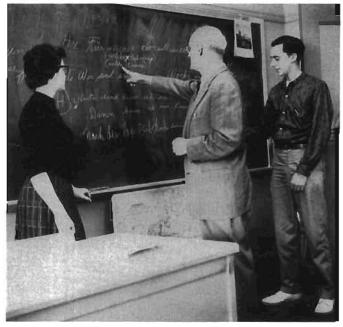

Advanced Work With the 3 R's

From the fine arts we look at the facts. The School of Liberal Arts and Sciences also includes departments such as chemistry, physics and mathematics. Indeed, students of this school have many opportunities to develop ideas based upon cultural heritage.

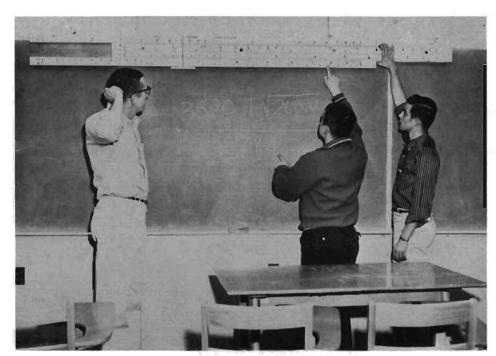

THE GERMAN LANGUAGE becomes familiar with Dr. Hermann Rothfuss.

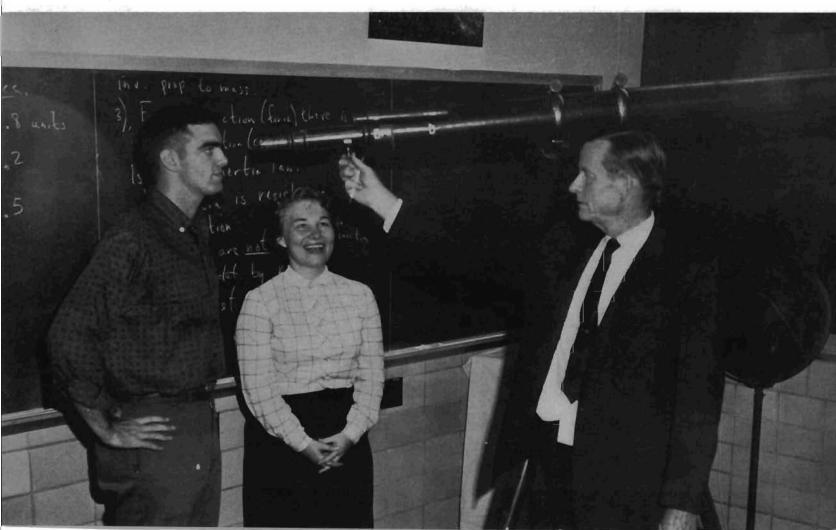

A FAMILIAR SIGHT during football games, Mr. Leonard Meretta, is director of the famed WMU Marching Band.

USE OF A slide rule becomes important to any math student.

STARS AND PLANETS are observed in Dr. Paul Rood's astronomy class.

GRADUATE STUDIES

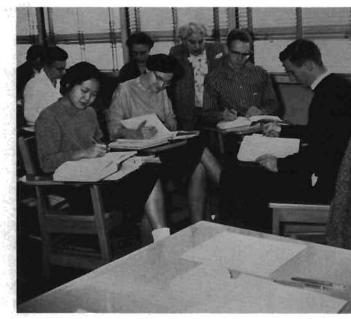

GRADUATE STUDENTS DISCUSS research methods with Dr. John Buelke.

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR quiet study during the day or evening is found in Waldo Library.

As Western grows and begins to take on the full position of being a university, we begin to see more and more of our students returning for graduate work. Western has been authorized since 1952 to offer graduate curricula in all areas involved in the preparation of teachers, administrators and supervisors for the public schools of Michigan. The University awards an MA to those persons who meet the requirements set up by the School of Graduate Studies as approved by the State Board of Education. Presently, programs leading to Masters degrees in various areas of the Liberal and Applied Arts and Sciences are being developed.

LIBRARIAN STUDENTS LEARN under the guidance of Miss Alice Le Fevre.

DR. GEORGE MALLINSON, dean of the School of Graduate Studies.

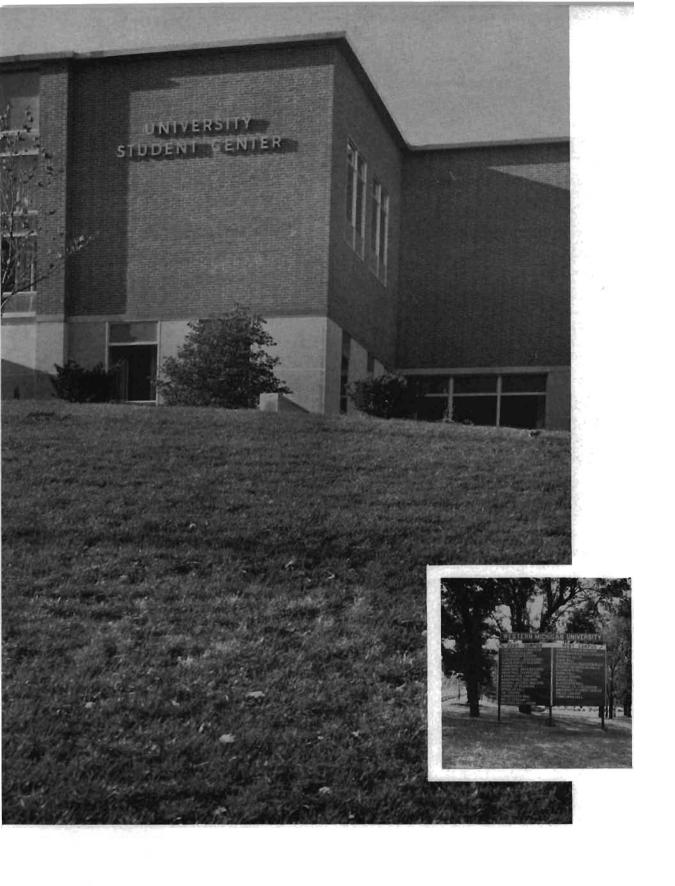

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL GUIDANCE is one of the many graduate courses offered to future teachers.

AWS begins its busy year right away by sponsoring a Big Sister Tea and Style Show. Dean's conference and co-sponsoring with Men's Union a Freshman Carnival during Freshmen Week. The weekly Ko-ed Koffee Klub, Male Economic Recovery Week, Dad's Day, Mother's Day Tea, Big-Little Sister weekend, the Christmas Chocolate, Twirp Week including the Most Eligible Bachelor dance are all among the numerous activities sponsored by the organization throughout the year. Then traditionally, each year is topped off by the June Breakfast at which outstanding Western Women are honored. Certainly this organization is responsible for a great share of social activities at Western Michigan University.

PLANNING ACTIVITIES ARE committee chairmen: Chuck Ellickson, Dennis Hayes, John Gentleman, Patrick Dolon, Hal Weakly, David McLinden.

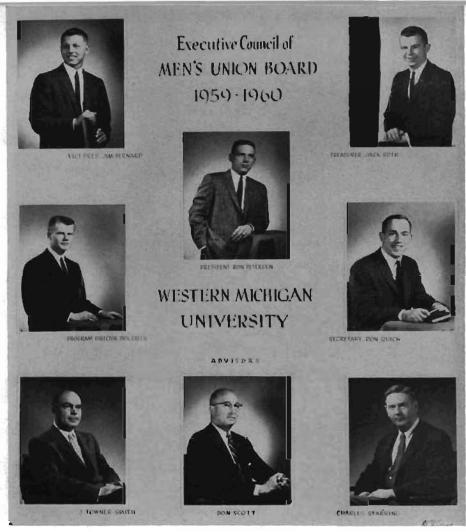

Men's Union Board

THE MEN'S UNION sponsors five open houses throughout the year.

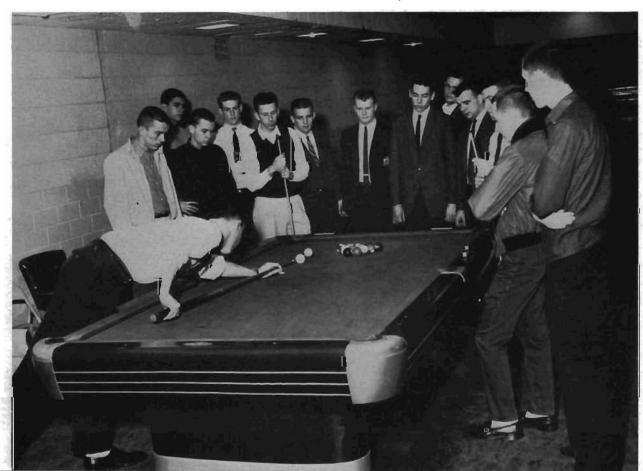

Responsible for many events which place Western in high acclaim is the Men's Union Board. The activities which are sponsored by Men's Union range from various cultural programs to events such as the "World University Services" dance, held each fall to raise money for charity. Highlighting a year's activities at Western, the Men's Union sponsors the Cotillion, the only formal dance of the year.

Although every male student on Western's campus is a member of the Men's Union there are only fourteen members who work actively on the board. Assisting president Ron Petersen this year have been Jim Bernard, vice-president; Dick Green, program director; Jack Roth, treasurer; and Don Quick, secretary. Administrative advisors have been Mr. Don Scott, Mr. J. Towner Smith and Mr. Charles Starring.

MEN'S UNION LEADERS for 1959-1960.

Men's Student Court

Regardless of how small the violation may be or how serious the situation, the Men's Student Court is there to be of assistance to all male students. Serving as a judicial governing body, the board meets every Tuesday to take problems of men students in hand and to try to solve them through either counseling or disciplinary action.

Acting as chief justice has been Howard Farris with Charles Hrdlicka as assistant chief justice. Other justices have been John Blakeslee, James Lester, Bob Harris, John Andrews, Neil Grossnickle, Jerry Evans, process server; and Jack Rummel, recorder. Administrative sponsors are Mr. J. Towner Smith, Dean of Men. and Mr. Sterling Breed, Assistant Dean of Men.

University Student Center Advisory Board

The University Student Center Advisory Board has a threefold purpose: it strives to set up policies for the welfare of student activities within the University Center; it evaluates the existing program of activities; and it promotes new programs as they are needed. Membership is composed of students from leading organizations on campus.

Assisting Jackie Mallette, president, this year have been Kay Higbee, secretary; Jim Hough, treasurer; Cathie Peterson, AWS representative; Dick Green, Men's Union representative; and Pat Plonka, Student Council representative. Acting as sponsors have been Mr. Don Scott, Mr. John Hungerford and Mrs. Betty Householder.

Student Activities Committee

The top policy-making organization on Western's campus is the Student Activities Committee. SAC acts as the direct sponsor of Student Council and governs the organization and conduct of all student organizations on campus. It has the right of review of all activities of the student body.

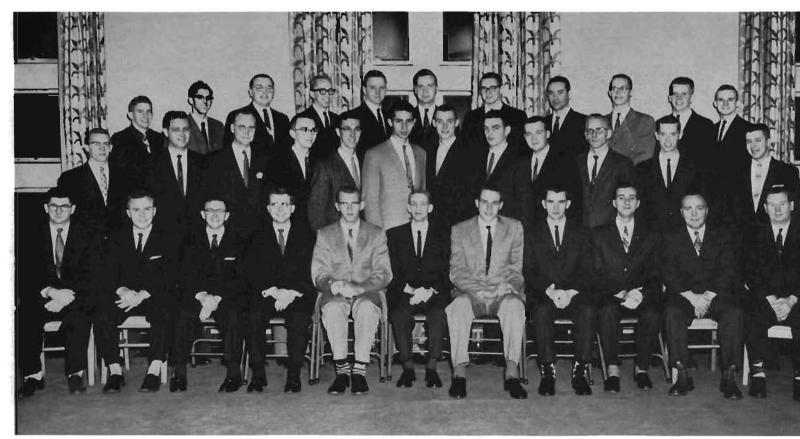

The committee is composed of six faculty and six student representatives. Faculty representatives include Dean J. Towner Smith, Co-chairman; Miss Marie Stevens; Mrs. Betty Householder; Mr. Norman Russell; Mr. Herb Jones; Dr. Roland Strolle. Student representatives include Larry Ternan, Co-chairman; Fran Babcock, AWS; Mary Jane Kinney, Panhellenic; Ron Peterson, Men's Union; Donald Nichols, IFC; Art Deming, RHA.

What would Western do without APO? Perhaps this sounds a little dramatic, but have you ever stopped to think what Western would be like without Alpha Phi Omega to guide bewildered students through our increasingly hectic registration? Or what a mess our campus would be without the willing workers to clean up after such events as the Freshman Penny Carnival? Life isn't all work for the men of the national service fraternity. A year will see them participating in various social activities to break the "monotony" of too much work. In addition to all the regular activities, this spring saw the Gamma Phi chapter at Western hosting the state convention. To carry on service projects which require financial backing APO sponsors the annual "Ugly Man Contest" on campus.

Serving as president of the organization this year has been R. K. Biek; James Baird, vice-president; Frank Tlusty, corresponding secretary; Ronald Refior, recording secretary; Jack Slot, treasurer; William Sandy, alumni secretary. Advisors have been Dr. James Powell, Dr. Paul Maier, Mr. James Snyder, Mr. Lindsay Farnan, Mr. Lee Geller, Mr. John R. Lindbeck.

An Aristan woman is one who has proven herself to be superior scholastically as well as outstanding in the fields of leadership and extracurricular activities. The members are chosen at the annual June Breakfast. Although scholastics are important to those in Arista, time is taken out each year for several prominent social activities. Among these are the Sophomore Honor Chocolate, at which sophomore women are honored for high scholarship; Rose Day, at which Senior women are honored for high scholarship and leadership; selling of candy apples at carnivals; sponsoring an alumnae coffee at Homecoming; and tapping of new Aristans at the June Breakfast.

Acting as president this year has been Carolyn Lean; vice-president, Mary Ann McCarthy; secretary, Eileen Vandermer Thompson; treasurer, Karen Meisel: corresponding secretary, Barbara Woodford. Administrative advisors have been Miss Elizabeth Lichty, Mrs. Anne Szalkowski, and Mrs. Isabel Beeler.

Omicron Delta Kappa

Omicron Delta Kappa, men's honor society, recognizes a three-fold purpose: first, the circle strives to honor men who have attained a high standard of efficiency in collegiate activities and to inspire others to work along similar lines; second, to bring together the most representative men in all phases of collegiate life to help mold sentiment on collegiate issues; and lastly, to bring together members of the faculty and student body of the institution on a basis of mutual interest and understanding.

Serving as president has been A. W. Gaulzetti; vice-president, Lyle McAuley; secretary, Mr. Charles Starring; treasurer, Jack Fox. Sponsors of the Western Michigan University Circle have been Mr. J. Towner Smith, Mr. Robert Wetnight, and Dr. Oscar Horst.

APPLIED ARTS

All kinds of goodies are brought about as a result of the Home Economics Club. These girls at Western take great pleasure in their September cookout held each year in Kanley Park. Equally as enjoyable are their Christmas Party and May Banquet. Although they take great pride and joy in their domestic activities, their life isn't all composed of household routine. They sponsor many projects from which proceeds are donated to the Sophia Reed-Mary Moore Loan Fund.

Serving as president of approximately one-hundred and five members has been Ruth Johanson; vicepresident, Dorothy Williamson; secretary, Elizabeth Tompson; and treasurer, Martha Nichols. Acting as sponsors have been Drs. Herald and Savage.

AN OPPORTUNITY IS provided for displaying talents at the meetings.

Sigma Alpha Tau

Men and women who know how to fly in this day and age deserve some sort of reward; and this is exactly what Sigma Alpha Tau seeks to do. Limited to juniors and seniors who are in the top 25% of their class, Sigma Alpha Tau is an honorary fraternity in the field of aviation. For many students this becomes the first real contact with the air transportation industry.

Serving as president this year was Bob Ryder; vice-president, Bill Charney; recording secretary, Brian Percy; corresponding secretary, Chuck Emmitt; and treasurer, Bob Graichan. Sponsors were Mr. Robert Ring, Mr. William Wichers, and Mr. Clarence Van Deventer.

For those who are enrolled in Petroleum Distribution and are interested in participating in group campus activities as well as furthering their knowledge and interests in the oil industry, the Student Petroleum Association has been formed. In addition to holding the regular business meetings the group often has guest speakers from the petroleum industry. Also arranged by the Association are periodic meetings where students and representatives of the co-operating oil companies can discuss the progress and plans of Petroleum Distribution. Although the group actively takes part in the oil industries conventions, banquets and workshops, they also find time for such campus activities as the Penny Carnival, and R.H.A. Blood Drive and Homecoming.

President Robert Stoessel has been assisted this year by Don Kamings, vice-president; Dale Bannon, recording secretary; Del Sanders, treasurer; and Lee Lofstrom, corresponding secretary. The sponsors were Mr. Wendall Fidler and Mr. A. F. Goldsmith.

Torch and Blade

Established to promote interest in military life and subjects. Torch and Blade impresses upon its members the Officer's Code, "Duty-Honor-Country." Living by this code, the group strives for military professional improvement and good citizenship. Among their activities are the orientation program to prepare cadets for summer camp and an award for "Outstanding Military Appearance" presented to a cadet enrolled in the basic course. Highlighting the year for Torch and Blade members is the annual spring military ball which they sponsor.

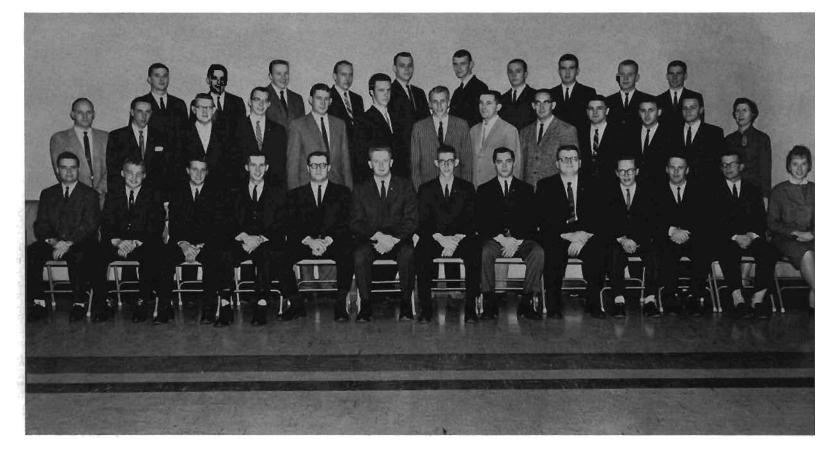

Ron Weimer, commandant, was assisted this year by Henry Swiftney, executive officer; Dennis Forrer, adjutant; and Major George Rankin, Sgt. Robert Barlock and Col. Albert Jackman, sponsors.

American Marketing Association

More and more students are becoming interested in the ever increasing field of marketing. An opportunity to come into contact with successful marketing men in the world of business is offered to students by the Western Michigan University chapter of the American Marketing Association. The group meets each month and participates in numerous educational programs in the field of marketing.

Women's Debate

Twelve women participated in the Intercollegiate Debate and Discussion program during the 1959-60 forensic season. Participating in nine debate tournaments (five of which were varsity tournaments) and one discussion conference made this an arduous and challenging season. Despite the fact that all except one were novice debaters, the girls amassed an amazing record of winning eighty per cent of their intercollegiate debates.

Highest individual honors were won by Mary Jo Volpert, freshman, who won a Special Distinction award as one of the top ten per cent at the University of Illinois; an excellence award at the MISL Varsity Tournament; and award for excellence in discussion at the TKA Midwest Regional Conference.

Juddi Swanlund also won an excellence in debate award at the MISL Varsity Tournament. Juddi and Mary Jo won team honors also at the University of Illinois tournament. Barbara Tallerday won honors for excellence in discussion at the TKA Midwest Regional Conference besides winning team honors by being undefeated at the MISL Novice Tournament.

Barbara Tallerday and Mary Jo Volpert represented WMU at the National Invitational Debate Tournament at Notre Dame and the TKA National Debate Tournament at the University of Utah.

WOMEN DEBATERS ARE: ROW 1, Juddi Swanlund, Pat Callis, Bonnie Parr, Mary Jo Volpert; ROW 2, Barbara Tallerday, Suellen Walsworth, Marilu Hepworth.

Men's Debate

Eleven men participated in this year's debate and discussion teams. Although it is impossible to give a complete picture of Western's participation with only half of the season completed, the Men's Debate team can be credited with an outstanding performance.

Attending three state tournaments, three regional tournaments, and five national tournaments, Western started the season by taking four men to the annual regional TKA conference at Manchester College. These men were Meade Gougeon, Roger Bennett, Gene Sullivan, and Ed Rintye. At this conference Ed Rintye was elected vice-president of the regional TKA Student Council. Ed Rintye also won for the school a Wachtel plaque for ranking as the outstanding discussionalist in this conference. Mr. Charles Helgesen, men's debate coach, was selected by a TKA regional student committee as the coach of the year. This award was given in the light of his outstanding contributions to debate and discussion.

At the state novice tournament, Meade Gougeon and Gene Sullivan won two debates and lost one. At the state varsity tournament, three men's teams participated. They posted a 7-2 record. Ed Rintye and Meade Gougeon went undefeated winning four straight debates. Ed Rintye received a certificate for his superior performance in this tournament. Charles Follett and Gene Sullivan won two out of three of their debates, and a like record was posted by Jerry Leeth and Donald Veldt.

At the Flint Junior Tournament, Meade Gougeon and Donald Veldt brought home a certificate of superior and won all four of their debates. Danny Turonek and Gene Sullivan received a certificate of excellence award for their fine performance in this tournament. This tournament was won by West Point with a 7-1 record. Western had a 6-2 record, which gave them a fourth in wins and losses; but on the basis of speaker points, Western ranked right behind West Point. This tournament was attended by 44 teams from 22 schools and seven different states. At the Wayne State national debate days tournament, Chick Broersma and Ed Rintye won four audience decisions in the four debates they participated in.

To add to the variety of its program, Western plans on having several home to home debates and will appear before a number of classes and organizations.

The leading male students in the field of music are brought together through membership in the honorary music fraternity, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. Although music is their main concern, the members rally at Homecoming time to produce prize winning homecoming floats. This year "The Old Mill Stream" provided the idea for their float.

LEADERS OF THE fraternity are: ROW 1, David Baxter, Bob Gray, Allen Switzer, Gary Forsleff; ROW 2, Gary Lester, Jerry Dalman, Jack Neal, Gordon Whitcomb, Phil Merrill.

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia

For many years this national honorary music fraternity has provided Western's campus with excellent musical programs. Among their activities the men sponsor the Fraternity Sing, the American Musicale, and the Jazz Concert.

Robert Gray has served as president this year; with Allen Switzer, vice-president; Dave Baxter, secretary; Bill Achterberg, treasurer; and Gary Forsleff, songleader. Mr. Tomas Hardie sponsors the organization.

Women's Glee Club

Singing throughout the year, the members of the Women's Glee Club participate in a variety of musical programs. The A.W.S. Christmas Chocolate, the Christmas Concert, a Mother's Day Concert and Arista Rose Day are some of the activities that keep these girls busy. Also on the schedule for the year were a number of local concerts and a trip to Ionia. A banquet and a picnic provide social entertainment to these members.

Mrs. Betty McGlasson has acted as president this year; Myrth Eber, vice-president; Andree Graubner, secretary; and Mary Hassett, treasurer. Mrs. Dorothea Snyder is director of the group.

Men's Glee Club

Traveling to various cities in Michigan, the Men's Glee Club have given many concerts throughout the year. Many civic concerts and programs for local high schools are also on their schedule. Singing for these and many of the university events does not take up all of their time, for every two years they produce a record of the Men's Glee Club.

Mr. Jack Frey, the director, has been assisted by Dan Visser, president; Jack Neal, secretary treasurer; and Gary Forsleff, accompanist.

UNIVERSITY SINGERS PRACTICE for their vocal programs.

Maybee Hall is full of music, and there are many skilled groups which go into the making of this music. Vocal music groups include the University Choir and the University Singers and the smaller groups Madrigal Singers and Varsity Choir.

These music groups provide many entertaining concerts throughout the year in Kalamazoo and nearby territory. At Christmas time the University Choir and University Singers combine with the glee clubs and the University Orchestra to put on the annual Christmas concert.

Catholic Student Organization

The Catholic Student Organization is continually active from early September until late June. The group engages in such diverse activities as Sunday night suppers and dances, religious activities, hayrides, an annual picnic and movies. Father Donn Taylor guides the 500 members of this organization, whose work is carried out through nine standing committees: education, religious, social, publicity, membership, international, food, ways and means, and married students.

Leading the group this year have been Dennis Moloney, president; John Carter, first vice-president; Marion Dziuban, second vice-president; Jean Rudy, recording secretary; Helen Gancarz, corresponding secretary; and Evelyn Sakoski, treasurer.

OFFICERS AND COMMITTEE chairmen discuss plans.

Gamma Delta

Gamma Delta is the international association of Lutheran college and university students. With the twin goals of promoting Christian knowledge and service, the Alpha Psi chapter, one of 160 in North America, each year sponsors a variety of religious, cultural, social and service activities. The center of Gamma Delta's program, of course, is the series of worship services held each Sunday during the school year in Kanley Chapel. These services are open to all students and faculty. Regular Sunday evening supper meetings are held at the Lutheran Student Center.

Lutheran Student Organization

Highlights of the year included the annual initiation banquet in November, at which 63 new members were added; the Christmas Coffee in December; Winter Camp in January; and the regional Gamma Delta convention in March. This year was cause for a special celebration, the silver anniversary of the founding of Gamma Delta in 1934.

Kappa Phi

AN ALUMNI CHOCOLATE was held at Homecoming.

Kappa Phi members combine the goals centering about religious ideals, service and social activities. Kappa Phi, a national Methodist sorority, has been on Western's campus since 1954. During this time the group has done much in the way of concentrating on service projects, worship experiences, outings and social events. At a fall weekend retreat, the girls have an opportunity to deepen their lives spiritually as well as create a close fellowship with each other.

Peg Slater has acted as president of the organization this year; Helen Higgins, first vice-president; Alice Becker, second vice-president; Nina Holderman, recording secretary; Maryrose Dorn, corresponding secretary; Noreen Werden, treasurer; and Diane Erickson, chaplain. Sponsors have been Mrs. Duward Harbaugh and Mrs. Charles Cooley:

Student-led worship services, a students choir and drama group, deputations to nearby churches, missionary projects, state and national conferences and a variety of social functions are all part of what goes into the Wesley Foundation. An organization of Methodist preference students, the Wesley Foundation strives to emphasize spiritual thought and living and to provide its members with opportunity to develop leadership and to participate in social activities. Classes in Bible, Vesper services, the promotion of parties, fellowship suppers, church league basketball, and Friday pop-ins keep the group busy the year around.

Leading the organization this year have been Melvin Bricker, president; Nina Holderman, vice-president; Julia Hoopengardner, secretary; and David Sandula, treasurer. Sponsoring the organization has been Rev. Charles Cooley.

"THE FORGOTTEN MAN" was presented by the Wesley Players.

Sigma Theta Epsilon

A national religious fraternity, Sigma Theta Epsilon provides friendship and fellowship for men of Methodist preference. The group works to promote Christian fellowship among its members, to develop leadership in church activities, to participate in service projects, to provide religious training and to promote social activities. The group seeks to fulfill these goals by a series of lectures, discussions, films and social events throughout the year.

UNIVERSITY PUBLICATIONS

MR. RUSSELL A. STRONG, publicity director of the University.

The many activities and events of Western are carried to the public by Mr. Russell Strong. As head of publicity for the university, Mr. Strong edits such publications as the Western Michigan University News Magazine, the News Letter, the Faculty Footnotes, and the Graduate Student. Other activities that go into making up a busy life for the publicity director are student news releases that appear in hometown newspapers and acting as advisor for the yearbook.

PUBLISHED EVERY THREE months, the WMU News Magazine is widely distributed.

Calliope

A creative arts magazine, Calliope, is an outlet for students with a flair for expression. It is an all student published magazine and appears twice a year. All works, which might range from poetry, short stories, and essays, to art, are submitted to the staff and are judged anonymously by various student committees.

Working with editor, Mary Ann Williams, have been Lynn Clapman, assistant editor; Robert Schneider, fiction editor; Larry Bronson, non-fiction editor; Cary Shields, poetry editor; Jim Jordan, art editor; Wilford Butler, Jr., publicity; and Don Park, business manager.

Brown and Gold

From out of scads of typed papers, copy which needs to be rewritten, pictures which need to be sorted and proofs which need to be checked, actually emerges the yearbook of Western Michigan University.

Plans are started with the selection of staff members the previous year, and the work doesn't stop until the books are distributed to students. The long hours, lasting through vacations for many staff members, are never over until the new staff members are appointed.

John R. Hefferan, Editor

Carol Walsh, Assistant Editor

Barbara McBride, Business Manager

CHECKING ENGRAVING PROOFS are Mary McDonald and Wes Stafford.

PLANS TAKE SHAPE for James Lauer and Charles Harvey.

Staff Members

COMBINING THEIR TALENTS for the yearbook are Kathy Sedor, Barbe Woodford, Bonnie Bailey, Karen Daniels, and Karen Thompson.

Photographers

THE TALENTS OF Phillip Frye, Lloyd Peterson, and Dave Seamon were combined to supply the yearbook with photographs.

THE TY HOUSE is the home of the Brown and Gold and Western Herald.

Before the staff has time to get organized they find themselves caught in a whirl of yearbook work. Publishing the yearbook is an exciting challenge for anyone who likes to "live" yearbook and do all other things on the run.

But the end always comes; and out of the chaos emerges the finished book. The old staff can sit back and relax; the doors are open for the new staff to enter and take on all of the problems and nerve-racking, but enjoyable, experiences.

Heading the staff this year were John Hefferan, editor; Barbara McBride, business manager; Carol Walsh, assistant editor; Mary McDonald, copy editor; Wes Stafford, sports editor; James Lauer, art editor, and Charles Harvey, advertising manager.

The clattering of typewriters never stops in the upstairs of the Ty House, as the Herald staff works fast and furiously to produce a bi-weekly publication. The staff of approximately thirty members works without a journalism advisor. All editorial policies of the Herald are left to the editor's discretion.

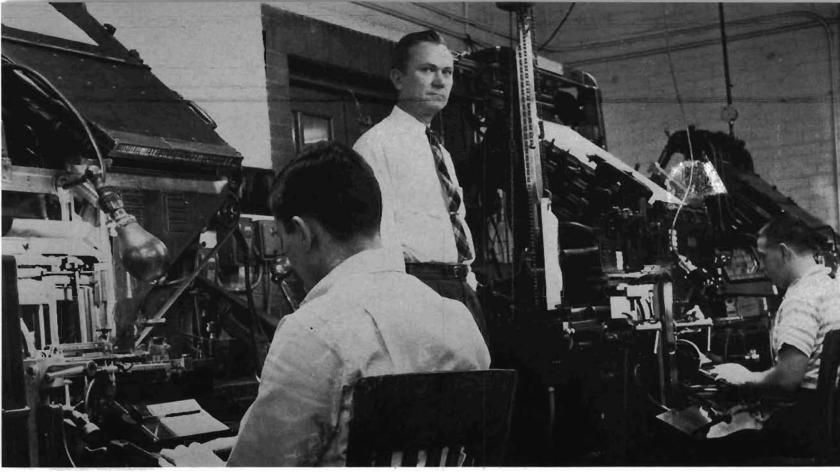

The Wednesday and Friday editions are eagerly awaited for the many articles of interest. Highlights are the editorials, special features, and "Letters to the Editor" column.

Parvin Lee, Editor

MAKING UP AN issue of the Herald are Jim Zeno, Susan Peterson, Nancy 8 and, Ray Buckley, Karen Trofast, Carl Buehler.

PUTTING THE HERALD to press takes place in the school print shop.

Western Herald

The personal satisfaction of the responsibility of publishing Western's bi-weekly newspaper is greater than the monetary rewards for these staff members. The many long hours spent working are evidenced when each issue of the Herald appears on campus.

Jack Ristau and LeRoy Repischak handle business affairs for the Herald.

Western Herald Staff

MANAGING EDITOR JIM ZENO keeps production moving.

SPORTS WRITERS ARE Sherry Koons, Gary Hordin, Bob Visschers, Bill Gebhordt, Karl Van Asselt, Jack Ristau, Steve Lewis.

TWO MORNINGS EACH week the Western Herald is distributed.

A big step is taken towards international understanding and friendship by the existence of the International Students Club. Every two weeks these students take a tour around the world. At each meeting one student will show slides or movies and present some cultural or sociological aspect of his own home land.

Leading the group in understanding international traditions this past year have been Sybil Wilson, president; Abbas Arjoumandi, vice-president; Jeanette Tanaka, secretary; and Allen Smith, treasurer. Dr. and Mrs. Fred Beeler, Dr. and Mrs. Irving Lo, and Dr. Stanley Moore have served as sponsors of the group.

International Students Club

Ecos Espanoles

Spanish Club

Weekly informal gatherings are held for all Spanish students. This provides an opportunity for speaking the language in a situation outside of the classroom atmosphere. These meetings also provide the Spanish Club members with an opportunity to gain additional knowledge about the Spanish speaking countries. Highlighting the year's activities for "Ecos Espanoles" are plays, movies and various programs presented by the students.

Acting as president this year has been Jane Stagg; assisting her have been Connie Bartlett, vice-president; Alice Becker, secretary; and Fannie Sapuner, treasurer. Mr. Herb Jones and Dr. Marilyn LaMond have sponsored the organization.

SPEAKING THE SPANISH language are: ROW 1, Sharon Ray, Corol Breitner, Diana Beudeman, Fanny Sapunar, Alice Becker, Jane Stagg, Connie Bartlett, Pat Collins, Diane Thyer, Carmen Alvarez; ROW 2, Mr. Herb Jones, Gerald Graham, Jim Stanner, Bill Thornton, Getulio Alvarez, Ralph Phillips, Al Ganansia, Samuel Framondi, Joe Chapel, David Sanford, Bill Pratt, Dave Eldridge, Jan Winans, Tony Martinez, Sergio Restrepo, Gustavo Fierro, Donald Erickson; ROW 3, Susie Lee, Suzann Peterson, Mary Rapley, Linda Witherell, Karen Meisel, Barbara Fessenmeyer, Lee Grasmeyer, Judy Minton, Peggy Mitz, Ann Boersma, Nancy Bond, Alta Richmond.

New on Western's campus this year is the Economics Club. This organization was founded for the purposes of promoting professional interest in economics and the furthering of economic intelligence on the campus.

Officers of the Economics Club this year have been Ronald Wykstra, president; and Jack Carpenter, vice-president. Dr. Robert Bowers and Dr. K. Phillip Rahbany have sponsored the group.

Better known as the German Club. "Der Deutsche Verein" is an organization which cultivates an interest in Germany, its people, and its customs. Each year they welcome foreign visitors to the campus and participate in various other activities.

Assisting Phillip Rathbun, president, this year have been Ruth Grostic, vice-president; Ruth Waldenmaier, secretary; and Winnie Dressel, treasurer. Sponsoring the organization have been Miss Mathilde Steckelberg and Dr. and Mrs. Hermann Rothfuss.

ECONOMIC MINDS BELONG to: ROW 1, Carl Priestland, Ronald Wykstra, Jack Carpenter, James Malone, David Zinn; ROW 2, Dr. Robert Bowers, Dr. K. Phillip Rahbany, Harry Chamberlin, Robert Tollas.

Economics Club

University Dancers

"Flying through the air with the greatest of ease" might well apply to each of the members of the University Dancers. The girls work long and hard, meeting two nights a week and doing all of their own choreography work with assistance from their sponsor, Mrs. Helen Brown. Activities throughout the year include dancing at the AWS Christmas Chocolate and presenting a two-night concert in the spring. Aside from this, much time is devoted to performing for various community groups and making tours to other cities.

Serving as president this year has been Leonora Eden. Working with her have been Irene Warsaw, secretary: Dotty Dreyer, treasurer; and Ede Kilbourn, costumiere.

Veterans' Association

OFFICERS AND SPONSOR plan veterans' activities.

A new organization on campus this year is the Western Michigan University Veteran's Association. Organized in the fall, the association is open to all students who are veterans of the armed forces. Plans are now under way for the coming year's activities.

Heading the activities for the veterans are Joe Clemente, president; Girts Berzins, vice-president; Hank Maursey, secretary; and Gordon Sauer, treasurer. Sponsoring the organization is Mr. Jack McIntyre.

Water Sprites

As happy in the water as they are when they're out, that's why Water Sprites for water-loving girls is such a big success on campus. Many long hours of practice by these girls is climaxed with the annual synchronized swimming show. This show, complete with scenery, is presented for four days in the spring.

Working with president Judy Simmons this year has been: Jan Boggs, vice-president; Jackie Ladwein, secretary; Cynthia Williams, treasurer, and Judy Richards, AWS representative. Miss Margaret Large has acted as sponsor.

The busy wives of Western's married men take time out from their work days to enjoy society and friendship provided by the Western Wives association. Putting their husbands through school is a real challenge for the girls, but they still find time for rummage and bake sales, sponsoring a needy family at Christmas, and many other activities throughout the year.

This year's officers included Mrs. Jo Strolle, president; Mrs. Linda Koning, vice-president; Mrs. Diane Toornma, recording secretary; Mrs. Ann Conrad, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Jeanne Lakti, treasurer. Sponsoring the group have been Mrs. Clarence Van Deventer, Mrs. Lester Zinser and Mrs. Frederic O'Hara.

Western Wives

The Women's Recreation Association sees to it that there are plenty of activities for the girls of Western. The recreation girls are kept busy with plans for such things as co-recreation play night and intramural tournaments. Activities offered are softball, basketball, volleyball, and badminton. The members of WRA also have a chance to visit other colleges and universities and participate in their programs.

Officers this year have been Judy Wilbur, president; Mary McQueen, vice-president; Pat McLaughlin, secretary; and Elizabeth McAvoy, treasurer. Miss Margie Miner has acted as sponsor of the group.

PLANNING ACTIVITIES for women are: ROW 1, Katie Kimmet, Patricia McLaughlin, Judy Wilber, Alice Langford, Margie Miner, Karen Wesdorp; ROW 2, Liz Yenchar, Jane Krieger, Greta Soderman, Jill Turley, Sherry Tucker, Marilyn Kreza, Joel Carothers, Sharon Miller.

RESERVES: Mary Harris, Tina Skidmore, Martha MacGreagor.

Cheerleaders

A round of cheers becomes music to the ears of these girls. The nine girls spend hours practicing to raise Bronco spirit. Regardless of the weather, they'll always be at the football and basketball games leading the Bronco cheering. Their rewards are heard from the crowd at the Bronco games.

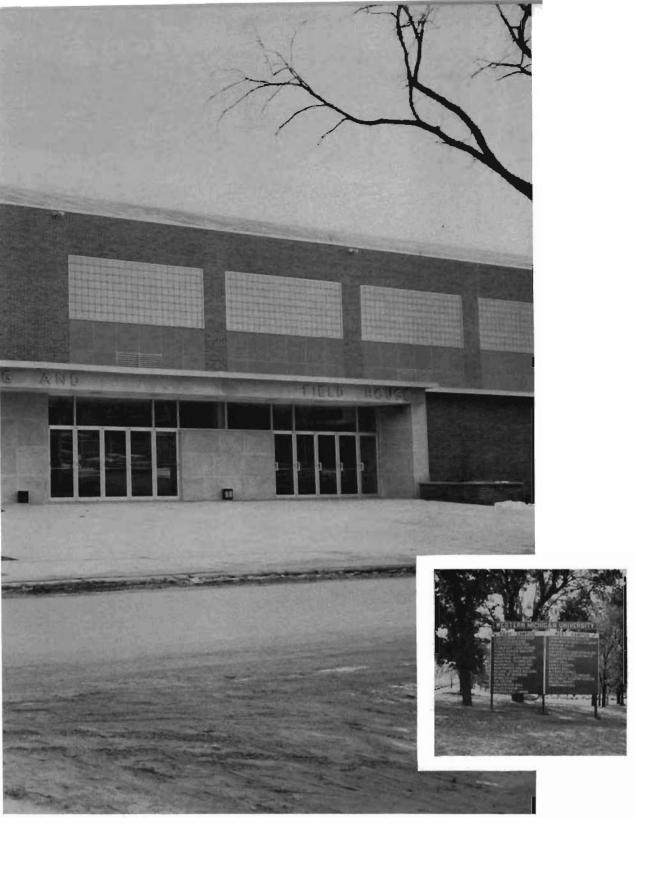

LEADING THE CROWD in cheers are: ROW 1, Jan Jordan, Ruth Shugars, Cherry Hyslop; ROW 2, Alta Harris, Penny Francis, Linda Rahn.

SKIP MUGGS DIVES out of bounds, but fails to complete the pass against Washington.

Coach Merle J. Schlosser led his "59" squad to another 4-5 record, and to fifth place in the much keener competition of the Mid-American Conference. Lovell Coleman and several others will be greatly missed through graduation by the "60" squad, but Coach Schlosser has a good returning force for the fall campaign.

LEROY REPISCHAK (55) dives to black the Kent State center.

THE BRONCOS GAIN as Dick Bezile (40) cuts around University of Detroit end.

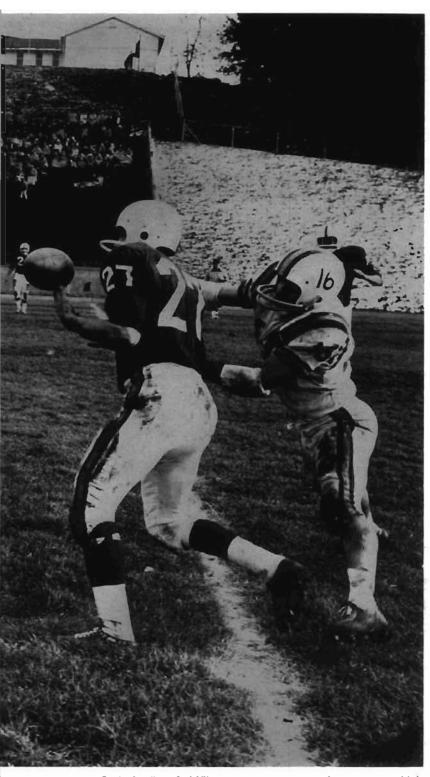

Western met tough competition with Bowling Green, the eventual MAC champs. In the next game the Broncos came back to roll over the Washington of St. Louis squad for our Homecoming game. LeRoy Repischak started things rolling in a fast way by intercepting a fumble on Washington's first play and then going on for the touchdown. The extra point was converted and Western led 7-0 at the end of forty-two seconds of play. Western pushed on to a 78-0 victory.

Western Michigan University's Broncos opened their 1959 football season against their sister school rival in Mount Pleasant. The Broncos showed a great deal of promise despite the 21-15 loss, through the excellent play of Lovell Coleman and of sophomore quarterbacks Don Seekell and Ed Chlebek, and line men Mike Snodgrass and Jim VaChon.

Mid-American Conference title defenders, Miami, handed us our first defeat in conference play, but the next week Western's gridiron men came through with a sparkling win over the Marshall eleven, to the tune of 52-0. This tied up our conference record and gave a great show to the 10,000 fans who attended our band day game. The Marshall win was a real team effort with four players scoring. This included a 99-yard pass interception in the last seconds before half-time by Dick Bezile, and the excellent passing of Ed Chlebek who completed three passes into the end zone.

THE ROTARIANS PRESENTED Lovell Coleman with the 1959 Most Valuable Player award.

LLOYD SWELNIS (27) intercepts a Kent State pass which he returned 40 yards.

Through the recovery of key fumbles and the excellent tackling of second team Little-All-American, Clarence Cheatham, we pushed down the Rockets of Toledo to again even up our MAC record. Western was edged by Ohio University, but came back to win over Kent State. Although scoring only once, Lovell Coleman made several excellent drives.

This year Western renewed its old rivalry with the University of Detroit. Mud and snow hampered the play of both teams. Western fought hard and well making the Titans earn their 14-0 win.

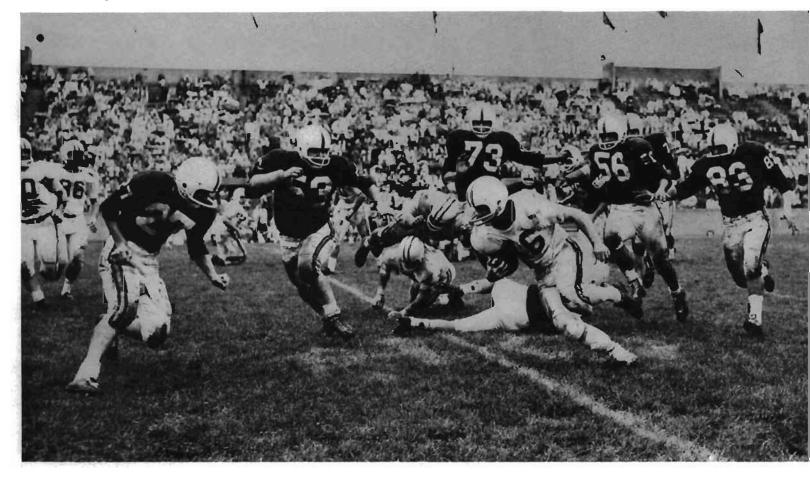

DAVE COOKE STOPS a Washington play.

SWEEPING AROUND THE side of Washington, Lovell Coleman executes one of his favorite plays for the Homecoming crowd.

WESTERN'S GRIDIRON MEN move in to prevent Kent State from advancing.

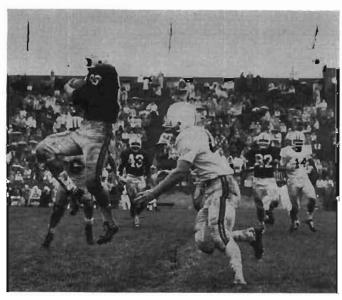

Lovell Coleman was the target of all Western's foes, but despite their efforts to hold him down, he led the team in rushing with 466 yards for 126 carries and an average of 3.7 yards per carry. Coleman, who was forced to miss two games because of a shoulder injury, still managed to lead the team in the scoring department with 34 points. He was also high man in the kickoff return column with 152 yards for eight carries. The powerful senior from Hamtramck was a truly great ball player for WMU, and he will be greatly missed by the grid men next season.

Western will graduate ten men of the varsity squad; including Lovell Coleman, Skip Mugg, Jesse Madden, Clarence Cheatham, and Ted Binkowski. Prospects are good for the "60" team, as there will be returning men in almost every position in the line and backfield.

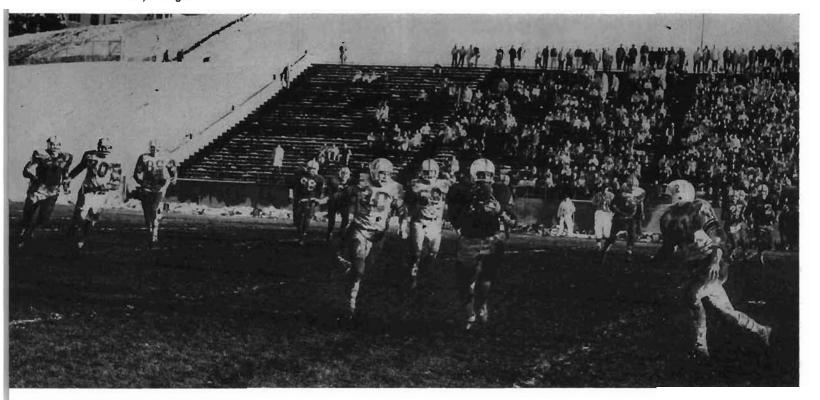

Sophomores Ed Chlebek and Don Seekell led the passing column with 555 and 466 yards respectively and showing great potential in the backfield. In the pass receiving column, Jesse Madden led the squad in total yards with 297. He was followed by another graduating senior, Henry "Skip" Mugg, with his 233 yards. Mugg was the only Bronco to make second team MAC.

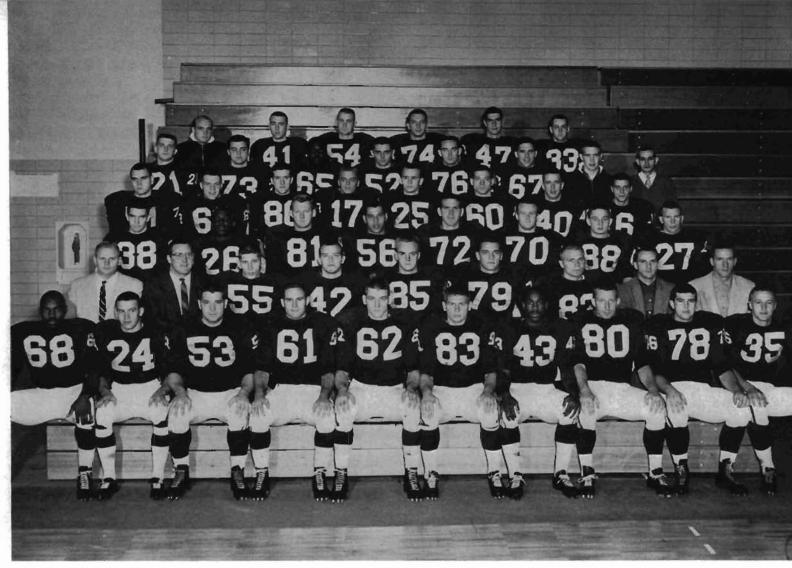

With this returning strength and with the hopefuls from the Frosh squad, Coach Schlosser and the team look forward to a very promising 1960 season.

A PERFECT PASS to Rich Jeric (83) gives Western another first down against Washington.

EVADING THREE TITAN players, Dave Cooke picks up Bronco yardage.

Varsity Basketball

In great contrast to last season's 2-20 record, Coach Don Boven's basketball five finished with a winning 13-11 record. Western had a 5-7 Mid-American Conference record for fifth place. The Bronco squad steadily improved with each game, bringing more and more excitement to the fans. Led by starters Ron Robinson, Bob Bolton, and Sam Key, the Broncos poured in a total of 1,886, points establishing a new season record. The team average was also the highest in the school's history, as the Broncos netted an average of 78.5 points per game.

Western opened against the Wildcats of Northwestern and gave the Big Ten school some moments to remember. Despite several rallies Northwestern was victorious 80-66. The Broncos bounced back to defeat Assumption University in the opening home game 106-62, setting a new high scoring record for the WMU field house. Central Michigan was the next victim of the Broncos, when they too felt the 106 point blast, as WMU tied the record set just two days earlier, beating Central 106-45.

ERNIE SCOTT LEAPS high for another lay-up against Loyola.

BOB "STICKS" BOLTON attempts to break through Loyola guards.

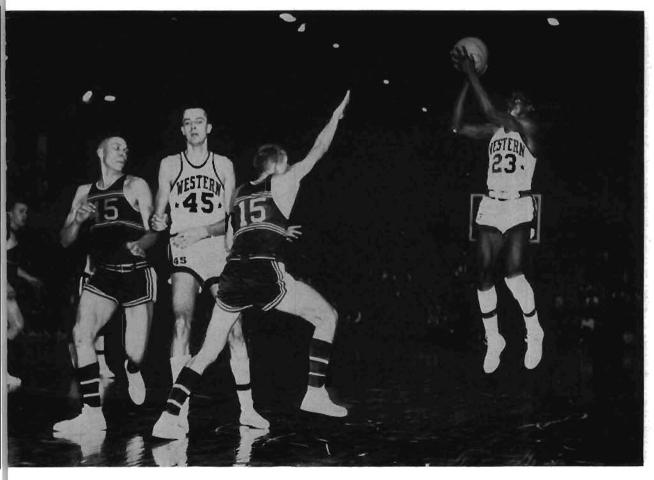

Western lost three in a row to MAC teams then came back to defeat Western Ontario 79-55. The Broncos defeated Valparaiso in the Motor City Tournament and went to the final game against the University of Detroit. The Titans provided strong competition, taking an early lead which the Broncos could not overcome.

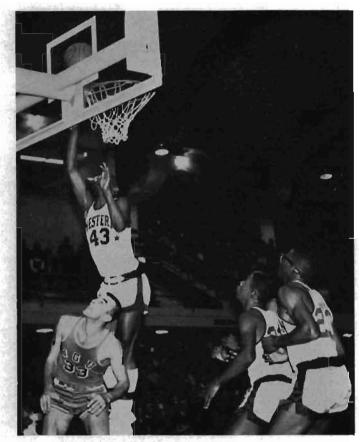

Returning to MAC competition, Western defeated favored Bowling Green 63-60 in a thriller right down to the final seconds. Later in the season Bowling Green tried to avenge the loss but again fell to the fast moving Broncos 87-85.

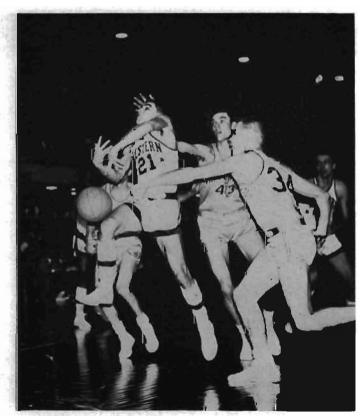

CENTRAL MICHIGAN PLAYERS become entangled in an ottempt to prevent Western from scoring.

SAM KEY GOES high in the air for a shot against Central Michigan.

RON ROBINSON GOES high for a lay-up against Bowling Green, as Sam Key and Ernie Scott move into rebound position.

A FAST BREAK by Tom Dreier is stopped by Valparoiso.

Sophomore forward Ron Robinson was very impressive all season long. He scored a total of 393 points with a shooting percentage of .450 from the field and .750 from the foul line. Robinson was exceptionally good on fast break scoring, as were teammates Bob James, Earl McNeal, Sam Key, and Ernie Scott. Key, who alternated between guard and forward positions, had a season total of 262 points. His offensive and defensive abilities proved a real menace to opponents. Bob James led the team in the points per game column with a 20.9 average for the fifteen games he played. Bob "Sticks" Bolton became Coach Boven's most effective weapon at the center position. The 6' 10" cager improved tremendously throughout the season, seeing plenty of action. Bob excelled in scoring and rebounds, getting 267 points and 241 rebounds in the twenty-four games.

The 1960-61 squad will have many returning lettermen, and should have a great deal of depth and experience. Returning for this campaign will be Ron Robinson, Sam Key, Bob Bolton, Ernie Scott, Earl McNeal, Kieth Sterk, Steve Holmes and Jesse Meriweather.

ANDY BARICH SLIDES home to score against Kent State.

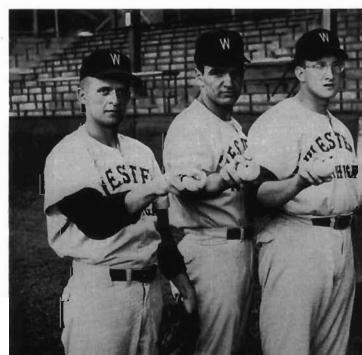

The 1959 baseball season was typical of many past seasons at WMU, exciting from the first pitch until the final putout. Western started the year with seven games in Florida, compiling a 5-2 record before returning home. They defeated Michigan (twice), Michigan State, Duke and Florida State. The two games lost included a tight 3-0 opening game against rugged Illinois and a fine no-hit game lost by Phil Bareis after his teammates allowed two unearned runs. During the year Western had a streak of nine straight victories until losing to the University of Wisconsin 5-3. This defeat was avenged the following day with an 8-6 victory over the same Wisconsin team.

As the regular season drew to a close the Mid-American Conference title was narrowed to a close battle between Western, Ohio University, and Kent State. After a close 4-3 victory over Ohio and an important Marshall win over Kent State, in 15-innings on the final day, the Broncos were deadlocked with Ohio for first place in the MAC. A play-off was scheduled on a neutral field, and Western won with a convincing score of 6-3 to win the MAC championship and the right to play in the fourth District NCAA play-offs.

After losing the first game of the double-elimination series, Western bounced back to win four straight, beating Minnesota, the Big Ten Champion. Detroit, and Notre Dame twice to take the District title. A defeat in any one of the remaining four games would have eliminated the Broncos from the tourney.

Coach Charlie Maher had several outstanding players during the season. Left fielder Larry Buchanan, right fielder Len Grabowski, second baseman Tom Wood, and third baseman Jim Hock all batted over .300; and catcher Larry Belanger collected 16 extra-base hits including seven home-runs. Outstanding pitching performances were turned in by Bill Topp, Bill Ortlieb, Phil Bareis, Ray Larned, and Jerry Socha.

Entering the NCAA College World Series, Western was among the eight best collegiate teams in the nation. After losing the opening game to powerful Oklahoma State, the eventual champions, the Broncos came back to take an impressive 14-6 win over Connecticut. Fresno State proved too strong for the Broncos, and Western was eliminated from the series in the next game. They finished in a fifth place tie with Penn State.

Varsity Track

The Western Michigan track men of 1959 met one of the toughest schedules in the school's history and came through with a splendid record. The Broncos won the Mid-American Conference title for the second straight year, and captured Michigan AAU and Central Collegiate honors.

Coach George Dales' sophomore and junior filled ranks lost to only two opponents in regular season competition, including a one point loss to Indiana University 66-65. In MAC competition the Broncos were undefeated in dual meets and gained an impressive 74-581/2 margin over second place Ohio University in the Conference meet.

Sophomore sensation John Bork ruled the 440 yard event breaking the school mark of :48.5 with his :48.4 in the Bowling Green meet and then in the triangular meet with Michigan and Marquette he broke his own record with :48.2.

The team of John Bork, Ken Woodring, Larry Taylor, and Doug Wuggazer set new records in both the mile relay and the sprint medley events. They posted a 3:17.5 for the mile as compared to the previous 3:20.2 mark, and they broke the school sprint medley time by three seconds with a 3:24.2.

VERN WHITE AND Dallas Shoesmith clear the hurdles in the Michigan AAU meet.

PLACING FIRST IN the 440 yard dash is Western's John Bork in 48.2 seconds.

SOPHOMORE VAULTER DAVE Underly clears the bar at 14 feet 3/4 inches in the Western Michigan relays.

Other key men of the 1959 track squad were sophomore weight man Wayne Gutowsky and distance men Art Eversole and Jerry Ashmore. Gutowsky set a new school record by tossing the iron ball 48 feet 113/4 inches.

The 1960 track squad should be very strong with nearly all of Coach Dales' men returning. Added to this will be outstanding freshmen Joel Johnson, dashman; Carl Reid and Dick Pond, miler; Al Smith in the 440-yard event, and several men in the field events.

Varsity Cross Country

Coach George Dales led the Bronco cross country squad to its second straight Michigan AAU, Mid-American, and Central Collegiate Conference championships. The Broncos were paced by junior sensation Jerry Ashmore, with Carl Reid and Art Eversole right behind. Ashmore's only tegular season defeat was by Notre Dame's Ron Gregory in the Notre Dame invitational meet. The Broncos were victorious in this meet however, with Notre Dame second, Kentucky third, Central Michigan fourth, and Bowling Green fifth. The Bronco's only loss came in the NCAA when the team finished in fifth place.

Tennis champions for 1959, Coach Ray Sorensen's team won its sixth straight MAC title. This brought the total to eight league crowns since the conference was formed in 1947. Opening the season with a southern tour, the Broncos won five straight. One of Western's four losses, against an impressive ten wins, was at the hands of the great Notre Dame squad which finished in the fourth spot in the NEAA and won the NEAA individual title. Outstanding tennis men for Western were juniors John Cook and Doug Poort, who won the number one and two singles contests and the doubles crown in the MAC meet at Oxford, Ohio.

Despite a sixth place finish, Coach Roy Wietz's grapplers posted a 6-3 season record in the Mid-American Conference. Heavyweight Bill Shaw completed a fine season with only one loss as he took on some very tough competition, while Bill Forester went through the season without losing a match. In the MAC meet in Athens, Ohio, Shaw won the heavyweight title and Forester took second place in the 157 pound class.

Coach Ed Gabel's swimmers finished the season with a 6-4 dual meet record, fourth in the Loyola Relays, and third in the Mid-American Relays. The WMU pool was the scene of the 8th annual MAC Championships, where nine league records fell. Sophomore Bob Isbister won the MAC 100 yard butterfly with a :57.7, setting a new school record and a new MAC record. Isbister was given the honor of representing Western at the NCAA finals in Dallas, Texas. Other outstanding swimmers were Roy Moyer, freestyle; Gary Wright, backstroke; and Ivan Wetters, 200 yard individual medley.

Varsity Golf

Compiling a 12-8 record in 1959, the WMU golfers captured fourth place in the Mid-American Conference. In Pre-conference competition the Bronco golfers scored several impressive victories, including a $22^{1/2}-4^{1/2}$ win over Valparaiso. In a $21^{1/2}-5^{1/2}$ victory over the University of Detroit, Ray Puffpaff, Norm Barney, and Fred Osmer broke par on the tough Elk's course. Coach Roy Weitz lost Fred Osmer, Al Martin, and Alex Forrester through graduation, but several impressive frosh golfers should help fill the ranks for the 1960 season.

THE FIELD HOUSE provides an opportunity for practice drives.

Frosh Football

Losing three out of four games does not tell the complete story of the frosh football team. As the season progressed they showed continued improvement by defeating Central Michigan's J.V., and then giving the mighty frosh team from the University of Detroit a good battle before bowing 26-12. Coaches Tom Slaughter and Fred Stevens have developed a number of potential prospects for next year's varsity. Karl Toth, Tom Hadrick, Pat Emerick, Roger Stranyak, and Tom Thompson are among the freshmen who should aid next year's varsity.

The 1959-60 freshman basketball squad under the guidance of Coach Pat Clysdale finished the season with an even 6-6 record. The record does not tell the whole story though, for the cagers improved steadily winning five of the last seven games. High scorers were Floyd Cook, Dick Kozik, and Gary Ruprich with a 14.8, 13.5, and 10.9 points per game average respectively.

Frosh Baseball

The frosh baseball team, coached by Fred Stevens, completed its 1959 season with a 3-1 record. The one loss, to Central Michigan, was avenged in the return game with a 5-3 Bronco victory. Gene Cooly, Ken Larsen, and Jim Robinson were the top pitchers for the squad, while Pat Bidelman, Roy Johnson, and Bob Slezak did equally well at their infield positions. Catcher Chuck Lewis and outfielders Larry Johnson, Bill Donohue, and Bob Hageman also showed great promise for the varsity team.

Frosh Cross Country

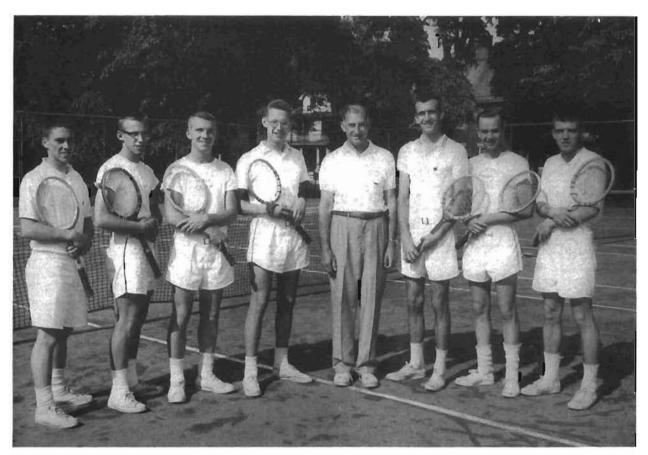

Coach George Dales' frosh track squad lost only one meet, and that to Notre Dame by a five point margin. There were many outstanding men on the team last spring, including Joel Johnson 100 yard dash man, low hurdler Dick Bezile, mile and two miler Carl Reid, 880 yard man Ron Waldvogel, and 440 yard runner Al Smith. In the field events, pole vaulter Dave Underly, highjumper Jim Oliphant, and broadjumper John Waters added great strength to the team.

The frosh cross country team finished with a very good record, taking second place in the National Junior AAU meet in Detroit, losing to Central Michigan 55-56. Jerry Bashaw was the outstanding runner for the "Ponies", along with Dave Green and George Friedriecksen.

SERVING AS PANHELLENIC officers and sponsors are: ROW 1, Miss Elizabeth Lichty, Mary Ann Jaqua, Mary Jane Kinney, Mrs. Marguerite Patton; ROW 2, Judy Jay, Phyllis Beu, Penny Pickens.

A special tribute was paid to senior sorority women by the Panhellenic Council. This tribute, initiated this year, was in the form of a senior supper held in May. Another new project was initiated this year. Pan Hell's philanthropic activities became centered around the Fairmont Hospital for old people.

The council was also instrumental in the selection and introduction of a new sorority to Western's campus. Pan Hell investigated the various sororities that wished to colonize upon the campus. After careful consideration Western gained its newest sorority, Pi Zeta Colony of Chi Omega Sorority.

COUNCIL MEMBERS DISCUSS plans of new sorority with Marilyn Miller, who was elected president of Western's newest sorority, Chi Omega.

Alpha Chi Omega

THE ALPHA CHI'S proved to be canoe experts at the Greek Week race.

Combining work, studies, and social activities, there is never a dull moment in the life of an Alpha Chi. Whenever things need to be done there are always willing and eager hands to do it, whether it be decorating for a dance, planning rush parties, or selling articles at their rummage sale. Their weeks of planning and work resulted in a Mother's and Dad's Day weekend which was a special treat for the parents.

March I has been set aside as the annual Alpha Chi service day. On this day the girls work on their national philanthropic project, cerebral palsy. Each year the girls travel to the Upjohn School for Handicapped Children. Here they work together cleaning classrooms and putting up bulletin board displays.

This year the Alpha Chi girls initiated a new tradition by holding a dinner dance for their dates. Inman's was the setting for this March affair. Greek Week activities and sorority sing practice take up many hours of work and entertainment, but the Alpha Chi's still found time to capture the scholarship trophy.

Betty James, president, has been assisted by Miriam Weisgerber, first vice-president; Marge Kobe, second vice-president; Jan Rapp, recording secretary; Diane Krugler, corresponding secretary; and Peg Baker, treasurer. Mrs. R. F. Synder and Miss Margaret Feather have served as sponsors.

CHRISTMAS, AN OPPORTUNE time for a party with the Phi Alpha's.

Every year is a busy year for the girls of Alpha Omicron Pi. They again provided the campus with one of the outstanding dances, the Campus Couple Fling, at which a campus couple is voted as most popular. Other activities that the girls took part in were Homecoming, Greek Week and various parties and service projects.

Alpha Sigma Alpha

A QUICK SNACK for girls of Alpha Sigma Alpha.

Among the many annual events sponsored by Alpha Sigma Alpha, was the traditional Fireman's Ball, a casual mixer open to the entire campus. Their other numerous activities included a Dad's Day banquet, a Mother's Day banquet, a Christmas party, participation in Greek Week, Sorority Sing, spring house parties, and other Panhellenic activities.

Filled with pep and enthusiasm, the Alpha Sigs carry on a round of activities throughout the year. It is begun with participation in the Freshman Carnival. This is immediately followed by preparing for the various Homecoming activities. Aside from the many social activities of the year, the Alpha Sigs find time to help the mentally retarded children.

Win Myers, president of the sorority this year, was assisted by Andree Koeppel, first vice-president; Charlotte Soules, second vice-president; Sue Sawyer, corresponding secretary; Pat Walper, recording secretary; and Marlene Lazenby, treasurer. Miss Beatrice Hartman and Mrs. Jack Bacon have acted as sorority sponsors.

A FIRST PLACE skit for Variety Night.

The round of activities just doesn't seem to let up for Delta Zeta, as its members participate in such events as Freshman Carnival, Snow Carnival, Greek Week and spring house parties. Providing services the girls work with orphan children; and this year they collected food for needy families with the Delta Sigs.

Serving as president this year has been Katy Mileski; assisting her have been Sue Bachi, pledge trainer; Judi Schander, corresponding secretary; Phyllis Van Gemert, recording secretary; and Sharon Spann, treasurer.

Delta Zeta

The members of Delta Zeta are able to look back over the year's happenings with a feeling of accomplishment. The girls started the year right as their Homecoming float placed first; not long after this, their skit took a first in the Variety Night show.

One of the year's highlights was the "Buttons and Beaux," the traditional dressy dance, which was sponsored by Delta Zeta and the Phi Alphas. Among their other activities throughout the year the girls honored their dates at the pre-Panhellenic Ball banquet. Mothers and Dads are likewise honored during the traditional Mother's Day and Dad's Day weekends.

SPRING HOUSE PARTIES are greatly anticipated.

ACTIVE MEMBERS OF Sigma Kappa are: Eileen Thompson, Connie Houck, Sandra Eddy, Suzette Carpenter, Susan Skirha, Alice Jacobsen; ROW 2, Betsy DeWaard, Pat Poggenburg, Dale Kalbfleisch, Liz Riley, Patti Sall, Linnea Benson, Donna Meinzinger, Jan Vanden Bos, Dee Ziegler, Ann Wallace; ROW 3, Cherry Hyslop, Elaine Magnuson, Ellen Vukorpa, Rosemary DeGrazia, Carole Greer, Susie Larson, Judy Bullack, Jane Sherman, Sandy Swanson, Jan Ott, Judy Jay; ROW 4, Sue Harper, Barb Lyon, Alice Vogel, Nancy Dran, Sallie Garrett, Kay Keane, Mary Jane Kinney, Zoe Zoeckler, Lois Rupp, Diana Glass, Cynthia Yendes.

Sigma Kappa

SLUMBER PARTIES ARE fun for Sigma Kappa girls.

The girls of Sigma Kappa have again proven to be of service to the community as well as the campus. The girls live a well-rounded life by participating in the many campus activities and providing many services to charitable organizations.

Officers of this past year have been Sandra Eddy, president; Connie Houck, first vice-president; Suzette Carpenter, second vice-president; Alice Jacobsen, recording secretary; Eileen Thompson, corresponding secretary; and Sue Skirha, treasurer. Sponsoring the group have been Mrs. Robert Schutz, Miss Betty Taylor, Mrs. Hamilton Whitman, Mrs. L. Dale Faunce, and Mrs. Gene Waldo.

Co-operating as a close group and working on such events as Neptune's Nocturn, an annual semi-formal dance sponsored by Sigma Kappa, the sorority has gained a very high standing on campus. The members are kept busy throughout the year with carnivals, Homecoming, the various Panhellenic activities, and a constant round of parties.

It's not all social life though. Among the members of Sigma Kappa are many of the girls who are in the positions of campus leadership. They too bring honor to Sigma Kappa, and help to make it known as one of the most active sororities on Western's campus.

AT HOMECOMING WE saw the "Sands of Iwo Jima."

SELECTED AS QUEEN of the Topsy Turvy dance was Gail Greenless.

Busy with activities throughout the year; these are the girls of Sigma Sigma Sigma. But, they are never too busy to remember the basic aim of the sorority; high scholarship, a strong bond of friendship among the members, and to live harmoniously with others.

Joanne Oberliesen has acted as president of the sorority this year. Working with her have been Elna Adams, vice-president; Penny Eyres, recording secretary; Kathryn Church, corresponding secretary; and Alice Langford, treasurer. Sponsors have been Miss Eleanor Linden and Mrs. Edward Robinson.

From fall until spring there are always activities for the Tri Sigs. One activity follows, and seems to top, the previous one during the entire year. The Topsy Turvy dance, always a big success, is one of the annual highlights. Campus activities such as Homecoming, Greek Week, Sorority Sing, carnivals, and many others give the girls an opportunity to combine their efforts.

Other sorority activities include numerous parties, banquets, and many service projects for local charities.

INFORMAL GATHERINGS ARE frequent during rush period.

SPONSORING THE PINK elephant dance is one of the many activities for the girls of Theta Upsilon.

Dances, parties, campus activities, and service projects kept the girls of Theta Upsilon busy all year. The girls have fun participating in such events as Homecoming, Greek Week, and the Mother's Day and Dad's Day weekends.

The Pink Elephant dance, sponsored by Theta Upsilon, has come to be a traditional event on Western's campus; as well as the tea given by the sorority pledges to honor pledges of all other sororities.

Panhellenic activities fill much of the busy schedule of the girls. There are always activities such as house parties or rush parties. But, they're never too busy to be of assistance when needed. Each year the sorority collects money and other needed items for charitable organizations.

Acting as president this year has been June Gosseaux; assisting her have been Helen Meier, first vice-president; Betty Milthaler, second vice-president; Barbara Carr, secretary; and Linda Dowell. Serving as sponsors have been Mrs. Paul V. Sangren and Mrs. Robert Ring.

Omega Chi Gamma

FREQUENT PARTIES ARE held by Omega Chi Gamma.

Acting both as a social and service sorority, Omega Chi Gamma is composed of girls who live off the campus. Each year holds a host of activities including social events and service projects. Highlighting their activities are the annual Bumble Bee Bop dance, a Mother's Day banquet and the Farewell Banquet, held at the end of the school year to honor the girls who are graduating.

The sorority was led this year by Helen Freebury, president; Bea Pingle, first vice-president; Sandra Shauman, second vice-president; Nancy Hendershot, recording secretary; Carolyn Kline, corresponding secretary; and Carole Conway, treasurer. Mrs. Marc Hansen and Mrs. Elaine Hurst have acted as sponsors.

The Inter-Fraternity Council serves as the governing body of Western's social fraternities. It is composed of the president and two representatives of each group. IFC policies provide the fraternities with housing regulations, rushing and pledging procedures, and intramural sports programs. The cosponsorship of Greek Week is also one of the important functions of the group.

Providing leadership for IFC this year were Don Nichols, president; Jerry Winter, vice-president; Paul Hendricks, corresponding secretary; Roy Stone, recording secretary; and Charlie Christison, treasurer. Sponsors were Rev. Herman Nelson and Mr. Marvin DeBoer.

DISCUSSING GROUP PLANS for IFC are: SEATED, Don Nichols, Charlie Christison, Roy Stone; STANDING, Paul Hendricks, Jerry Winter.

PAT MCANULLY WAS queen of the Carnation Ball.

Delta Sigma Phi

Well known for their many activities and events throughout the year the men of Delta Sigma Philead a very active life. Their Carnation Ball, open to the entire campus, has come to be a top social attraction. The Sailor's Ball, closed to Delt Sigs and their dates, is equally famed as everyone enjoys the real-to-life atmosphere of the salty sea at the Naval Guard Armory.

Other activities well known to members of the fraternity are collecting money for many of the various community charity drives.

Throughout the year members of Delta Sigma Phi are recognized for the fraternity's strong participation in many of the various campus activities. Intramural sports, carnivals, Greek Week and Homecoming are some of the yearly activities of the fraternity brothers.

Working with Don Peebles, president, to make this a successful year, have been Howard Rushlow, vice-president; Don Menze, secretary; and Paul Chelian, treasurer.

Phi Alpha

SANTA HAS ARRIVED at the Phi Alpha House.

Being one of the newer Greek organizations on Western's campus, Phi Alpha is rapidly establishing its prominence. The members recently bought a chapter house located on Douglas Avenue.

Acting as president this year has been Brad Tisdale. Assisting him have been Dennis Lemon, vice-president; Barry Keller, recording secretary; Warren Hardy, corresponding secretary; and Al Saylor, treasurer. Sponsoring the organization have been Dr. Nicholas Hamner and Mr. William Rosegrant.

The members are enthusiastic and their activities are numerous. One of their biggest events of the year is the co-sponsorship with the Delta Zetas of the "Buttons and Beaux" open dance. In addition to this, they are kept busy participating in Homecoming, carnivals, and Greek Week activities.

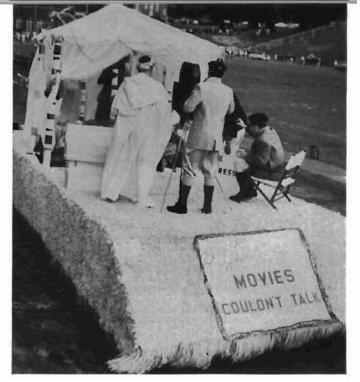

Dad's Day weekend finds the Phi Alpha members inviting their dads to Western for a luncheon and the game. The groups activities never cease, for they always find time to give support to the Cancer Drive, Blood Drive, Needy Family collections and Boys Club activities.

TIME AND ENERGY brings forth Homecoming floats.

A leader in social events, the men of Phi Sigma Epsilon have captured many trophies during the past year. Their efforts were rewarded as the Phi Sigs won the grand prize for Homecoming floats; the first place for Homecoming house display; and placed second in the DU Variety Night.

Social events reign high, but they are also a scholastically minded fraternity. They are known to rank among the highest for scholarship.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON wins intramural football championship.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

The Sig Eps pride themselves in being one of the nation's largest Greek letter fraternities. The chapter on Western's campus works hard to uphold the prestige of the fraternity's name by actively supporting all events on campus.

A close and spirited group, the Sig Eps have a good time working together to make such events as Homecoming, Snow Carnival and Greek Week a big success. The group makes it a point, however, to stress scholastic achievement among its members; and to be of service to their fellow men and the community.

Leading Sigma Phi Epsilon this year have been Jack Scherer, president; Jim Karling, vice-president; Charles Follett, secretary; and Jerry Millsap, treasurer. Sponsors have been Mr. J. W. Randall and Mr. Gale Clark.

PLANNING THE YEAR'S activities are the Sigma Phi Epsilon officers.

SIG TAU QUEEN, Miss Helen Freebury.

Chi chapter, one of 47 active chapters of Sigma Tau Gamma, is the oldest social fraternity on Western's campus. During the past year the "Sig Taus" entered into many of the campus activities, such as the blood drive, freshman carnival, homecoming, intramural sports and fraternity sing.

Officers this year were James Lauer, president; Bill Mackson, vice-president; Dar Wiler, secretary; and Dave Murley, treasurer. The sponsor of the group was Mr. James Nadonly.

Sigma Tau Gamma

"Moonlight in Vermont," an all-campus dance, was sponsored by Sigma Tau Gamma and Alpha Chi Omega in the fall. The fraternity prides itself on its social activities, but it is also extremely proud of its service to the community. The annual Christmas party for underprivileged children was a huge success. Other community activities have included participating in the cancer drive, taking under privileged children to ballgames, and doing maintenance work at the Family Service Center.

ENJOYMENT FOR ALL at the Sigma Tau Gamma banquet.

"HOME" FOR MANY of the TKE members.

With a successful 1959 behind them the Tau Kappa Epsilon members began strong in 1960. As a group, the TKE's won the IFC Civic Trophy, the 1959 Inter-Fraternity Sing, and first place in the Greek Week Bike Race.

Leading the members for the past year has been Thomas Hewitt, president; Bernie Oom, vice-president; Richard Holzschu, secretary; and Gerald Van De Gienste, treasurer. Chapter Advisors have included Dr. Robert Seber, Dr. George Mallison and Mr. Stanley Phillips.

Thomas Zemba, Brooks Knapp, John Wenzel, Larry Ely.

Tau Kappa Epsilon

Numerous activities keep the members busy throughout the year. Two pledge banquets and a Homecoming banquet are among the annual events that the TKE's participate in. Their famous Beatnik and Gangster parties try the originality of the group. An annual Winter Outing, the Ides of March closed dance and sorority parties round out the year for the group.

TKE BROTHERS PLAN activities for the year.

Building a Homecoming house display and float started a busy year for the members of Theta Xi fraternity. Activities remained high throughout the year, including the Christmas party for underprivileged children, and the annual pledge banquet in the spring.

Leading the fraternity have been Don Van Orden, president; Dick VanderVeen, vice-president; Michael Wirt, secretary; Jerry Winters, treasurer; and Larry Dandall, house manager. Sponsoring the group has been Mr. John McNally and Dr. Eugene Kirchherr.

Aside from supporting campus activities, the Theta Xi's are active in civic projects. One of the main events of the year was their participation in the local Cancer Drive, being of service to the community as well as the school.

Intramural sports, another area Theta Xi ranks high in. The men proved their best sporting abilities in football, gaining a very high rating. The remainder of the year was rounded out with parties, dances, and of course, studies.

THE FINAL GAME to determine the intromural championship.

ACTIVE MEMBERS OF Kappa Alpha Psi are: ROW 1, Paul Hendricks, Clarence Cheatham, Amos Cofield, David Jones; ROW 2, Alfred Hawkins, James Perkins, Phillip Walker, Charles Hightower.

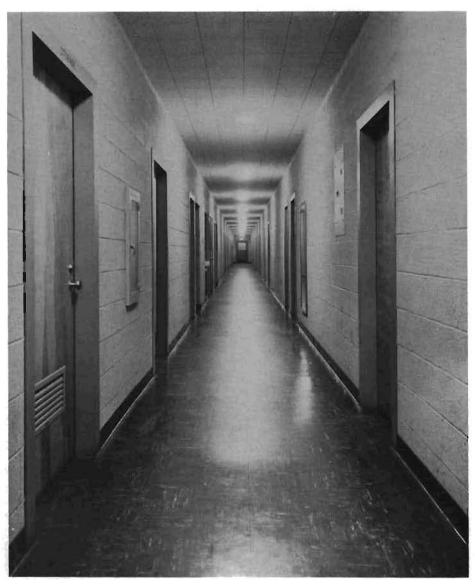

Kappa Alpha Psi

PLEDGES OF KAPPA Alpha Psi are: ROW 1, Delano Martin, Earl Washington; ROW 2, Pierre Colombel, Ronald Gillum.

The group may be small in number, but it is strong in campus activities. The men of Kappa Alpha Psi are active participants in all campus affairs. Among their numerous activities they sponsor an annual open dance in the student center.

Attaining the highest scholarship of the fraternities for the spring semester of 1959, they have always stressed scholarship. A successful year was led by Clarence Cheatham, president; Paul Hendricks, vice-president; David Jones, secretary; and Amos Cofield, treasurer. Advisors have been Mr. Junus De Groat and Mr. John Caldwell.

ALL'S QUIET ON the Western front.

Residence Halls Association

An open-air dance, held during Freshman Week, began the activities of the Residence Halls Association for the year. Among their many other activities are sponsoring the Blood Drive in the fall and spring; presenting the annual Winter Fantasy dance; holding a University Center Fun Night, mixers, and exchange dinners.

DECORATIONS in the Student Center were the work of RHA members.

PLANNING FOR A program are Dr. Paul Maier, Stan Martin, Art Deming, and Bob Grantvedt.

DIRECTING ACTIVITIES OF the Residence Halls Association.

Meeting every two weeks in a different dormitory, RHA is composed of one WIDR representative, three representatives from each dorm and the five officers. RHA is always willing to stand behind any social, cultural, or service activity which might benefit the dormitories. To give proof of this we see the organization sponsoring athletic tournaments, a mum sale and Model Linen service.

Acting as president of RHA this year has been Art Deming; vice-president, Phil Mains; secretary, Barbara Tallerday; treasurer, Larry Lindeman; and publicity director, Jeanne Giardina. Sponsors have been Dr. Paul Maier, Dr. Howard Mowen and Dr. John Copps.

MAKING PLANS FOR the Mum Sale are Gail Townsend, Kathy Rill, Sybil Simmons, Linda Scott, Tony Granelli, Dr. Howard Mowen.

NANCY BATCHELOR ANSWERS student requests as Jim King spins the records.

WIDR

Maintained and operated by the Residence Halls Association, WIDR is a student operated radio station, reaching approximately four thousand students in the dormitories of Western. Operating on a closed circuit radio broadcasting station, WIDR aims at presenting the best in music, the latest in news and the greatest in sports.

The staff, trained in practices and techniques conforming as nearly as possible with commercial broadcasting stations, has been headed by Bob Grantvedt, station manager. Bill Stankey has served as business manager and Nancy Batchelor as publicity director. The advisor of WIDR is Dr. Paul Maier.

WIDR RECORD HOP entertainment was begun this year.

A dorm filled with activity, Davis Hall, is one of the most popular girls dormitories on campus. Working together to promote campus activities and spirit, the girls are always eager to participate in such events as Homecoming, Snow Carnival, and Mother's and Dad's Day weekends. There is always a constant round of mixers, exchange dinners, and parties.

Whirling through a year's activities proves exciting. Many of the eagerly anticipated events of the year are the secret buddy system at Christmas and the Christmas party, the spring formal, and a senior dinner. This year some of the Davis girls provided a special service, that of baby sitting free of charge, during the holiday season.

Leading the Davis girls this year have been Sandy Fonger, president; Gail Mitchell, first vice-president; Loretta Moore, second vice-president; Carole Pardee, secretary; and Sue Wright, treasurer. Mrs. Helen Inman is the resident director and Miss Lola Haller is the assistant director.

A CENTER OF ACTIVITY is the desk and switchboard.

Davis Hall

EDDIE AND THE shuttle bus was the object of the Draper float.

How well do you like ice cream? To live in Draper, you have to love it, as the girls award a trophy every year to the one who can eat the most cups of ice cream.

Other activities which establish a close bond of friendship among Draper girls are a traditional Christmas decorating party. Easter breakfast, a dormitory formal and a senior dinner.

Draper Hall

A combination of studies and social life doesn't leave much free time for Draper girls. Yet they always find time to help others. Among their goodwill projects are sending children from the State Hospital to Pretty Lake Camp for a week end.

Serving as president of Draper this year has been Mary Morton. Working with her have been Louise LaMorre, first vice-president; Pat Abramson, second vice-president; Peg Slater, secretary; and Betty Kujala, treasurer. Mrs. Lucille Yost is the resident director and Miss Josephine Dominici is the assistant director.

COMBINED EFFORTS GO into making a dormitory display for Homecoming.

Each year is a busy year for the girls of Ernest Burnham, as they participate in exchange dinners, monthly birthday dinners and numerous mixers. Social activities rate highly among the girls, but service projects are never neglected. Among their many projects of this nature the girls sponsor a Christmas party for underprivileged children.

PROVIDING A BIRTHDAY cake for the girls is Mr. James Seager.

Ernest Burnham Hall

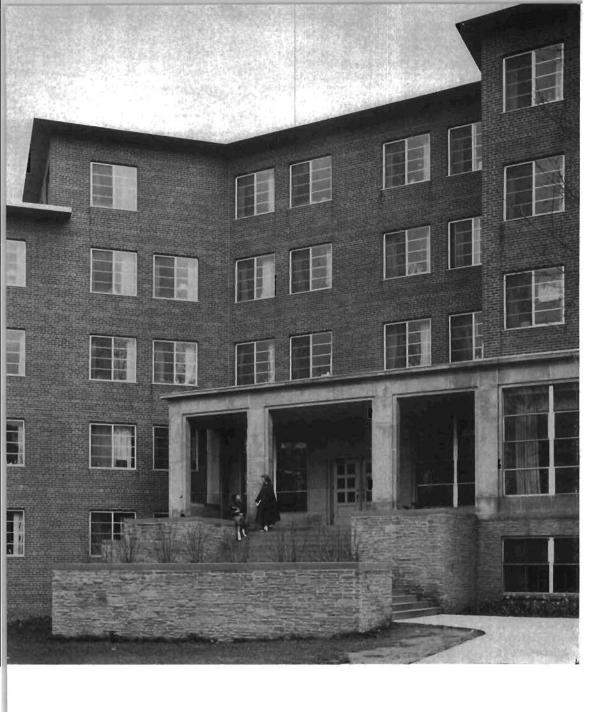

LEADERS OF ERNEST Burnham are: ROW 1, Sue Cook, Carol Saari, Loretta Schlack, Stella Stone, Linda Bush, Margaret Philpott, Nancy Trotter; ROW 2, Nancy Barber, Cynthia Williams, Jeanne Giardina, Kathleen Prychitko, Miss Barbara Gaylor, Mrs. Harry Hefner, Mona Ruzicka, Judy Duncan, Linda Campbell, Irene Foltz; ROW 3, Carol Meyer, Elaine Papayanis, Mary Mueller, Ann Werner, Carol Spear, Marilyn Davis, Sydelle Ellis, Nancy Nagle, Ellie Hinkley, Mary Lou Witherell, Carol Hesemann, Beverly Toyryla, Kaye Ames.

Highlights of the year for Ernest Burnham girls are the annual activities. Among these are the Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners, Easter breakfast along with an Easter hat parade, a spring dorm formal, and a graduation dinner in honor of the graduating seniors.

Stella Stone has led Ernest Burnham as its president this year. She has been assisted by Linda Bush, first vice-president; Loretta Schlack, second vice-president; Marge Philpott, secretary; and Carol Saari, treasurer. Mrs. Harry Hefner is the dormitory director and Miss Barbara Gaylor is the assistant director.

SERVICE PROJECTS FOR the school and community are among their many activities.

HOE DOWN DAY brought lots of excitement to Siedschlag girls.

Siedschlag Hall

These girls keep busy throughout the year as they participate in such activities as "PJ" parties in their rec room, faculty teas and dinners to help the girls get together with their instructors informally, exchange dinners with men's dorms, holiday and birthday dinners, and a party honoring spring graduates.

Many traditions are carried on in Siedschlag. Senior girls have the privilege of caroling through the hall on a morning just prior to Christmas. The seniors are also honored by signing their names on the huge posts in the recreation room.

Siedschlag Hall prides itself in being one of the largest women's dormitories on campus, as well as one of the friendliest. The only requirement one must fulfill to live in this dormitory is to be able to pronounce its name fluently.

Officers this year have included Mona Napier, president; Cynthia Yendes, first vice-president; Sallie Garrett, second vice-president; Char Currie, secretary; and Trudy Waldron, treasurer. The dormitory director is Mrs. Katherine Chapman, with Miss Doris Radtke the assistant director.

COSTUMES FOR ALL during Hoe Down Day.

DORM COUNCIL MEMBERS are: ROW 1, Peg Fogel, Joan Guilbault, Martha Gallant, Karla Peterson, Sandie Taylor, Randy Kvapil, Daria Pobutsky; ROW 2, Suzy Dick, Gail Spoon, Sallie Garrett, Trudy Waldron, Mrs. Katharine Chapman, Mona Napier, Miss Doris Radtke, Cynthia Yendes, Char Currie, Cathie Peterson, Jo Ann Melbourne; ROW 3, Cathy Briggs, Mary Bouckaert, Judy Van Slyke, Rainy Richards, Alice Derezinski, Sue Ericksen, Betty Anderson, Judy Minton, Barbara Fessenmeyer, Barbara Knutson, Ginny Zeboor, Nancy Kulenkamp, Joanne Von Rosen.

THE THREE BEARS at Homecoming for Smith Burnham.

The girls have finally conquered the Burnhams! Moving into Smith Burnham in the fall, the girls soon became acquainted and took an active part in all campus activities. Proof of their quick organizing talents was a first prize for girls dormitories house display.

The first girls to hold offices in Smith Burnham are Judy Brown, president; Jane Krieger, first vice-president; Margaret Ferraro, second vice-president; Marcia Scott, secretary; and Takayo Tottori, treasurer. Mrs. Mary Friedli, dormitory director, has been assisted by Miss Joan Chapman.

Smith Burnham

"P.J." parties and a skit night helped the girls get acquainted in the fall. An open house with Ernest Burnham, including square dancing, gave everyone a chance to become acquainted.

Excitement was high during the Christmas season. Parties, the buddy week, and a program were highlights during this time. A high spirited group, the girls of Smith Burnham have ended the coed dormitory life for Western students.

AN EXCITING TIME at the dorm.

Be it a quiet game of cards inside the dorm, or a snowball fight in front, there is always activity for these girls. The Walwood Union has not lost contact with the girls of Spindler, for they are the only ones that remain living on the East Campus.

Promoting leadership among the girls of Spindler Hall is Glenda Belote, president; assisted by Elizabeth McAvoy, vice-president; Shirley Keidel, second vice-president; Gloria Witt, secretary; and Bonnie Brookbank, treasurer.

A DECK OF cards leads to an entertaining evening.

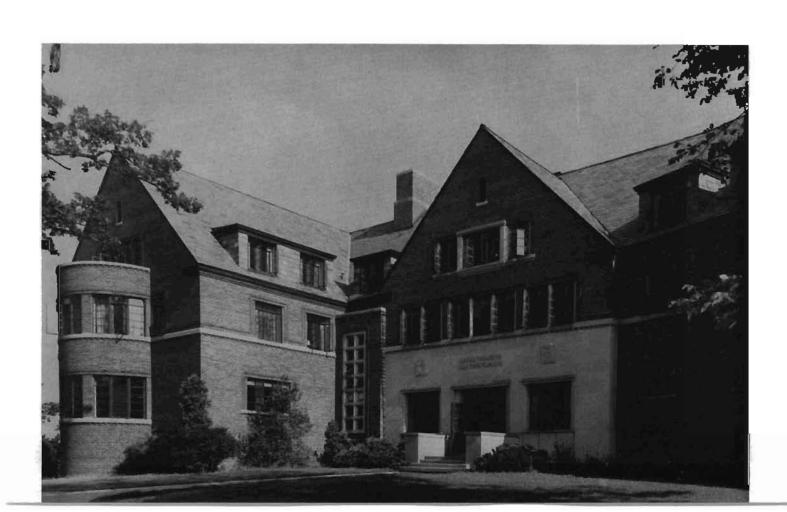

There's not too much difference between home living and living in Spindler due to the small size of the dormitory. Friendliness and a feeling of "family togetherness" is apparent among the girls who live in this east campus hall. The directors, Mrs. Edith Lake and Mrs. Mary Chaterdon, help to promote all the good times had by the girls, as is seen by the many after-dinner coffees, the Christmas breakfast and get-acquainted parties which are held throughout the year.

COSTUME PARTIES ARE popular during Halloween.

Spindler Hall

A SECOND PRIZE float for Zimmermon.

The comforts of home, smiling, friendly faces, all go together to make Zimmerman Hall a wonderful place to live. Housing only 258 girls, a relatively small number in comparison to the other dormitories on Western's campus, Zimmerman is one dorm which doesn't seem to be producing strange faces every day.

Zimmerman's president, Mary Jane Kettner, has been assisted by Phyllis Queen, first vice-president; Sylvia Zeunges, second vice-president; Judy Shafer, secretary; and Penny Pickens, treasurer.

Zimmerman Hall

Girls living in Zimmerman find themselves caught up in a whirl of gay activity from September to June. Among their various functions are an annual Dorm Formal, open houses and a will to participate in such campus activities as Homecoming and Snow Carnival.

HOE DOWN DAY brings activity to Zimmerman.

Noted for their traditional exterior Christmas decorations, the men of Ellsworth participate in numerous campus activities. Exchange dinners with women's dormitories, open houses, homecoming, and snow carnival displays left the four hundred and fifty residents of Ellsworth with hardly a dull moment this year.

THE SPIRIT OF Christmas is captured at Ellsworth.

Ellsworth Hall

CHRISTMAS WAS AN excellent opportunity for a Chocolate.

Always being a staunch supporter of all campus affairs has indeed paid off for the men of Ellsworth, for this dormitory ranks among the top in residence halls for men.

This past year Kenneth Noble has served as president, with William Dyke, vice-president; Joe Kelly, secretary; and David Sandula, treasurer.

Henry Hall

HENRY ADDED ITS touch to Homecoming.

A highly spirited group, the Henry Hall "Tigers" display their enthusiasm for college life throughout the year by participating in many campus activities. Among these are exchange dinners with women's dormitories, a dorm formal which is held in the spring and many intramural sports.

A prize winner during homecoming, the house display was another of the many outstanding projects of the men of Henry Hall. Throughout the year activity was continuous with such events as mixers, snow sculpture participation and a dorm formal in the spring. There is never a dull moment for those who live in one of Western's newest dormitories.

Leading the four hundred and fifteen men of Henry this year were Robert DuBois, president; Jack Sizer, vice-president; Dick Merrill, second vice-president; Pat Cloney, recording secretary, and James Lauer, treasurer.

HOEKJE HALL WAS officially dedicated in November.

Confusion reigned for the men of Hoekje Hall the first few weeks of school this fall. Have you ever tried living in an unfinished dorm? This they did, though, and very bravely. Undoubtedly the biggest problem for these fellows was that of just getting settled and getting to know each other. Whatever the confusion at first, the men of Hoekje are now proud of one of Western's finest dormitories.

Hoekje Hall

It wasn't long before the men of Hoekje became organized and began participating in all the campus activities. Leading the dormitory in participation were Harold Martin, president; John Schmid, vice-president; Larry Dodd, treasurer; Larry Gearhart, recording secretary; and Dan Harrison, corresponding secretary.

A SCENE TO remember for men of Hoekje.

Well known for the fact that it is the only dorm on Western's campus which does not have eating facilities, except for a snack bar, Vandercook is one of the older dormitories. Housing approximately two hundred and ten men, it is one of the few dormitories located on the east campus.

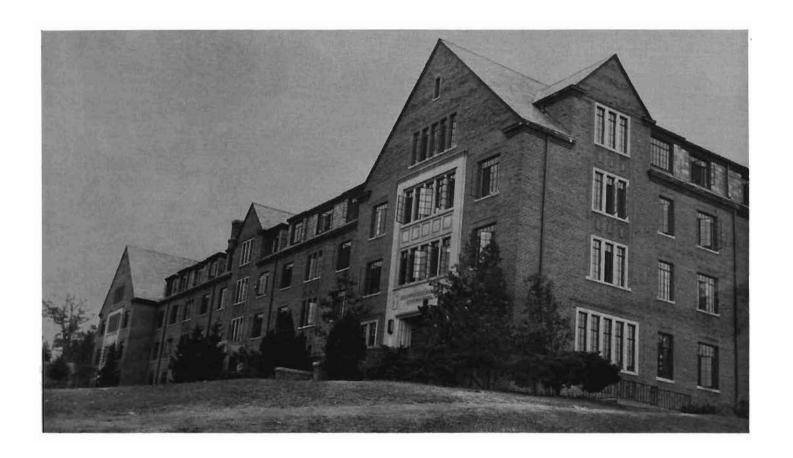

Acting as president this year was Don Kammeraad; vice-president, Frank Salzieder; secretary, Boyd Pastoor; and treasurer, John Biggott.

A QUICK SNACK is welcomed at Vandercook.

Vandercook Hall

Vandercook residents enjoy many activities throughout the year. Among the favorite activities are homecoming festivities, numerous smokers, and a semi-formal dance. Probably the most enjoyable of all activities, though, are the friendly gatherings in the snack bar.

A FAVORITE ACTIVITY of Vandercook residents.

Walwood Hall

Being one of the older dormitories on Western's campus, Walwood Hall carries with it quite a history. Until recent years it was a women's dormitory. The men reign now, however, and they enjoy their living as they inhabit the smallest residence hall on campus.

Leading the way for Walwood men were Kenneth Nakakura, president; and Larry Lindeman, vicepresident.

A SPECIAL MEAL was enjoyed at Thanksgiving time.

Although their number is small, the men of Walwood keep busy throughout the year as they take part in such activities as a Christmas party, homecoming festivities, exchange dinners with Spindler and participation in many intramural sports. Being the smallest, Walwood is perhaps the friendliest dormitory on campus.

HOE DOWN DAY saw an imitation of Charlie Weaver at Walwood.

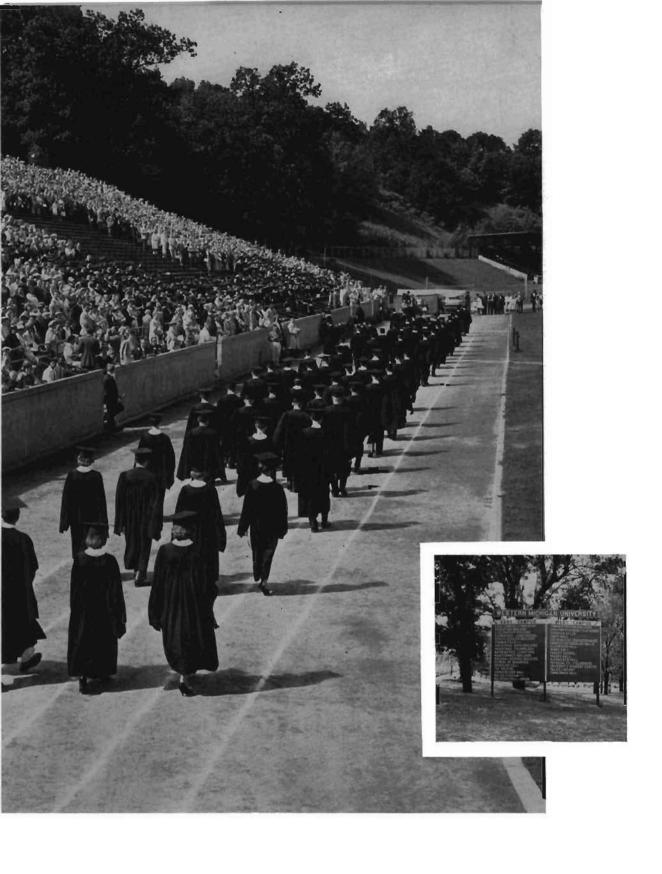

THE DORMITORY COUNCIL consists of: ROW 1, Mr. James Boynton, Ray Hutcheson, Kenneth Nakakura, August Querio, Willard Romoser, Mrs. Helen Hoekje; ROW 2, Bob Collins, James Malin, Dick Bachman, Larry Lindeman, Tony Gronelli, Ben Crabill.

TIME FOR THAT wonderful moment of graduation.

We Look at Our Many Friends

Among SENIORS and UNDERCLASSMEN

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS are: Mitzi Smith, treasurer; Keith Robertson, vice-president; Lynn Clapham, president; Sallyjo Becker, secretary; and Glenn Smith, representative.

Graduation is the End of Another Phase of Our Lives. It is Also the Time to Look Ahead to Many New and Enriching Experiences. Whether We Enter This New Phase Prepared to Teach, Enter Business, Serve Our Country, or any of the Other Many Fields of Opportunity Available; We can Always Look Back to the Days at Western. May Our Lives be so Led That Others Will Respect Us, and the School From Which We Have Graduated, Western Michigan University.

ANN ARBOR TRUST COMPANY

Complete Trust Service

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN

You've already seen the clarity and sparkle and appeal of the pictures in this book. In later years, as you thumb through the pages recalling friends and fun at Western, you will be glad your Brown & Gold staff made such a good selection of paper.

This is the fine 80 lb. Peacock Enamel made by ALLIED PAPER CORPORATION in its Kalamazoo mills. It was supplied by BERMING-HAM & PROSSER COMPANY, paper merchants.

Should your post-college work have anything to do with the graphic arts keep these two firms in mind.

Milk, in itself, is inherently good . . . but its very goodness makes it extremely sensitive to carelessness and indifference. Supreme goodness of milk demands extra care: born in the modern dairy laboratory, nurtured by the application of scientific methods to production, processing and packaging. Only extra care can instill in dairy products a full measure of health, well-being and peace of mind.
