Come together to make some sense out of confusion.

Someday what has been done will mean something.

We look for order we spurned and authority we will inherit.

Brothers and sisters, together. No. Not yet.

Hope, disappointment and broken ideals--ours.

We are the nation and the nation belongs to us.

Us. We. The newly educated, the survivors.

Where is the key to the indecipherable ?

Where is the love and peace we talk about ?

Where are we in this unnatural puzzle whose pieces won't fit.

There must be a way to hope, to continue.

The Age of Pisces closes behind us.

And we take new hope in the Age of Aquarius

This Christian Age of the Fish leaves... Old values of brotherhood, trust and love.

All promises for a new time..another try...

At living together and enjoying our times.

Real college--the education of experience.

For that education, there are no more books

To be written, no G.P.A.'s or transcripts..

Only the final examination...sometime, long

After graduation.

WMU was a Carroll looking glass,
Where nothing was a true reflection of
What was really there.
There were striking contrasts and
Broken images of a reasoned past surrounded
By an unreasonable present. Walk through
The glass and come out wearing a cap and Gown.

A university education was the most expensive
Draft deferment in popular use by our men.
Ours was the dawning of the age of the Coin-op university—where quality and intellect
Had a price.
All students were equal in the eyes of the Cashiering Department.

There were cries for more student responsibility,
While the administration delegated theirs to the city
Police.
Everywhere were uniformed cops.
21,000 students were hemmed in by police vans, cruisers
And cycles.
Nothing was untouched by the well-known, no-nonsense
Stance by our overlords and their troops.

Western was still in the jock age.
In a year when en loco parentis
And the university's father image was scorned,
We still had an antiquated phys. ed. requirement.
The student "adults" had no choice in muscle emphasis.

One hour's credit, two and three times weekly,
Students ran, lifted, bounded and strained
Their way under a system that held that
The students' bodies needed forced labor
To strengthen their well being . . . and
The Physical Education Department.

"Hup, two, three, four . . ."

A murder
Was committed on campus.
John Lubrick, deceased,
To whom the passing thoughts
Of students were dedicated for
Fleeting moments in October.

In the wake of rapings, assaults,
Suicides and riots, we finally had Murder.

Strange how people can be
Unaffected—the witnesses who
Wouldn't help or call the police
And others who ignored the act.
After all, "Farmer" wasn't even
A student.

Requiem en pace, non-student.

If all the sociologists got together and wrote a
Definition for the root of communication between
People, it would be worthless.
It would have to include the non-clinical, unexplainable
Communication between people who haven't been taught not
To relate to each other.
From the actions of babes will come the real definition
Of communication—love—between men.
There are no inequalities between the innocents—
Until they are taught their differences—by us.

"I dunno. Things jist ain't the same no more.
When I was a . . .
It ain't important.
I jist . . . I jist wish that things was easier
T' understand—like before
Like before Vietnam an' them goddam hippies.
An' before girls was so indecent, an' men
Stopped bein' men.
Yeah, those was the times ya' could be proud o'
Bein' a American when ya' stood up t' be counted
When they loaded ya' on the ship.
That was proud."

Isolation was a way of life for us.

We were students—kept apart and away from the People we had known and would join as graduates.

Perhaps discrimination is a natural feature of Modern man—a creature that feels comfortable only With his own kind, whether by race, creed or color.

Age divides the masses into tight, vertical cliques.

A person only moves up a chain—until he runs out of Links.

There are only two ages of Man which share a
Common level—infancy and old age.
We were all between—a disjointed, incomprehensible
Bridge between innocence and . . .
Whatever we will become before our cycle closes.
The years bring a lot to Man, and even while we Live them we must ask "What does it mean?
I don't really understand."

What was there for us?
What hope in a changing world
That kept repeating its mistakes?
In this, the best of all possible worlds?

Our children yet to be born
To a turmoil
And our fathers, who fought the old wars—
What could we give them
Beyond our hearts, our faith and our blood?

Our country's hope was in the young, but we were
No longer considered the young.

We had grown old under an old system. We were Left with the same dilemma we inherited from
Our elders—we too looked to those who would Follow to show us what we were unable to Learn.

We became another generation looking back to Reclaim something we had lost. Why must we Always wait?

Outside the university—that's where we were Expected to live after graduation, that's where
Life was—for us, the still living.
We kept in touch through agencies of the university
Like the Psychological Research and Development
Committee, whose work brought Western students
And local children together for a learning and Sharing experience.
This was real education—outside the classroom
And away from the old teacher/student setup.

An expanded campus meant greater awareness.
A school that prided itself in education had
To move away from the physical boundaries of
The University. Involvement was more than a
Hollow-sounding word on a placard. It meant
That what was the university was now everything
With which we came in contact. Education
Became sensual as well as cerebral.

Oh, those golden off-campus days.
Memories linger as a peculiar taste in
Your mouth. How many days and how many
Best-forgotten mornings
Make up a typical student year? We
Were poor little sheep leaving a path of
Empty glasses and overturned tables.

“Doing anything tonight?”
“Why, no. I’m not.”
“I’m not surprised.”
“Huh?”
“You’re a cute chick.”
“You’re making fun of me.”
“Sometimes I like to follow the crowd.”
“Huh?”

The '70's were thrust upon us;
Perhaps we were thrust upon the '70's.
Better equipped for the time.
Born into it, never to grow out of it,
We were the new Establishment.

Not always did we care.
Not always did we want to.
We were young and already tired.
Burning ourselves out
In a pace we didn't set.

To "Go Greek" was to ignore the world around you.
 While thousands died in Vietnam,
 Supposedly free thinking adults set aside
 Two days to play games.
 In a time when all segments of our society had to
 Make the transition into the world of the 70's,
 Greek life remained stagnant—in intellectual and
 Social infancy.
 They played and shouted and drowned out—for Themselves, at least—the sounds of a world in Revolution.

Sharon Duffy, Homecoming Queen, was introduced
To the game fans as "a queen in every sense of
The word" (every sense of the word?).
She walked up to the microphone and conceded
Daintily that she owed it all to "you guys."
The "guys," who had filled the stands for the Game and gone in for all the events and
Concerts, cheered her and echoed all the other
WMU Homecoming crowds.
A good time was had by all.

Homecomings were for the spirited . . .
Strictly a social affair.
Raccoon coats and pennants were gone, but one
Thing remained—before all the dances, concerts

And parties—BOOZE.

Per capita consumption kept names like Knollwood,
Avenue, Gables and Colony close to the fans' hearts.

Boola. Boola.

"Western, we sing to you . . ."

No.

"Fight on. Fight on for Western . . ."

No.

Fewer and fewer students related to their School through participation in Homecoming. Oh, there was nothing wrong with it—at least Nothing that wasn't there in 1903. But things Had changed, and so had people. The world Just wasn't one big parade or pep rally. The Real "Yell Like Hell" contest was in the Streets, away from the "Joe College" atmosphere Of a football game. Homecoming was another One of our little escapes from the real Yelling and hell waiting for us outside.

Snow Carnival—an annual
“Good-time-had-by-all” affair
For the young at mind—an
Excursion into Snow Queen Land
And slush mirth.

Seeking relevance in snow fests
Was like finding a Viet Cong
In the White House—
It wasn't very likely, but people
Still talked about it.

Praise the Lord and pass the Napalm!
My country, right or wrong!
Speak softly and carry a big stick!
America first!
White man's burden!
Dominoes!
Containment!
$$$$ is a four-letter word.

"Stand up and be counted,"
Activists begged us—fruitlessly.
A habit creaped upon us that
Made non-involvement the norm
And passivity a safety valve on injustice.

We wanted things done and
Activism supported—by someone else.
Our commitment was minimal.
Our pledge one of acquiescence.
The Silent Mediocrity.

A salute to a year—
 To all the causes and issues
 That caught our attention
 And the great confrontations over the War and domestic politics. This
 Was a time for change and growth.
 The old ways were no longer applicable
 And the old answers now failed to satisfy
 Those who wanted more from the new decade
 Than the 60's had offered.

If there were any limitations
On the individual—that is,
Besides a menacing government
And a self-righteous society—
It was individual fear.

Some men's freedom, it seemed,
Stretched only as far as
The chain they tied to their
Leg irons for initiative.

The War Moratorium was more than a Radical student movement. Thousands of others—Professionals, political leaders, businessmen And war veterans—all demonstrated against “That crazy Asian war.”

We were tired of an undeclared war where Thousands of our men had died, and more were Sure to follow.
John Foster Dulles’ legacy caught in the American throat, and nothing in normal Political channels could clear it.

While our President put his fingers on the pulse
Of the "silent majority" and his advisors patted
Him on the back, the youth 'n' aged took part in
The largest single demonstration against an American war.

Who was to say one side was right and the other
Wrong? The only thing clear to both sides was
That there was something wrong with military
Involvement in Vietnam.

Both sides thought they had the answers, but
No matter, since we kept fighting during the Argument.

Richard M. Nixon, President, chose in 1968 to ignore the Black vote during his close campaign. That was 22 million Americans who were left out of consideration.

On October 15, 1969, Nixon chose to ignore the Student War Moratorium.

That was a group of under-22's who would,
In two years, outnumber all other sections of
American society.

Nixon remained ignorant.

The name-callers on the right side of the aisle
Were stumped over the War Moratorium. The Participants defied easy description. They were
From every class, sex, background and political Leaning. They were out to be heard together—
Many for the first time.

The war of containment could end nothing. There
Was no honor, no pride in fighting for swamps
And hills. There were no victory parades through Crowds of thankful peasants this time. There was Only the cold satisfaction of policy—and politics.

So we fought at home—a fight to end the killing,
But our victories were as inconclusive and hollow
As those in Vietnam.

"Damn hippies! Don't have any respect for what We built for 'em. This country was strong and Real democratic before they showed up with their Communist-inspired talk about peace. Peace. They don't know what it's like in the World. They don't know what it means to be

We weren't a crazed horde of fallen
Young girls away from home restraint
Or panted, prehensile phalli. It was a time, not of the reputed revolution and Mindless sexuality, but a time of fearless
Honesty—an enjoyment of a new freedom.

We talked of love, communication,
Expression and naturalism, while others
Talked of promiscuity, banality,
Immorality and exploitation. We

Where sex was open in everything from

We turned away from Hefner exploitation,

And socially enforced guilt to the

FOOTBALL

In collegiate football's centennial year Western Michigan supports a young team with experience, as only fourteen out of the forty-nine players will graduate this school year. Sixteen of the players on the varsity are juniors. Headlining this year's campaign is the battle at quarterback, between Mark Bordeaux, last year's varsity signal caller, Gene Rademacher, a converted defensive back and Ted Grignon, last season's freshman team quarterback. One of these three offensive signal callers will demonstrate the Houston Veer Offense for the first time before the Bronco spectators' eyes in the Central Michigan game on September thirteenth. Defensively Mike Siwek is expected to lead a fine Bronco rush accompanied by Chuck Andrews, Todd McCall and Vern Davis. With this rush and the staunch secondary, Western should prove to be difficult to score against.

FRONT ROW: A. Bush, J. Mitchell, M. McCann, K. Volk, T. McCall, P. Minnis, M. Siwek, C. Andrews, T. Dyszkewicz, F. Mooney, E. Snyder, P. Schneider. SECOND ROW: B. Griffin, L. Thompson, D. FOOTBALL

In its first encounter with the Houston Veer triple option offense, Western dropped the Chips of Central Michigan 24-0 before a crowd of 29,000. Making his debut at quarterback, Gene Rademacher helped engineer the exciting Band Day victory, as he rushed for 77 yards. Bronco fullback Bob Ezelle out trod all rushers with 114 yards in 17 carries. The entire defense held together as they held CMU to four completions in sixteen attempts for only 39 yards. Western's frontal assault bolsters the ferocious four: Mike Siwek, Chuck Andrews, Greg Iwaz and Roosevelt Thomas, who kept the lid on CMU's Jack in the Box, Bob Miles. Denny Keck, Edd Snyder, Gershwin Drain and Vern Davis kept the receivers' hands tied in a very pleasing shut-out win.

FOOTBALL

With 1:09 left in the game, Western's quarterback Mark Bordeaux directed the Broncos for their first conference score. Going for the victory, Western tried a two point conversion followed by an onside kickoff, both attempts failed leaving Western on the short end of the 24-20 score. After the close contest with the Redskins, the game at Bowling Green seemed like a run away for the Broncos as they were left in the dust. Western finally kicked back late in the fourth quarter with a touchdown and a field goal. The Broncos reared up the following week against Kent State, scoring in every quarter; by the time the final whistle blew Western led 33-13. Western's offense showed a well balanced attack against the Toledo Rockets with 141 yards rushing and 144 yards passing. The Broncos defense could not stop the Toledo Rockets from taking off for another victory as Toledo soars on their way undefeated in the Mid-American Conference.

FOOTBALL

Playing before a Waldo Stadium record crowd of 22,200 Western ripped Marshall 48-14 to celebrate a Homecoming victory. Leading the Bronco's to their most impressive offensive in their history, sophomore quarterback, Ted Grignon piloted the bucking Bronco's to a record 35 first downs, while running up 567 yards total offense. Despite the teams poor record in the conference, they moved to within one game of an even season. A week later when Western trotted onto the field at Pedon Stadium, they ran wildly away from the defending conference champs, Ohio U. In the first half it looked like a rodeo and the Bronco's were bettering the riders 17-0. A second half turn-about in the play of Western cost them 22 points and the game. Two different halves and two distinctly different performances let the football team down, down to a 1-4 conference record, behind the undefeated Rockets from Toledo.

CROSS COUNTRY

Undefeated and unapproachable describes Western's harriers as they continued to perform phenomenally in any type of weather. Crushing all opposition on hilly and flat courses, Western's major victims included: St. John's, Wisconsin, Michigan, and Eastern Michigan at four, five and six mile distances. Pacing the Bronco trotters through its most exciting season since 1965, when WMU won the nationals, Mike Hazilla rebounded from a broken ankle. Jerry Liebenberg, Gary Harris, Jack Magelssen, Paul Olmstead, Dave Hein and Steve Gorsalitz consistently placed well for Western. In the meet at Ann Arbor the first five finishers for WMU finished only 21 seconds apart, while the last two qualifiers crossed the finish line only 24 ticks behind. Coach George Dales guided two teams from Western to national prominence in the NCAA. Western appeared to be headed for the top run again this season.

BASKETBALL

Tipping off against the Hawks of Wisconsin State, the Bronco's hooped it up breaking the field goal record, while soaring past the birds to their second highest point total in Western's history. Western gave the fans something to cheer about, something like western fans have never seen before in an opener. University of Pacific invaded the snowbound northland and pulled out a squeaker 77-75. Fouls soured Western's victory taste with cod liver oil as Sonny Means almost piloted his squad to a second honey. Packing their tennis shoes for the first time of the new season WMU fouled up the second game in a row as they fell to the Spencer Haywoodless Titans 82-71.

Foul trouble. Western has foul trouble. They seem to want to kill themselves, but they play so well and try so hard. Why? Western doesn't want to lose any more than any other team. Fouls as the saying goes are in the eyes of the beholder. Other than the foul trouble Western has played exceptionally well. Bill VanderWoude has paced the squad after a years layoff with an injured back. Ellis Hull continues to spark our cagers with his swift theft hands and hot shooting abilities. Earl Jenkins, Bill VanderWoude and Leroy Dixon have teamed up to defeat all opponents on offensive and defensive rebounds. The comeback against Pacific fell short. Fouls hurt Western worst at U of D and then MSU played way over their heads to defeat a hard working Western squad. Things will get better. Watch out MAC.

BASKETBALL

Western's cagers continue to play just good enough to lose. The squad has only been out of one game so far this season and yet have seven loses. The game they were with was MSU, who played phenomenally that day. The roundballers marksmanship doesn't appear to be improving, yet for that reason alone, they have been losing. Count WMU as a good basketball team that doesn't score. If Western could shut out their opponent, they wouldn't lose!

BASKETBALL

SWIMMING

After finishing a meager fourth in the Mid American Relays, Western took a deep breath that put the water in motion, nearly drowning the Western Ontario foes. WMU's times are not very impressive but Coach Gabels believes, "We will improve with practice and get stronger as the season goes on." Western's best performances have been by Don Miller, who was a double winner in the 1,000 yard freestyle and the 200 yard backstroke. Bruce Kreps won the one and three meter diving events. Dave Petersen, Western's foremost backstroker was out with an illness and was not available for the first six weeks of the season. The showings that Western has made so far according to Gabels, "will not decide how the team will fare in the young season."

Western's youthful wrestling squad looks forward to the upcoming matches as an experience for the future. The squad does boast some veterans such as Dennis and David Buford, Dick Bacon, Steve Newman, Dave Simpson and Tom Lehman. In their opening match against Ohio U. Western's grapplers didn't fare very well as WMU lost six of the first seven weight classes. Dick Bacon won the 137 pound class while Steve Newman and Roger Rapaport won their matches. Tom Lehman chalked up the remaining two for Western as he drew with his opponent in the 177 pound class. This is a squad for the future with a new head coach George Hobbs. Look to the future Western.

GYMNASTICS

Winning their first meet of the season over Central Michigan and Eastern Illinois, Western's gymnasts appear headed toward the best season in their short history. Co-captains Larry Jordan and Chuck Beatty placed high in the meet as Larry captured first on the parallel bars and second on the still rings. Chuck tucked away a third in the parallel bars. Other high placers in the meet were: sophomore Dennis Spencer, who merited eight points for his floor exercises and gained a second place. Jim Alderink led the sweep of the high bar, which promises to be one of Western's best events of the season.

HOCKEY

Generally a team that wears skates instead of shoes requires ice to practice on. Western's hockey club has no ice that they can call their own, like Ohio and Bowling Green. Western isn't varsity and isn't supported as a varsity team is. Yet WMU's skaters continue to play hockey-winning hockey. WMU hasn't had a losing hockey team in its 11 years of existence. This year the Bronco's stand 4-2 so far and appear headed for its eleventh season without a losing record or an arena. Coach Ed Edwards has lead the fight to win Western an arena and a varsity hockey team. His efforts are beginning to show. He has gained some support from the athletic department. An arena is being planned. In the meantime the hockey team continues to play, and win.

SOCCER

A new sport at Western that promises to grow and excite the students is soccer. Coached by John Adeje, the squad went undefeated through 10 summer matches and 18 fall encounters. The club gained the support of the students, as fans, and through the Student Association, which provided them with shoes. Leading the offensive attack for the kickers John Muhanji averaged three goals a game. Nathaniel Richardson averaged one goal a game to bolster a fine attack. Complementing a fine offense, the defense headed by Gene Shannon allowed less than one goal per game. Soccer adds a new dimension to Western's athletic program. Next season the squad is to play on its new field.

FRONT ROW: Lynden Morris, Mike McIntosh, Ron Reese, Mike Straka. SECOND ROW: Gyula Ficsor, Advisor; Mike McClain, Ivan Mascarenhas, Andy Kalnap, John Adeje, Coach. BACK ROW: Tom

Zane, Todd Menig, Nat Richardson, Mark Stutzman, John Muhanji, Tunde Odetola, Jim Klood, Gene Shannon.

TRACK

Western's track team is in its 18th season under the leadership of Coach George Dales. In those 18 seasons of guidance Dales has never experienced a losing season. Last years squad came from a 45 point deficit to win the Mid American championship by seven points over Ohio University.

This seasons track team is made of the same material and is still under the "best" guidance in the nation. Heading up the list of great runners on the 1970 Track team are: Jerry Liebenberg, Jack Magelssen, John Bennett, Gary Harris and Dave Hein. Ken Jackson and Rod Mack will assure Western of a talented hurdling attack, while Larry Robards and Mike Blowers show promise in the pole-vault.

TRACK

Warren Converse, Dave Phillips, Gary DeMar and Tom Elias should add the power that Western needs in the weights. In the first meet of the season Western dumped the Irish of Notre Dame by a slim 64-63 mark due to the fine all around attack of the Bronco athletes. Coach Dales stated, "I am very happy with the performances of the men thus far, especially in the field events." Western appears to have another tough team this year that will win without the help of four time All-American Tom Randolph, distance ace Mike Hazilla or vaulter Wayne Lambert.

TRACK

Western's outdoor track team had a highly successful season as they won the Mid-American Conference championship for the eleventh time in the past twelve years. The Broncos entered the Central Collegiate Conference showdown as the defending champions against a talented field which included Kansas University, the 1969 Indoor Track Champions. But the Broncos were just edged out of first place by Ohio U. The big man on the team was Tom Randolph who captured a second place in the NCAA 220-yard dash which was won by San Jose State's John Carlos, the fastest human in the world. At the AAU meet in Miami, Florida, Tom finished second again in the 220-yard dash which earned him a spot on the United States track and field team. Last summer in the U.S.-Russia-British Commonwealth track meet, Tom settled for second place behind Carlos, defeating the fastest men of Russia and Great Britain. Other Broncos who turned in fine performances for the season were Jack Magelsen, Jeromee Liebenberg, Mike Hazilla, Ken Jackson, Chuch Bostrom, Leroy Dixon, Jim Mitchell, Rod Mack, Wayne Lambert, Mike Gross, John Platek and Warren Converse.

BASEBALL

Coach Bill Chamber's surprising youngsters played exceptional ball in their 28-12 season. Five sophomores held starting positions, wearing half of the uniforms on the squad with 13 juniors expected to return. WMU has good reason to expect a fine squad this season, because the freshman team finished 9-1 to bolster more youth for this year and the coming seasons. John Pasierb merited All MAC with his superb 8-1 record as he completed nine games in ten attempts. At one point in the season WMU earned a 17-3 record, but after the Ohio U. series the squad's ability to win the close-ones dissipated.

CHEERLEADERS

TENNIS

After losing four of the top six players this year Western hit its first losing season in twenty years. One of the brighter times in the season came on the last day, when Scott Kerchner fought his way to the runner-up position in the 6th flight of the Mid-American Conference title meet, which was held here in Kalamazoo. The year consisted of hard work, playing of tough teams, and the building of experience. With the experience of four returning lettermen and help from freshman, Western should be back on the winning track next year.

GOLF

With only two returning lettermen the golfers, in their rebuilding year, found the Mid Am very strong. The squad only lost one home contest, but failed in the Mid Am Championship as they shot their highest round of the entire season. The team had peaked too early. Timo Kilpelainen fired a 72 in the Mid Am Conference Meet and earned a spot in the nationals for the second straight season. Kilpelainen is the only Bronco swinger to qualify for the NCAA Tournament twice.

Nick Sharon, Mike Fedewa, Bill Fuller, Dan Brewer, Wayne Fordham, George Malacos, Steve Eckert, George Hobbs, Coach.

A year of many faces and many emotions, filled with anxiety and anguish, thrills and torture, victory and vexation. "It was a very good year," I felt: a crunching Intramural block, a breathless one mile run gasp for air, a throbbing headache filled with patriotic cheer and a churning stomach from fumbles and turnovers. We won. We lost. We tried our best. We tried our best.

WALWOOD HALL

"Once there was an Old Bar Room" and this commodity was recreated and added to those days viewed traveling down West Michigan Avenue before the homecoming game. This dorm holds a banquet each semester to honor its residents who are known by sweatshirts bearing a design chosen from those submitted to the house council each fall for this purpose. Some of the activities set up by the dorm's educational program committee have included talks from Mr. Ethridge, Alberta Brown and Coach Doolittle. The residents have seen such movies as "Dead Birds" and "All Quiet on the Western Front." Some of the topics they have discussed are; insurance, broadcasting and child education. These programs and a jam session held with French illustrate the variety of interests shown by the men of Walwood.

VANDERCOOK HALL

A dorm picnic gave the residents of Vandercook a chance to get to know each other last September. Once established, their house council presented movies by W. C. Fields and Bela Lagosi's Dracula series. Total open housing was passed in Vandercook, but their biggest crisis has been over a ping pong table. Despite their differences, the men have similar interests and all heard James Casey speak at Vandercook during the fall semester.

SPINDLER HALL

Both Spindler Hall and its house council are unique additions to WMU this year. Spindler Hall is the only all freshman dorm on campus. It was set up as an experiment in dorm living, and thus far it is working very well. Likewise, the house council is an experiment in dorm government. The dorm is divided into five areas with a governor and four representatives from each area sitting on the council with the executive board. It appears that this form of government will work out very well, but only time will tell.

ELDRIDGE-FOX HALL

Eldridge-Fox's house council is now meeting in an office completely furnished for this purpose. An hour was set aside every Thursday night for the residents to see programs selected from areas of special interest to them. The dorm's football teams did very well, placing first and third in its league. Eldridge-Fox's "Salute to the Fifties" featured the beginning of the space age, Elvis Presley's start in rock and roll, and the famous hoola-hoop. The end of the first semester saw tryouts for "A Concert-in-a-Round" given in January. The dorms activities also included plans for a coffee house.

HARRISON-STINSON HALL

Harrison-Stinson has been the center of a wide variety of activities this year, with emphasis on the entire quad rather than on Harrison-Stinson alone. Halloween brought about great excitement and enthusiasm as a ten dollar gift certificate was awarded to the girl with the most creative costume, judged by the cooks in the serving line. With their brother dorm Eldridge-Fox, Harrison-Stinson sponsored movies, dances, a Christmas party for needy children and a new Thursday night program. The women of Harrison-Stinson Hall have established leadership, enthusiasm, friendship and responsibility, making them a vital part of Western's campus.

GARNEAU-HARVEY

The men of Garneau-Harvey have a special room for their president to reside in during his term of office. A carpeted presidential room has become part of the traditional privileges granted to this dorm's president. Recently the house council has completely refurnished its pressing rooms. This project, started last February, meant converting the rooms into study areas which give the residents a place to concentrate on their homework. The "Spirit of Gar-Har" is also published by this house council. This weekly paper includes Garneau-Harvey's house council minutes, the results of each athletic event and news of all social happenings.

Britton-Hadley

Some of the topics discussed at Britton-Hadley have been birth control and the communications gap. Dr. Vanderbeak also visited the dorm to talk about abortions. This house council has made contributions to the Broncettes, Alpha Kappa Alpha and Kappa Delta Pi. Both the residents of Britton-Hadley and Achley-Schilling had a chance to preview the movie "Whatever happened to Baby Jane?" during the fall semester. Presently the girls are working for carpeting and draperies in their study room which was put in downstairs last year. They're biggest event was a Christmas party for the mentally retarded people at the Fort Custer Center.

ACKLEY-SCHILLING

Dorm life is a very important part of one's college career. The dorm is not just a place to rest after a day of classes. It is also a place of relaxation, activity and learning. This facet of college life is well realized by those in Ackley-Schilling. Activities such as dances, mixers and movies are promoted for the enjoyment of all residents. The learning experience covers the spectrum from guest speakers to the informal learning of those who live around us.

The men of Ackley-Schilling are proud of their dorm. Its House council keeps abreast with the needs of its residents. The activities are designed around the wishes of those who live there. An atmosphere of friendship has grown within its halls. This friendship is exhibited in the spirit displayed by its intermural athletic teams, participating in university events and general good will all year round.

EICHER-LEFEVRE HALL

Eicher-LeFevre, located in the second complex of Goldsworth Valley, has had programs aimed at giving everyone a good time. They have made contributions to the Kalmazoo Tutorial Program through the AKA's and are supporting an exceptional child. A slide show previewing the coming semester was shown and Eicher-LeFevre's house council also planned a Christmas party for needy children. Campus projects have included working for better lighting and security practices. Numerous dances were held with Garneau-Harvey throughout the year.

ZIMMERMAN HALL

Zimmerman's "Buttons and Bows" took third place in the float competition during homecoming and many witnessed the victory of their canoers in the valley pond. The girls have had special programs for Dad's Day, Halloween, and Little Sister's weekend. A hoot-nanny and Planned Parenthood presentation was also made available to the girls. The residents of this dorm received a trophy for their Telethon with Ellsworth Hall and were also awarded the Lambda Chi Donation Trophy this year. A party for blind students held on the first of November highlighted Zimmerman's activities in the fall semester. The girls have also been quite active with their petitions to keep Zimmerman a girl's dorm; for more lighting and for the proposed Junior-Senior release.

BIGELOW HALL

The men of Bigelow pride themselves on being number one in everything they do. In intramural competition on campus they placed third in track and can boast that Andy Messenger from Bigelow was first in handball. It's not hard to see why they received the All Sports Trophy since they were also swimming champs. Determined not to excel just in physical activities, the men worked hard to achieve more total points than any other dorm participating in this years' homecoming events. This meant not only winning the canoe race, but also sponsoring a queen candidate, Diane Bertelsen. The men from Bigelow constructed a float which took second place in its area of competition.

HENRY HALL

The girls of this dorm had a chance to get to know each other at a stationary party held especially for the new freshmen in September. Many other programs sponsored by the house council at Henry Hall have highlighted the leaders of our campus such as the presidents of Pan-Hel, AWS and Men's Union Board. They also explored the many types of communication available for student use and held a pajama party during little sisters weekend. Henry's decorations for homecoming consisted of cartoons which hung from their advisor's balconies. A sequence in three parts was designed to represent the expected victory of the Broncos, depicted as cavemen, over the worms of Marshall.

ELLSWORTH HALL

The men of Ellsworth have been united by their participation in the sports on campus. This dorm hosts the top two soccer teams of the year as well as a second in the swimming competition. A team that was first in touch football also resided at Ellsworth this year. On its way down Michigan Avenue, Ellsworth's float was thought to be ideal for playing hookey. The boys donated not only their finances but their services to numerous causes and they could be seen ringing Christmas bells for the Salvation Army. A telethon with the girls of Zimmerman exceeded the previous record of twenty-six days. Dr. Nagler visited the dorm to discuss the draft system and another speaker talked about religion. The most significant, but least noticeable change at Ellsworth this year was an internal unification of its residents with the house council presently working for an office in the dorm.

DAVIS HALL

Davis thrives on democracy in the pure sense of the term. Residents' opinions were polled to reach an answer to such problems as the Sunday dress rules and open visitation expressing the women's views. Their art exhibit presented a chance for each girl to let loose and create. Creation continued on until the Jitterbug floated down West Michigan Avenue before the homecoming game symbolizing their theme of "Bug 'em Broncos." To advance the bodies as well as the minds Davis entered a campus swim meet, placing second. The result; a well round program of dormitory activities for all involved.

MOORE HALL

The list of activities at Moore Hall this year included a campus wide hootenanny which very successfully brought the atmosphere of a coffee house to this dorm. A secret exchange was held with Hoekje. This also involved a tug of war during little sister, little brother weekend. "Under the Rooftop" this dorm decorated their windows with balloons for homecoming. They then made, with help from the men of Vandercook, a life size replica of Dumbo the Elephant. At Moore's halloween dinner, a costume party took place with competition between the various corridors. The council holds bi-weekly presentations, one of which was the educational film, "Birth of a Baby". Moore's agenda also provided a chance for the girls to invite their favorite professors to dinner.

ERNEST BURNHAM HALL

Involvement is the key word for the women of Ernest Burnham Hall and a very promising way to enrich one's life. The women are involved in various activities within the community, the campus, and the dorm. Community activities include such things as the Kalamazoo Tutorial Program, and the yearly Christmas party for the underprivileged in Kalamazoo. Campus activities include such things as Dad's Day, Mom's Day, Little Sister/Brother Weekend. They also participated in Homecoming, the Snow Carnival, and they took first place in the Blood Drive. The women of Ernest Burnham seek to be recognized as outgoing, concerned, and involved.

SMITH—BURNHAM HALL

The Smith Burnham residents say "hi" to all you WMU students. Although they inhabit one of the older dorms, the atmosphere is very homey and everyone is ready and willing to meet people and help one another. They are very active, participated in the blood drive and won the All-Sports Trophy for intramural sports. This year they devoted their entire efforts to a float that won first place in competition with the other women's dorms. An old fire engine portrayed their theme of "There'll be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight". Traditions are not forgotten and this dorm celebrates the yuletide season with a Christmas tree decorating party. This, their favorite time of the year, unifies the girls with a wish, from all of them of, "Peace on Earth, Goodwill to Men".

DRAPER HALL

The girls of Draper first extended their hospitality over the summer as the incoming freshmen received letters from appointed big sisters welcoming them to the campus and this dorm in particular. The girls started the year with petitions for improving the hall and changing its dress code. Guest speakers included Mr. Richard Sutton. Over little sisters weekend the council prepared a popcorn party complete with folk-singing and a skit for their visitors. Homecoming found each of the corridors working on a section of a float which featured Mickey Mouse. He was accompanied down Michigan Avenue by mouseketeers who had also participated in the Yell Like Hell contest. Draper was very happy to see Barb Dinwiddie, their candidate for queen become a semifinalist.

FRENCH HALL

A little girl in Turkey can be proud to have the girls of French for her foster family. Full of humanitarian spirit the women of French were working for more lights on campus by writing letters to the maintenance department. To raise enough money for a new piano the house council has also been conducting smacker sales and dances. A hayride climaxed the work of a slave sale and carwash held with their brother dorm, Walwood.

SIEDSCHLAG HALL

The house council at Siedschlag has been concentrating on providing comfort for all the residents of this dorm. In keeping up with the times they have taken quite a liberal attitude towards life while working to keep the girls informed with programs on narcotics and planned parenthood. These girls consider the promotion of human relations more important than activities for entertainment. They have also donated money to the tutorial program, the moratorium and the university choir which preformed in Siedschlag's lounge last November. The girls greatly enjoy having their new director, Mrs. Price, and have been brought closer together by the thought of being part of her wonderful family.

In an age of great change, Greeks have been Revolting.
 They are their own paragons—
 Their hubris an excuse and seeming rationale.
 They are what their actions show.
 Self interest and games occupied the "Actives " time and alcoholic energy.
 Brotherhood.

As plastic as a Mattel doll,
Sorority Sue walked, talked and
Drank her way through Greek life.
Greek membership thrust responsibility
On the sisters, and they assumed it all
With smiling charm and enthusiasm.
"Ye shall be known by thy works,
Not by thy words." Sisterhood.

Are communion with the Host of money and the
Liturgy of antique ritual
And unkept pledges . . .

ALPHA PHI

We're quite a group and pretty big, seventy-five to be exact. As everyday travels on and as those days turn into weeks, something happens to make us strong and sturdy to the peak.

Many times the pleasures we have in life and everyday come not from "getting"—which is nice, but giving in different ways. And then came our house which taught us sharing and individual rights.

We are a happy group and we stand for more than a name; because each of us is Alpha Phi, and for this we have no shame.

CHI OMEGA

An outstanding sorority, both Nationally and on Western's campus, Chi Omega continually strives for the achievements and recognition which set it apart from the usual. These women, through a fine rush program, have a unique pledge class and an exceptional sisterhood to be proud of. It is their hope that the coming years will continue to hold constructive and worthwhile records of accomplishments for the University and the Greek system, and especially Chi Omega.

DELTA SIGMA THETA

Delta Sigma Theta is a national public service society having over 400 chapters located in nearly every state and in the republics of Haiti and Liberia. The sorority was founded for the purpose of promoting higher ideals in moral, intellectual, and cultural aspects of life.

Delta Upsilon chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was founded at Western Michigan University in May 1953. It too has contributed to the sorority's purpose of public service through such activities as giving scholarships, adopting high school and elementary little sisters, donation of Black history books, awards for promotion and recognition of outstanding Black leadership, food baskets to needy families, and others. Delta Sigma Theta is not only a society existing for mutual devotion and inspiration of its members, but also as an organization dedicated to public service by which the larger society is benefited.

DELTA ZETA

The year passed quickly for the sisters of Delta Zeta, with memories of Homecoming, Greek Weekend, Dad's Day, and Mom's Weekend—all the moments that are fun.

But memories are made of more serious things too; clothing for the Navajo Indians, toys for orphans, speakers at meetings, all adding up to a better understanding of ourselves in relation to others.

Sisterhood—unity of spirits and of minds—enrichment—we have found them all as sisters in Delta Zeta.

GAMMA PHI BETA

To LOVE each person for the beauty of individuality, the dignity which he portrays and his potentiality . . .

To assert oneself in LABOR toward one's own principles, toward the understanding of all people's and the challenges placed before one . . .

To LEARN for the sake of bettering oneself and the society of which he is a part, for the satisfaction of achieving . . .

To bring individuals together who seek to learn and work toward the goal of achieving a better understanding among different peoples in a bond of LOYALTY to each other as sisters . . .

LOVE, LABOR, LEARNING, LOYALTY

This is Gamma Phi Beta. Through this, our motto, the beauty of our sisterhood shines to reveal all the wonderful accomplishments of our third year at WMU.

The sisters of Phi Mu are proud to be Greeks, and support the whole Greek system as whole-heartedly as they do their own bond in Delta Pi. They believe that sisters are also friends and place a high value on the worth and goals of the individual.

Phi Mu has a great deal to take pride in. They are responsible for a first on campus with a sorority taking the Homecoming Grand Trophy. Through active participation in bowling, swimming, basketball, and other sports, the All-Sports Trophy belongs to the sisters. "You've Gotta Have Heart" won a second place in Sorority Sing.

Phi Mu feels that these accomplishments are a result of their close sisterhood, and therefore it is only an indication of what they will be doing in the future. The Phi Mu's are striving to be number one!

SIGMA KAPPA

The sisters of Sigma Kappa take great pride in the individuality of each girl in the sorority. Many of the sisters are active in numerous campus-wide activities and organizations. This enriches each girl and gives the chapter great diversity and individuality.

Sigma Kappa also participates in many campus-wide activities as a chapter. The blood drive, Homecoming, Greek Weekend, Sorority Sing, Intramural sports, and Little Sisters Weekend are just a few of these activities. Sigma Kappa is definitely unique!

Confusion and excitement of moving into a new house in Fraternity Village began a memorable year for the Alpha Chi's. Top honors were achieved in campus events such as Greek Weekend, Homecoming Queen, Sorority Sing, and scholastic endeavors.

"Together let us seek the heights," our open motto, explains how we become enlightened and integrated within the university through each others' involvement.

Activities do not make the sorority however, it is the sincerity between these individuals that builds an enduring friendship.

INTER FRATERNITY COUNCIL

"Personal and chapter success is measured by achieving worthwhile and predetermined goals."

These words symbolize the role that this year's Interfraternity Council has taken to promote social fraternities at Western. Composed of three bodies, legislative, executive, and judicial, IFC exists primarily to serve these fraternities through rush, philanthropic programs, scholarship, pledging, colonization, and loan funds. No longer willing to sit back, IFC has defined its true role in relation to student issues and involvement. These young men are challenged to support ideals of enduring value, and this year's IFC is determined to meet this challenge head-on.

Pan-Hellenic Council, the governing body for Western's twelve social sororities, is composed of the President and two representatives from each sorority. The council offers the opportunity to work together in common philanthropic projects and to socialize together in the all-greek pan-hellenic spirit.

Sorority life offers enriched college education, friendship, leadership training, and the opportunity to give service to others. Each year the Council sponsors such activities as Pan-Hel Open House, Sorority Sing, Senior Recognition Dessert, and Halloween Trick-or-Treating for the March of Dimes.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

102 years ago, six young men gathered at the University of Virginia and formed a bond for "the promotion of brotherly love . . ." The Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity. Since that day in 1868, the ideas and goals of those men have spread to over 168 universities throughout the nation, recognizing PIKA as truly the top national fraternity.

Here at WMU the brothers of PIKA are on the move. The finest and largest pledge class on campus proudly display Pike pins and the trophy case holds the IFC scholarship trophy for academic excellence. Socially and academically, Pike's rank second to none here at WMU.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

Michigan Delta of SAE is only 9 years old, but firmly planted on WMU's campus. We sponsor the only all campus event, the annual Midget Marathon. Fraternity Sing is a favorite activity of the brothers, and we hold a record of 3 firsts and 3 second places in the last 6 years. Each year the brothers sponsor a Halloween and Christmas party for orphans.

This year we started a program of volunteering 300 man hours to Kal. Cap. And of course, the brothers are at their best at a T.G. in the boonies. It all adds up to the rewards of Brotherhood in the Bonds of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

SIGMA CHI

Sigma Chi, an international fraternity numbering 148 active and 170 alumni chapters, was founded in 1855, at Miami University in Oxford Ohio. As an original member of the famous Miami Triad, Sigma Chi is one of the best known and most respected of college fraternities, and the second largest in the nation.

At Western, you will find Sigma Chi's active in all areas of campus life. In Student Government, M.U.B., U.S.C.B., varsity and intramural athletics. There are Sigs serving their campus everywhere you go.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

A leader in Western's Greek System

The brothers of Sigma Phi Epsilon have earned this reputation through their continued efforts in campus and community efforts. They realize the importance of belonging to a fraternity that promotes leadership, understanding of their fellow man, and the knowledge that after graduation, they can return to 305 Stuart Street to re-live memories of their contributions to Sigma Phi Epsilon.

SIGMA PI

Sigma Pi is unity, fellowship, and a kindred of minds bonded together by brotherhood. It strives for scholarship and attains an air of chivalry.

Sigma Pi can be a T. G. on Friday afternoon, a talent show, a championship football team or a pledge formal and Orchid Ball. Sigma Pi is Walley Schirra and Appollo 7. It is Founder's Day and October 21, 1967.

Sigma Pi is friends when you want them and an understanding when you don't. It is retreat weekend, pledge meetings, blackbooks, and 'grief.' Sigma Pi is hard work and fun, it is a homecoming float and a snow sculpture. Sigma Pi is little sisters. It is studying for a big test and cheering for soccer and basketball teams. It is history and it is the future.

Sigma Pi is. . . .

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

Tau Kappa Epsilon is the largest international fraternity in the world. We at Western are proud of this fact and strive towards excellence in all of our endeavors. TKE's have been successful leaders in student government, campus activities, and sports. TEKE is a brotherhood of individuals. It is the uniqueness that makes us strong. TEKE is what will make it last, if TEKE is what you make it first.

THETA XI

Realizing that relevance is essential for any type of organization the men of Theta Xi have attempted to define their goals as a group, and strive to attain them on WMU's campus. Typically in the past Greek organizations have not been ascertained for their community service, but rather have been accused many times unjustifiably of only existing for the pure social aspect. Theta Xi challenges any accusations against its organization by becoming involved in various community welfare projects. Trying not to be an esoteric group of college males, secluded from reality, the taxi has become involved individually in almost all campus affairs.

ZETA BETA TAU

The Brothers of ZBT believe that the most important phase of any fraternity man's life is brotherhood. ZBT looks for those who can add to the existing brotherhood, widening the scope of the whole and yet maintaining the unity of the fraternal bond. They seek intelligent, perceptive, sensitive men who will be capable of both intellectual and social development during their years at college.

Zeta Beta Tau stresses academics, and believes that fraternity activities cannot be allowed to infringe on one's studies. ZBT's awareness of this is illustrated by its fine academic record. This is shown by the fact that the ZBT Foundation annually provides thousands of dollars for scholarships, which are awarded to the brothers.

DELTA UPSILON

The brothers of Delta Upsilon have another outstanding year!

Not only have the brothers excelled in campus athletics and homecoming, but also hold many of the leadership positions both on the campus and within the Greek system.

"DIKAIA UPOTHEKI," Justice our Foundation, seems a fitting motto for Western's largest and only non-secret fraternity.

ACADEMICS

Education for us was an absurd combination of the archaic and useless. An intellectual moat had been dug around the campus—nothing got in and nothing got out, until a diploma allowed us a chance to make our way on the outside.

Beyond the campus, a war raged in Southeast Asia, and student demonstrations on other campuses had brought changes in an irrelevant system.

College was an incubation period for the most alert minds in the country—the “impudent snobs” attacked by a Vice-President, who will never be accused of having a yawning mind.

Time was, if you told someone you were going to Western, they'd ask, "Oh? And what do you plan to teach?" Things were different for us. Though much of the thinking about Western was unchanged, the departments were educating people in more non-educational fields than ever before.

Not only did we grant degrees to teachers but businessmen, politicians, philosophers, leaders, and artists as well. Our scope of education had widened to include outstanding work in technical fields and a truly liberal education.

It was a long way from Western State Teachers College.

1970 was the year that brought a statement from President Miller that it was the time for change and that the university must tie itself "to the needs of the society that surrounds it."

As a departure from his now famous I'm-human-just-like-you, one-leg-in-the-pants speech, the State of the University Address was more than welcome. Of course, students who had been hearing all through their undergraduate years about Dr. Miller's dressing habits, his offspring and his dogs, were not going to expect too much with the annual address—in that frame of mind, they weren't disappointed.

The State of the University Address was a lesson in hopeful rhetoric, a nice approach to a nasty problem at a modern university, a university which has grown more in a decade than in its entire history. But words don't accommodate expansion of enrollment and programs any more than the incredible expansion of the definition of a college education.

Nothing became tradition like the leaving of it.

For too long, education had been content with itself, an esoteric-cum-effete shovel full of self-elevating nonsense. Fit only for holders of knowledge for knowledge's sake and the siscoombah mentality, "Old School" had to die, to be buried under thousands of fake parchment diplomas.

Western, in 1970, had begun already to meet the challenge of modern education. Class requirements, though still often unnecessary, had been lessened to allow greater flexibility for the student in planning his own education. En loco parentis had begun to leave its last holdout—the classroom, where now students were given more self-determination than ever before.

Education had become less a telling than a sharing.

ADMINISTRATION

The multiversity is an economic, social and political institution of growing stature and importance in American life. Administrators govern a group of men and women who are unlike any other sect in the country—now or in the past. It's the responsibility of administrators to serve as well as guide the 21,000 students who make up Western Michigan University in 1970. Administration is guidance, restriction, service, en loco parentis, pragmatism, and solidarity.

No one is a good administrator by student acclamation. He must first survive intense pressure from those to whom he presumes to administer. Through communication and understanding, he must become a willing listener to "the governed" while remaining an enemy to those who propose to destroy for destruction's sake.

The seat of the administrator is no longer safe behind ivy-covered walls. It's a thankless, sometimes indefensible seat for a good man—a man with conscience.

I wonder if Dr. Brewster needs me yet . . . Such dedication . . . One more outburst from him and it'll be all over for his grade point . . . If she sits like that in the front row, I won't be responsible . . . Are thirteen books too much for fifteen weeks? . . . I've gotta look good for the AAUP elections . . . STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student government evolved from a very dispensable rubber stamp to a loud and influential rubber stamp. Student Association officials tried to move the student government from the level of a “sand box” to one of real power and initiative. Though pressure was intense and students were sharply vocal, relations between those with and without power were uneven and slow to change.

Student government fought a two-front battle with the administration and critics who claimed irrelevance in the Association. Controversial and active, the SA worked with student voices and money to establish itself as a government more powerful than any preceding.

Headed by Duane Miller, they worked on behalf of the October 15 War Moratorium and student rights on local and national levels. These were hard times for students flexing muscles their parents never had—and wished their offspring didn’t.

Student Power—the question that excited members of student government and left administrators as diffident as they are uneasy. Nothing was proved in 1970, but that could be said of 1903-69 as well.

Charlie Halper, vice-president of organizations.

Deep thoughts go into every decision made.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Starting as Western State Normal School, WMU had moved up from Normal to Western State Teachers College and finally a University with an extensive commitment to public education.

The School of Education was the largest within the university, enrolling just under half of WMU's 21,000 students. Certified graduates made the university second in the nation in numbers of graduating teachers.

Elementary, secondary and special education certificates were awarded in more than 35 majors, and Western gained a long reputation for service to education in the nation.

Probably the most valuable sequence in teacher education was student teaching during the students' senior year. This program of on the job training provided valuable experience and a final discrimination between those who showed an interest and those who were truly qualified to join one of the most maligned, as well as most rewarding professions.

VARIED FORMS OF ACADEMIC LIVING

APPLIED ARTS AND SCIENCES

The School of Applied Arts and Sciences approaches an education through a more directly practical standpoint—if it's to be learned, put it to use. AAS answered the question, "What are you going to be when you graduate?"

Programs include agriculture, automotive technology, aviation, electronics, home economics, industrial engineering, mechanical technology, metallurgy, paper technology, printing management, petroleum distribution and occupational therapy.

Particularly outstanding was the Occupational Therapy Department, the oldest and largest in the country.

Vocation was the key work for training that prepared Western students to manage and educate in business and schools—a vocational school at the baccalaureate level.

Dr. Darrell Jones, Dean.

Machines provide a more efficient method in an inefficient society.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

America is big business, and it's up to such institutions as the School of Business at Western to educate and supply men and women for careers in industry, business and government. The school, centered on East Campus, carries on a tradition of professional and pre-professional training at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

The school offers an opportunity for men and women to be upwardly mobile regardless of economic or family origin and prepares students who can continue to make the country the most economically viable nation in the world. It gives all students in the university knowledge and understanding of business and economics so that they might have a meaningful relationship to such matters.

Tabulating a key to the future.

SCHOOL OF GENERAL STUDIES

The School of General Studies has been given the quixotic responsibility of offering course requirements in a general field for all students in the university; required courses including study in the humanities and sciences.

General Studies doesn't work to make specialists of any students—or interest them in a particular field, for that matter. The program has been established to broaden students' experience, make over-specialization impossible and stimulate greater self-appraisal.

LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES

Liberal Arts and Sciences served the whole man, in a tradition older than the American educational system. The school offers courses in all areas to provide a well-rounded education for any student capable of diversification and broad interests.

The humanities, languages and sciences formed the base for a curriculum that encouraged intellectual exploration and a side-open approach to undergraduate and graduate education.

Bachelor's and master's degrees were offered as well as doctorates in sociology, chemistry, and science education. A liberal arts background was provided also in other schools and pre-professional courses. Pre-professional areas served were Christian Ministry, dentistry, engineering, forestry, journalism, law, librarianship, medicine, mortuary science, nursing, and pharmacy.

Advanced knowledge into a chemical maze.

SCHOOL OF GRADUATE STUDIES

The School of Graduate Studies is one of the fastest growing and impressive departments in the university. While Western enjoyed unprecedented growth in size and diversification, Graduate Studies came to satisfy an increasing demand for superior degrees in 54 fields of study.

Now offering advanced course work leading to the Master's Degree and the doctorate, the School of Graduate Studies joined other departments in moving WMU from a noted teachers training school to one of Michigan's major universities and a leader in the arts, sciences and education.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

John Lore headed the Alumni Association, an office created to maintain a lasting and informative link between the graduate and his Alma Mater.

When a student was granted his degree he became one of thousands of former students who held a financial or active interest in the university's alumni organization.

Among the services performed by the office in the name of former students were scholarships, fund drives and special presentations and awards. The pavillion at the Goldsworth Valley pond was a presentation by the Alumni Association.

The office worked on campus to provide information for former students and performed a strong public relations function in practically every aspect of the university.

The Alumni Association banquet brought new leaders and old acquaintances.

ASSOCIATED WOMEN'S STUDENTS

AWS is a unified organization for all women students on campus. AWS exists to encourage scholastic achievement, enrich spiritual and social growth and promote leadership opportunities for women.

Several activities are sponsored by AWS such as Little Sister Weekend, Dad's Day, Twirp Week, Women's Week, Mom's Weekend and Spring Breakfast.

AWS is more than just activities. There are several boards set up to guide and help women students throughout their college life. The four leading boards are Activities, Standards, Executive and Discipline.

That last pin provides a challenge.

The University Student Center Board operates in close association with the University Student Center in following its three-fold purpose: establishing and maintaining the welfare of student activities, evaluating the existing program of activities, and promoting new programs. The board carries out its goals within five main areas: art and culture, Upbeat, publicity, recreation, and social.

KIDS AND US

"Kids and Us" (formerly Kalamazoo Tutorial Organization) is a student organized and student run volunteer organization which works with socially disadvantaged students in 12 Kalamazoo Public Schools.

This year "Kids and Us" serviced over 350 children by giving them a big sister or brother whom they could turn to or as a friend to look up to. The program is run on a one-to-one basis.

Activities this year included field trips to the Kalamazoo Nature Center, football games, and an all project Christmas Party at the Gary Center.

Through "Kids and Us" many of Western's students have found that they can do their part to help a child by showing him that someone cares. They have helped a child see that happiness is walking hand-in-hand.

WATER SPRITES

As much at home in the water as out of it, are the W.M.U. Sprites.

Western's women's synchronized swim club was organized in 1946, and has continued to promote interest and provide the opportunity for those who are interested in water activities.

The annual water spectacular culminates a year's work on costumes, scenery, script, and the ability to perform routines gracefully.

KAPPA

Omicron Delta Kappa is Western's National Honor Society for senior men. Founded in 1914, it now has over 112 chapters throughout the United States. Western's Circle of ODK, as it is commonly referred to, was chartered by the national.

ODK recognizes and encourages the achievement of exemplary character and superior quality in scholarship and leadership. While membership is a mark of highest distinction and honor at Western, it is also an obligation and responsibility in citizenship.

ODK brings together the most representative men of both student and faculty life—to provide a basis of mutual interest and understanding. Recognizing achievement in scholarship, athletics, student government, social and religious affairs, publications, speech, music, art, and drama, ODK emphasizes the development of a well-rounded education.

The activities of Omicron Delta Kappa include the sponsoring of guest speakers on campus, and participation in homecoming in coordination with Mortar Board.

WIND ENSEMBLE

Sigma Phi Omega is a brotherhood of men sharing the common interest of the food industry. The members are dedicated to scholarship, participation and excellence.

The organization has come a long way in eight years, and the brothers pride themselves in their achievements. Highlighting the year was a tie for the Homecoming Grand Trophy. Sigma Phi Omega sponsored the Homecoming "Balloon Happening," as well as its annual pumpkin sale, and Industry Appreciation Day—a huge success again.

The motto, "Working Together Toward Fulfillment," is lived up to every day. This year, as in previous years, the fraternity has gained experience, involvement, status, and the kind of leadership that makes the brothers excel and grow as an active part of Western's campus.

The men of Alpha Beta Chapter carry out a program of social, religious, and service activities for the benefit of the surrounding community. This year Sigma Theta Epsilon, in conjunction with Kappa Phi, renovated the interior of a house for the LIFT Foundation of Kalamazoo.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

Wesley Foundation at the center of Western's expanding campus offers fellowship through programs of worship, music, and study which encourage self-expression and participation. In addition Wesley provides a chapel for prayer and thinking, a lounge for reading or talking, and a recreation room for ping pong, and cards.

Through these programs and its association with Kappa Phi, Sigma Theta Epsilon, and area United Methodist Churches, Wesley attempts to identify the Christian with the modern world in which he lives and to make him aware of his responsibilities as a modern day Christian.

Absorbed in nature, Wesley members express themselves through song.

Guitar and folksongs increase Christian fellowship.

ALPHA DELTA SIGMA

Alpha Delta Sigma, or ADS, is a national professional advertising fraternity. The purpose of ADS is to "professionalize advertising through education." Members are qualified male undergraduate students interested in advertising and allied areas of communication.

Western Michigan University's chapter was fortunate to have one of its members, Jim Donoghue, elected to the office of National Student Vice-President, keeping in line with the national recognition it has always enjoyed.

SKY BRONCOS

The Sky Broncos, Western Michigan University's flying club, stresses skill and safety while flying. Lessons are offered to the members which eventually lead to private or commercial licenses. Competing in intercollegiate meets which test the skill of the pilots, and travelling throughout the United States are activities of the club.

This year, the Bronsos placed third in the national intercollegiate meet held in Oklahoma, and one of their members, Gloria Schaefer, was named top collegiate woman pilot of the United States. The Sky Broncos have every reason to be flying high.

The Occupational Therapy Club is organized to provide educational, social, and service projects for students of occupational therapy. Members participated in the annual Dad's Day Mum Sale, recreational "Fun Nites" in East Hall Gym, service projects at Kalamazoo State Hospital, and in programs with outside speakers.

In September new students were introduced to the department at the Orientation Tea, a project co-sponsored with PI THETA EPSILON.

INDUSTRIAL MANAGEMENT SOCIETY

The WMU Student Chapter of the Industrial Management Society is the only one of its kind in existence. The society is a professional organization of industrial engineers and management personnel. The aims of the organization are to promote research work in the various fields of industrial management, to advance the profession of management, and to study the problems of the social sciences as related to industry.

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship is an interdenominational organization with the main objective of promoting Christian growth and fellowship and encouraging missions. Meetings of the club are held weekly in Kanley Chapel. Inter-Varsity is a very active group, sponsoring various programs and speakers and providing social activities for the members.

SKI CLUB

Fall semester turned out to be a very busy time for the Ski Club even without snow. It started off the year by sponsoring the mixer "Avalanche" and then moving on to "YELL LIKE HELL" during Homecoming. At Tuesday night meetings, the club enjoyed skiing films, fashions, and sometimes a guest speaker. Christmas vacation was rather special for thirty-two of the members who spent eight unforgettable days of skiing and fun at Park City, Utah.

FORENSIC SOCIETY

The Forensic Association's purpose is to develop "the whole speaker" through intercollegiate speech events. Non-competitive activities play an integral part in developing the field of public speaking and debate. The WMU forum furnishes an atmosphere of free discussion of current problems.

The most exciting event of the year was the debate with the University of the Philippines debate team over the problem of admitting Red China to the U.N.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

The International Club is doing its part to promote greater international understanding. The organization tries to encourage friendliness and fellowship among foreign and American students.

Its aim is to provide a wide number of activities in which foreign students get a chance to contribute the best of their culture to an American campus, and, in return, gain a better understanding of the American people, way of life, and culture.

Activities of the club are the International Festival, the International Buffet, nationality nights, picnics, and varied informal discussions.

Nationality is no hindrance to friendly conversation.

Robert G. Rubom, Director of News and Publications.

NEWS AND PUBLICATIONS

The campus News and Publications Office is operated by Robert G. Rubom, Director, and Joe B. Freeman, Associate Director. They are assisted by Linda Adamski and Rosemary Higgenbottom, Secretaries.

The staff members send news releases concerning students and general university activities to hometown newspapers. Other functions include the preparation of the WMU Magazine and Newsletter, the Paper Tech Bulletin, the Campus Guide and Continuing Education Division's Newsletter.

Nearly all photographs used in articles and publications about the university are taken by Rubom. Freeman serves as advisor to the Western Herald and the Brown and Gold.

Amid the hustle and bustle of its office, WIDR produces the now sounds.

WIDR

From a shack and a handful of enthusiastic students in 1953 to the new Student Services Building and a staff of seventy in 1969, WIDR has grown to be one of the most highly rated student radio stations in the country.

Owned and operated entirely by students, WIDR broadcasts to all of Western's on-campus men and women twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week.

Though WIDR's primary function is to provide the students with information, education and entertainment, the station serves as an excellent training ground for staff members who hope to go into professional radio.

As the official sports voice of the University, WIDR follows the Broncos and has several comprehensive sportscasts daily.

WIDR Total Coverage News keeps the busy student well informed of campus happenings, while reports from United Press International and the American Information Radio Network (courtesy of WAOP Radio) supplement the regular newscasts.

WIDR is a member of the National Association of Broadcasters, The Intercollegiate Broadcasting Society, and is duly registered with the Federal Communications Commission.

WIDR's Total Coverage News keeps the student well informed of what's happening.

Maybe it looks a little crowded, but it still manages to release the top hits.

One o'clock is a busy time of the day at WIDR.

“Now you’re really telling it like it is.”

“Good God, doesn’t your paper print anything but this bullshit issue
after issue?”

College students today tend to have three institutional gripes—the dorm food, the dorms, and the campus newspaper. Over the academic year, we at the Herald got a lot of flak from a lot of people. We also got some good remarks. Either way, we don’t mind. We think we put out a good newspaper. A damn good one no matter what anybody says. And we hope to keep it that way.

BROWN AND GOLD

The Brown and Gold staff, with the book's reputation in their slippery hands, began work on the 1970 issue with reservations as well as icon-busting determination to excel with an old form in a thoroughly modern world.

Some of the breaks with yearbook tradition were obvious from the start—and, therefore, easy. Other departures from a hard line, "Alma Mater, Hail to Thee" type of book would come later—slowly and fearfully. This, clearly, would not be a typical Ode to WMU and "Bright College Days."

Call it what you will—relevance, radicalism or irreverence—the 1970 B & G staff brought together a staff of students determined not only to produce a book well, but differently. We fought on for Western . . . and 1970.

From the Editor

The 1970 Brown and Gold is different and perhaps that is what I hoped 1970 would be—different from the frustrating, confusing 60's. The staff of the 1970 Brown and Gold felt that hope too, as they put together a book that tries to honestly "tell it like it is."

A very special thanks goes to David C. McKay and Eric Ramsey for their creative words and photography.

To Carolyn, our secretary goes a hug and a kiss.

A sincere appreciation goes to Leland Williams and Tom Bentley of Benson Printing Company for their help in times of crises. To Dee Barr, associate editor and C. J. Roth, business manager go my personal thanks.

To my editors, a kind thankyou; Ann Brelak, Dan Walters, Vonda Glissan, Linda Chilcote, Betty Hensinger, Maud Elliott, and Paula Lipford. To all of my photographers goes a thankyou for being so patient; John Avots, Bill Rose, Rich Wilbur, Peter Meihm, Jim Bushouse, Dave Fennell, and Chris Ballmer. And a thankyou goes to Smith Cover Company and Stevens Studio.

Finally to Gregory, Jerry Newton and Bob Onstead goes a warm thankyou for assisting in the final, frantic moments.

Lastly but not leastly this is a book about 1970 and although it isn't always pretty—it is honest.

A ruby laser cuts 1970
Open on the dissection table of History.
The poet walks away defeated.
The scientific, analytical mind reels.
1970 was unclassified, new and Undefinable—a challenge for
Us to make some sense of it all.
No Auld Lang Syne. 1970 would be
Forever with us.

While searching for a paragon
Perhaps I'll find a pearl
Drop a word or hint of truth
And help a soul unfurl.

BUSTED!
