Volume LXV

Why Two?

Dee Barr, Editor
Marte Hersey, Features

The Faces and Feelings of WMU has been put together in two volumes, to show the direction yearbooks in general are heading. Eventually, many feel, group pictures and portraits will be omitted, thus making the books primarily features. We took a step in this direction, but instead of omitting them, we merely separated them from the photo-essay of the first volume.

The university reaches out . . .

. . . drawing together many faces . . .

. . . and feelings . . .

. . . to form a "society".

*Yet each person
Remains an individual,
And each is reaching
For his own fulfillment
In his own way.*

Wesley Foundation

*“Aim at the sun
and you may not reach it;
but your arrow will fly
far higher than
if aimed at an object
on a level
with yourself.”*

Joel Hawes

*As winter changes into spring,
we question ourselves . . .*

through interaction and conflict.

Everyone questions differently.

*But in the end people move back within themselves,
and apathy prevails.*

*The accumulation
of one set of goals only to begin again.*

The shortest days of our lives . . .

lead into the most hectic.

Panhellenic street dance reaches for campus unity.

*Other people,
other ways.*

*“Con-for-mi-ty vv 1: adapt oneself to; be regular; follow,
go by or observe the rules.”*

Every fall the cycle begins anew.

At least talk to each other.

To communicate

is the beginning of understanding.

. . . while we have been trying to reach our personal goals.

The “outside” world has been pursuing its own ends.

*To which “world”
should we, as students,
devote ourselves?*

We wanted to save ourselves time, . . .

. . . but have we merely exceeded our needs?

Nature, itself, is reaching for survival . . .

. . . As we fill this world with refuse,

and strangle nature.

"It is within each of us that the Peace of the world is cast . . ."

*“Ambition has but one
reward for all:
A little power, a little
transient fame,
A grave to rest in and a fading name!”*

William Winter

It is no longer possible for anyone to turn their back on another human being.

Where does reality lie?

What will be left for them?
